

BSRF NO. 35 - APOLLONIUS OF TYANA - Biographical Notes. In response to inquiries by students we have transcribed these observations on the life of the Cappadocian Sage from those who knew him personally there in Palestine in the First Century, A.D. These are from the old book, "Antiquity Unveiled", published in Philadelphia in 1882, and obtained at a series of seances especially arranged by the Master. Was there a historical Jesus? Of course there was! He was also Paul and John, the Revelator of the last book of the Bible, "Revelations".

This material gives some hint of the early occult training Apollonius received and throws new light on the Essenes, the first Christians.

Illustrated, printed. $2.25

