Dear Mr. Bray:

Thank you for your money order for $2.00. Enclosed please find Question and Answer booklet #4. Number 5 is now at the printers and should be ready for mailing in about two weeks.

Will you help us clarify our records? According to our files Questions and Answers booklet was sent to you in January. On February 7th we received your money order for $1.00, and on February 26 booklet #2 was mailed. On March 31st we received your money order for $1.00 and on April 16th booklet #3 was mailed. On August 18 we received the above mentioned money order for $2.00. This makes a total of $4.00 received. The full series sells for $1.00 a booklet, or $5.00 for them all. If you have sent further payment we have not received it. We would suggest that you check with the postal authorities in this case and send a tracer immediately.

With every kind wish to you always.
