Character: SPECIAL INQUIRY

Synopsis:

[REDACTED]
University of Bridgeport, Bridgeport, Conn., advised that during time he served as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] at Penn State University, from [REDACTED] no information ever came to his attention which would indicate that any activity on the part of the appointee would represent a conflict of interest on his behalf.
Mr. [REDACTED] commented favorably regarding appointee's ability, character, loyalty, reputation and associates and recommended him highly for a government position.

- R U C -

Details:

[REDACTED] University of Bridgeport, Bridgeport, Connecticut, was contacted on March 7, 1962 and advised as follows:

He served as [REDACTED] at Penn State University (PSU) from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] when he resigned voluntarily to accept his present position. He advised that concerning the appointee's serving on the Board of Directors of the Bellefonte Trust Company, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, he said that he personally could never quite understand why appointee accepted a position of this nature with such a small bank. He related that in his opinion the appointee exercised poor judgment

b7C
b7D

in this respect. He said there are two commercial banks already in existence at State College, Pennsylvania, at the time when the initial action was taken to establish a branch of the Bellefonte Trust Company at State College.
He said that some of the officials of the two banks already in existence became disgruntled because they felt that another bank in the town would take away some of their business. He related that at the time this incident occurred and the branch of the Bellefonte Trust Company was opened, PSU had considerable interest deposited in the two commercial banks already in existence at State College and PSU interest remained in these banks. As for the letter the appointee wrote to the Pennsylvania State Banking Association, Mr. [REDACTED] stated that he never saw the letter and was never cognizant of its contents. He reported that this letter was written at least two years prior to his becoming affiliated at PSU and also pointed out that the appointee was Vice-President at PSU at the time the letter in question was written by him.

Mr. [REDACTED] related that in his opinion there definitely was no conflict of interest on the part of the appointee regarding this matter.

b7C

Continuing, Mr. [REDACTED] related that one of his duties as [REDACTED] was the purchasing of new equipment for the university. He said that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, operated "The Lion Office Supply" and did considerable business with PSU and as far as he can determine [REDACTED] still does a considerable amount of business with the university.
He pointed out that all office equipment purchased by PSU is done via bids and if [REDACTED] was the lowest bidder he was awarded the contracts. He related that on occasion he received both written and oral complaints from various competitors and any complaints that had any validity were thoroughly checked into by him.

b7C
He said that in a situation such as this, there are bound to be some allegations from the competitors who do not receive the bid. He pointed out that the appointee was a very close friend of [REDACTED] but added that many of the other officials at PSU were also good friends of [REDACTED]

b7C, b7D
Mr. [REDACTED] stated that there was no collusion between the appointee and [REDACTED] as far as the purchase of any equipment for the university during the time he was affiliated there. b7C

b7C
Concerning the matter of trucking coal into PSU, Mr. [REDACTED] reported that this was the reason he terminated his association there. He said that there was no conflict of interest on the part of the appointee regarding this matter, however, he felt there was a conflict of interest as far as [REDACTED] as being a [REDACTED] of the Pennsylvania Railroad and a member of the Board of Trustees at PSU. He said that the Board of Trustees passed a resolution that coal should be brought in by rail, rather than by truck and that this resolution was passed by the Board in consideration to the railroad because they are encountering financial difficulties. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that his only feeling regarding this matter was that the appointee did not react to the situation as he, [REDACTED] would have liked him to. He stated that in all matters in which he was involved while affiliated with PSU, he never had any reason to believe that the appointee's activities ever involved any collusion or conflict of interest. b7C b7D

b7C b7D
Concluding, Mr. [REDACTED] reported that he would recommend the appointee without reservation as to character, loyalty, reputation and associates, for a responsible position with the government.
