

I am still trying all avenues including chasing sighting reports in my research efforts.

I am expecting interesting news from the space congress being held in Austria on the exploration & peaceful uses of outer space. Whatever information is to be made available, I hope it will be available before its published in book form.

Good health to you & yours,

Respectfully
Hank McCoy