Dear Mr. Gontovnick:

Thank you very much for your letter of July 19th, received on August 2nd, concerning your planned symposium on UFOs.

I regret that I must decline your very kind invitation to participate. My employment requires that I travel a great deal, often with short notice. This, of course, makes it difficult for me to plan personal trips. Sometimes I am able to combine my personal interests with business trips, when I know about them in advance. But there is no way I can commit myself to your symposium in time for you to include me in your program.

If circumstances are favourable, I may be able to attend simply as a delegate, rather than as a speaker.

I look forward to receiving a sample copy of "UFO Canada".

Returned, enclosed, is a letter you wrote to John Musgrave which you inadvertently enclosed in the envelope with ~~your~~ letter to me.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Bray.
