

having taken early retirement from the Canada Safety Council in April of 1987, so that I can live my life the way I want to, not the way my employer wanted me to. I keep very busy and have a book being published by CCH Canadian Limited in the next month or so. It is titled Financial Planning for Early Retirement, which is another interest of mine.

Dot sends her best regards and her sympathy to you on your loss, also.

I will let you know when something definite happens on the literature deposit business. I am returning the papers you sent to me. I do hope you understand my position.

Best regards,
