Dear Mr. McKay:

Thank you for your letter of June 17th, and for your kind words about my book.

I think it may be possible to arrange a meeting on the 24th, but it will have to be in the evening and it may have to be short. My son underwent a major operation yesterday and I naturally wish to visit him each day.

I suggest you give me a call at my home, at 722-1935, about six pm, and we will then see what can be arranged. Thank you again, and I am looking forward to being able to see you.

Sincerely,

A.R. BRAY
