

- 2 -

I have now left the Navy (what's left of it!) and am employed with the Canada Safety Council. This job requires considerable travel and I have every expectation of visiting Toronto fairly often so perhaps we can get together more often.

Anyway, that seems all for the moment, but will give you more details next week if we can get together.

Best regards,