ROBERTSON REPORT DECLASSIFIED

by

On January 21, 1975 the Robertson Panel Report, long an enigma to UFO researchers, was declassified unexpectedly by the CIA. It is hoped that this action might be a precedent for further government disclosures about UFOs.

A brief history of the Robertson Panel may be applicable here. In 1953 the U.S. Air Force had an immense problem on their hands. The nineteen hundred (1900) UFO reports which had flooded in during 1952 had choked military communication channels. Officials surmised that a potential enemy might possibly create a fake UFO flap, to give them an advantage while launching an unexpected missile attack against our nation.

The Air Force sought the advice of the Central Intelligence Agency, assuming perhaps with topsy-turvy reasoning
