Then M Sgt Bunts told me about the radio they found in one ship. He said they got into only one ship of the two they have and that one was the one with the broken [illegible] porthole. They kept probing through the porthole until they hit something that opened the door of the ship. They found a radio or something similar of which set a signal off at a staggered interval of time somewhat over 15 minutes. They said it evidently set off a signal but which could not be picked up with out modern electrical devices. The case of the radio which was about 5" (inches) could not be pierced by diemond drills and was as light in weight as aluminum.

Then came some theories which he told me was such that the answers to this saucer was that a magnetic field was set up ahead of this craft by a turning, spinning disc in the center which created the magnetic field ahead.

I met Mr _____ yesterday and he confirmed Sgt Bunts's story and said a letter of introduction would be given me introducing me to Mr _____ when I get there who would in turn introduce me to _____.

I realised after meeting Mr _____ that a serious leak in security was present and if the saucer was real as they said it started to scare me at the thought I knew this. I didn't feel well yesterday afternoon as my mind was on saucers and this information I knew. I realised a little when I got home last night and realised the actual seriousness of my position. I decided I would see Mr._____ and being my best friend would give me some advice as to whether he thought it was a hoax or not.

After supper, I decided I would make up some questions pertaining to the saucer and see what Sgt Bunts would say. I figured my serial number
