John B. Alexander, Ph.D.

Dr. Alexander was a colonel when he retired from the U.S. Army where he was involved in many unusual projects.

His second career was at Los Alamos National Laboratory that focused on non-lethal weapons. Organizing a multi-agency group to research UFOs, he briefed senior officials and was surprised at what he learned.

Today he is an international consultant on strategic security issues.

Rumors about him abound, including that he was COL Harold Phillips, in Howard Blum's book Out There, and that he is in The Aviary or possibly a member of MJ-12. It is true that he is listed in American Men and Women of Science, was named an Aerospace Laureate by Aviation Week, and is a Councilor for the Society for Scientific Exploration.

He's recently returned from traveling to the Stone Age in the jungles of Papua New Guinea.

Victoria Alexander lives in Las Vegas with her husband John B. Alexander, Ph.D. Victoria previously wrote extensively on the subject of UFO abductees.

In 1994 Victoria conducted a breakthrough research project, "The Alexander UFO Religious Crisis Survey" (AUFORCS), a survey of 1,000 theologians on the impact of UFO's on religion for The Bigelow Foundation, the precursor to Robert Bigelow's influential National Institute for Discovery Science (NIDS).

Victoria's primary interest is experiencing different realms of reality. Her passion lies in all spiritual modalities and she has participated in the practices of Christianity, Umbanda, Candomblé, Spiritism, Ayi Guarani, Hinduism, Santo Diame and Tibetan Buddhism.

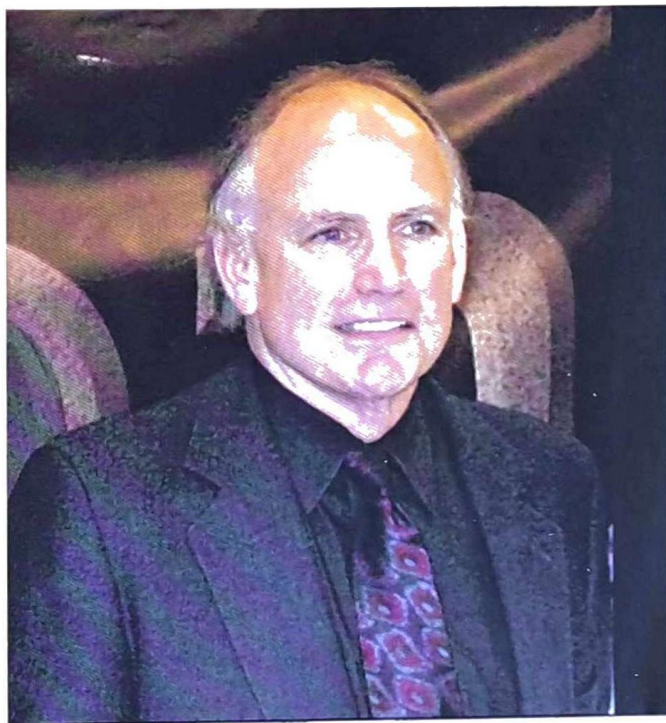

Since the year 2000, Victoria has worked with South American curanderos and is an advocate of the visionary plant ayahuasca. Victoria welcomes anyone interested in ayahuasca to contact her by email at Kwanitaka@aol.com.

A well-known film critic, a list of 1,000 of Victoria's film reviews can be found on Rottentomatoes.com (www.rottentomatoes.com/author-3571/). Victoria writes for FilmFestivalToday.com, FilmsInReview.com, and LasVegasInformer.com. Victoria is a voting member of the prestigious Broadcast Film Critics Association (www.bfca.org) and a founding member of the Las Vegas Film Critics Society (www.lvfc.org). Victoria also writes a weekly column, THE DEVIL'S HAMMER posted on <http://www.fromthebalcony.com>.

Stephen Bassett is a political activist and a leading advocate for ending the 65-year government imposed truth embargo regarding an extraterrestrial presence engaging the human race.

He is the executive director of the Paradigm Research Group and Political Action Committee X-PPAC and the producer of the X-Conference.

His advocacy work has been extensively covered by national and international media. Stephen has spoken to audiences all over the world about the implications of formal Disclosure of the ET presence. PRG Media

The pyramids have long fascinated Robert Bauval. He is Egyptian, born in Al-Iskandariyya (Alexandria) to Belgian parents, and has spent most of his life living and working in the Middle East. For many years he had pondered over the significance of Sah, the constellation of Orion, and its link to the pyramids. One night, while working in Saudi Arabia, he took his family and a friend's family up into the sand dunes of the Arabian desert for a camping expedition. Bauval knew that the seemingly inconsistent layout of the three Fourth Dynasty pyramids at Giza was no accident, and had applied his own engineer's mind, and those of many friends to the problem. Most agreed that the alignment, though unusual, was no accident, given the precise mathematical knowledge that the Egyptians had.

His friend, a keen amateur astronomer, pointed out Orion, and mentioned, in passing, that Mintaka, the smaller more easterly of the stars making up Orion's belt was offset slightly from the others. Immediately Bauval saw the answer -- the three Belt Stars were aligned in exactly the same way as the three pyramids! Bauval checked the alignment in 2450 BCE by precessing the three Belt Stars back, and found that, due to their close proximity in space, great distance from Earth, and negligible proper motion, they looked exactly the same then as they do today. Of course, they had changed in declination -- then they were just below the celestial equator, at about -1 degree declination. The pyramids were a mirror image, the Earthly representation of the Belt of Orion, the destination of the dead King! The Egyptians were dualists -- everything they thought and believed was a duality. Everything had its counterpart, cause and effect, left and right, East and West, death and rebirth -- nothing was ever seen in isolation. They had constructed at Giza an exact replica of the Duat destination of the King. Far from being a tomb, the pyramid was the starting point of the King's journey back to the stars from whence he came, back to the First Time.

Bauval initially made use of the astronomy program Skyglobe 3,5 for the PC. Though too inaccurate for serious work -- it does not take proper motion, nutation, refraction, for example, into account -- it was sufficient to clarify Bauval's mind as to the value of his discovery. Skyglobe 3,5 will plot the Milky Way on its charts if requested, and doing so added further proof to Bauval's theory. Giza is West of the Nile -- putting the plane of our galaxy into the equation showed that Orion is "West" of the Milky Way, in proportion to Giza and the Nile.

Grant Cameron became involved in Ufology as the Vietnam War ended in May 1975 with personal sightings of an object which locally became known as Charlie Red Star. The sightings occurred in Carman, Manitoba about 25 miles north of the Canada-US border. Hundreds of other people sighted objects at the same time during a prolonged flap of sightings.

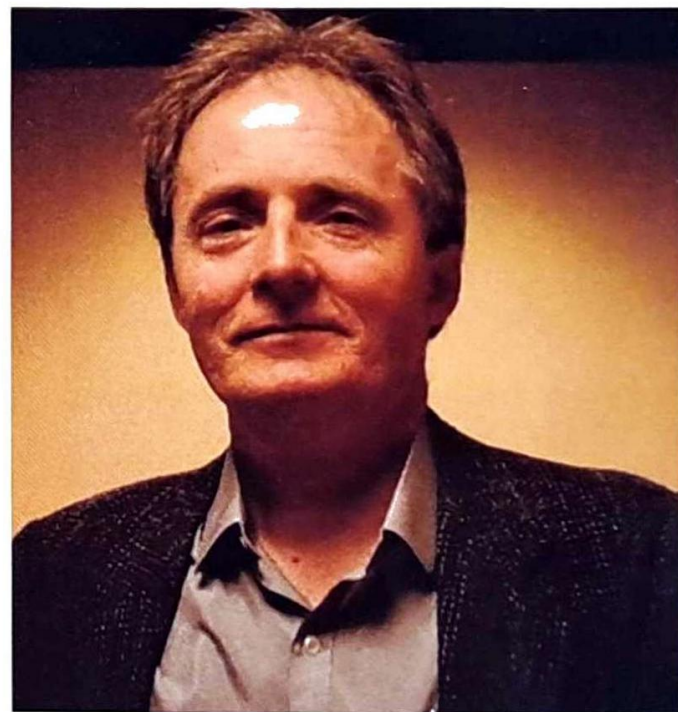

After composing a manuscript about the flap, he moved onto extensive research of the work of the late Wilbert B. Smith. Smith headed up the Canadian government flying saucer investigation known as Project Magnet which ran from 1950 to 1954.

Years of Smith research led to the discovery of former Penn State University president Dr. Eric Walker, who was identified by Dr. Robert Sarbacher as a key person inside the UFO cover-up. Cameron teamed up with T. Scott Crain to research and write a book titled "UFOs, MJ-12, and the Government", published by MUFON. The book summed up their three years of research on Dr. Walker's involvement. An updated version of this book with new material will be released in late 2012 and will be titled "UFOs, Area51, and Government Informants."

In the past few years Cameron has turned his research interests to the involvement and actions of the President of the United States in the UFO problem. Many of these findings have been written up on The Presidents UFO Website www.presidentialufo.com.

At present Cameron is working on producing monographs for Dr. Walker, Wilbert Smith, the Presidential involvement in the topic of psychic phenomena, and a monograph looking at a possible disclosure pattern to try and explain the many actions of the American government, related to UFOs, during the last 50 years. He is working on a detailed paper detailing the "64 Reasons the Government is Covering Up the ET Presence." He is also now researching and lecturing on the connection of consciousness to the UFO phenomena hoping that it will help explain how UFOs are propelled, and what is the real nature of the Universe.

At present Cameron is sorting through almost 100 FOIA requests from the Clinton Presidential Library in Little Rock, Arkansas, related to the UFO related actions and policies inside the two Presidential terms of Bill Clinton. They show that the Clinton administration was very interested in the phenomena and actually tried to force out some of the hidden information to the public.

Kim Carlsberg is as UFO Researcher, Internationally Keynote Speaker, and three time author on the ET / UFO phenomenon. A "contactee" herself, Kim's first book "Beyond My Wildest Dreams: Diary of a UFO Abductee" chronicling eight years of continuous contact with seven different species of ETs, was published nearly two decades ago. Considered a milestone in contact literature at the time, her life story was optioned by Tri-Star Pictures.

A graduate of the "Art Center College of Design" Pasadena, CA in commercial photography, Kim's career as an advertising and portrait photographer has covered all aspects of the entertainment and music industries. She has been commissioned to photograph the most noted celebrities in private sittings, from rock stars to presidents.

Her work has appeared in hundreds of publications worldwide including Rolling Stone, TV Guide and Time, and her five year stretch as the exclusive photographer on the TV series BayWatch, brought her the honor of being the first woman accepted into the Hollywood Camera Union.

Kim's new book "The Art Of Close Encounters" has been coined "The Quintessential Cosmic Coffee Table Book". It is a favorite in the UFO community with endorsements from George Noory - Host of Coast 2 Coast AM, R. Leo Sprinkle, PhD, Steven Basset - Paradigm Research Group, and many others. Quote from Stan Romanek, author of the best seller "Messages": "This is my ABSOLUTE FAVORITE UFO BOOK"! Learn more @ www.TheArtOfCloseEncounters.com

Kim's business in Sedona, AZ, Sedona UFO Sky Tours, takes skywatchers to UFO hotspots with the most powerful night vision equipment available. UFOs are spotted every time out and sometimes up to 100 craft have been seen at once.

Chip Coffey is an internationally acclaimed psychic, medium, paranormal investigator, lecturer and author.

He is the great-grandson of famed Native American medicine woman Minnie Sue Morrow Foster. (He is also distantly related to General Robert E. Lee and Thomas Coffey, an actor who performed with Edwin and John Wilkes Booth.)

His psychic abilities manifested themselves when he was a young child and, after successful careers in traditional counseling, the entertainment industry and travel management, he began working full-time as a psychic and medium in 2001. Since that time, he has conducted thousands of readings for clients all around the world.

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution called Chip "every bit as accurate as John Edward" and InStyle magazine said "Chip Coffey is a cross between John Edward and Dr. Phil...a psychic who doesn't hesitate to tell it like it is." Fate and Fortune, a European magazine, featured an article about Chip's visit to the ruins of the World Trade Center with the widow of a man who died there on 9-11.

Chip hosted Psychic Kids: Children of the Paranormal, a one hour pilot documentary, followed by three hit seasons of the series that aired on both A&E and Biography. Psychic Kids is aired in numerous international markets, including Canada, Mexico, the UK, Central America, South America, Australia and Norway.

Chip's first book, Growing Up Psychic, was published by Random House, and released April 3, 2012. Articles that Chip has written have appeared in regional and national publications. Haunted Times magazine featured his article as the cover story of its winter 2007 issue.

Philip Corso, Jr. is a self-made man born into a military family in Gadsden, Alabama during World War II. His father's Army career took the family to Japan, Italy, Germany and postings in the United States.

He parlayed his talent for mechanical engineering into a career and now builds experimental aircraft and runs his company, High Speed Composites. But his life was to take an extraordinary turn in 1997, when the senior Corso, his father, Colonel Philip J. Corso (ret.), published a memoir written with William J. Birnes.

That memoir, The Day after Roswell, is easily one of the most controversial and implicative books published in the 20th Century. Now Phil, Jr. has an additional vocation - protecting, extending and validating his father's legacy. Philip J. Corso, Sr. died in July of 1998 at the age of 83.

He had made a decision to tell his story as best he could. He spoke eloquently about the need for the United States government to tell the American people about their world. Now his son speaks for him. It is a worthy vocation, the product of which may well be a paradigm change in human affairs and world peace.

Miriam Delicado since childhood has been in touch with the other worlds and energies of life beyond our earths dimension.

During a physical encounter in 1988 with Tall Blond Extraterrestrials, Miriam was given insights and information from these beings regarding who human beings really are and the purpose of life on planet earth.

With this deep understanding of the creation of life she began contacting indigenous people around the world. Understanding the Sacred spiritual fabric of life that the indigenous still connect with through their ceremonies are holding the world in balance. Their roll is critical to the future of our planet as we transition to the future of this planet.

Miriam is also the Executive Director of The Great Gathering of Humanity which has been created with the understanding that we are all one people, the people of earth.

From a very young age, Mel Fabregas has had an insatiable curiosity for knowledge and an overdeveloped sense of wonder, based on a number of paranormal experiences. He lives by the following motto: "I would rather have a mind open by wonder than one closed by belief." and "Be skeptical, but don't close your mind."

Mel has a bachelor's degree in finance (BBA) from Florida International University in Miami and a master's degree in international business administration (MBA) from the University of Texas at Dallas. At the age of 20, while working for a Fortune 500 company (D&B), Mel became the youngest financial analyst for the company, where he served from 1987 to 1999. Prior to his long-term corporate career Mel worked in television as a child actor, retail, banking, and even with McDonnell Douglas. During one of his assignments, Mel lived in Mexico City (92/93) during the implementation of NAFTA. There, Mel met a woman who foretold his future with incredible accuracy. At the time, being an open-minded skeptic, Mel dismissed the information. But as time went by and each prediction materialized, Mel could no longer ignore the information. In 1999 Mel left corporate America and became an entrepreneur in the hospitality, wholesale, real estate, and most recently, by accident, media broadcasting. Among all the predictions shared with Mel in Mexico, the last prediction said: "One day you will in-form the world."

In late November 2008 Mel's life would never be the same. Mel had a dream in which he saw the words "Take Action" repeatedly throughout the dream. Mel was compelled to turn on the television that morning. Every news outlet was reporting that the British Ministry of Defense, had declassified information about an Air Force pilot with the name of Milton Torres who was stationed in England in 1957. One night, Torres and his wingman were ordered to scramble their jets and shoot down an unidentified flying object (UFO) the size of an aircraft carrier. Mel continued switching channels and was surprised to see that every news outlet had Torres on. All of a sudden, the dream made sense to Mel. "Take Action" meant that Mel needed to interview Torres. Mel found Torres' telephone number, but before proceeding to make contact, he knew he had to represent a media outlet. Mel turned to his wife and asked her for a radio show name that would encompass the topics of UFOs, the paranormal, conspiracies, etc., to which Mel's wife uttered the word "VERITAS." Mel proceeded to speak with Milton Torres on behalf of "The Veritas Show" After Mel recorded the interview, he made it available on Friday, December 5, 2008. To his surprise, thousands of people around the world listened to what seemed to be a radio program, when in reality it was supposed to be a souvenir telephone call for Mel. People kept writing to Mel asking when the next "show" was going to air. That's when "Take Action" took a new and deeper meaning. The Veritas Show was born. Since then, Mel has interviewed the who's who of UFOlogy, conspiracies, paranormal, alternative news/history/archeology/health, and more. Mel has appeared on History Channel's Brad Meltzer's Decoded, several domestic and international radio shows, and has served as master of ceremonies and moderator at a number of related events. VERITAS' main purpose is to probe the depths of the hidden and obscured issues that affect the very core of humanity today and to find the answers to the primordial questions. www.veritasradio.com

His newest book "Science Was Wrong: Startling Truths about Cures, Theories, and Inventions 'They' Declared Impossible" with Kathleen Marden, was published in June, 2010. On July 2, 2010, he was inducted into the Roswell, New Mexico, UFO Hall of Fame for his long term investigative efforts on that important case.

(Silly Effort To Investigate) cultists. He has spoken at more MUFON Symposia than anyone else.

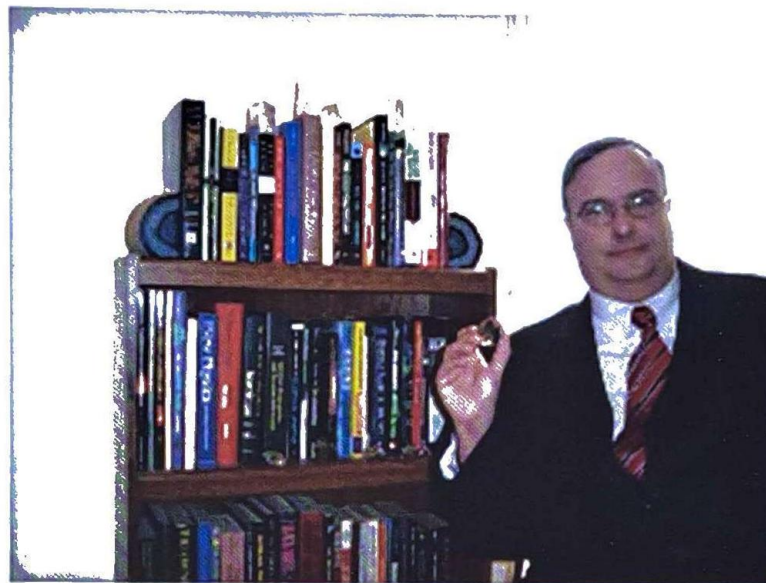

Thomas P. Fusco is an independent researcher who has devoted nearly three decades investigating the relationship between mind, physics, spirituality, parapsychology, scientific anomalies and paranormal phenomena with the goal of uncovering the unifying cosmological framework that has eluded mankind for generations.

Since the official launch of his book in November 2011, he has been invited to speak as a guest on close to 200 national and international radio programs including Coast to Coast AM. He will be speaking at the upcoming Spirits, Shadows and Secrets Symposium to be held August 2013 in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Dr. Salvatore Giandinoto was born in The Bronx, New York in 1958. He received his B.S. in Chemistry in 1980 at Clarkson University, Postdam, NY. He then went directly into the Ph.D. program at Polytechnic University in Brooklyn, NY and received a Ph.D. in Organic Chemistry with a minor in Physical Chemistry in 1985. Dr. Paul A. LaViolette has been president of the Starburst Foundation since 1984 where he has conducted interdisciplinary research in physics, astronomy, geology, climatology, psychology, and cultural anthropology.

He received his BA in physics from Johns Hopkins, his MBA from the University of Chicago, and his Ph.D. in systems science from Portland State University.

He has conducted occupational safety research at Harvard University, and served as a solar energy consultant to the UN, Club of Rome, and Greek government. He has also consulted Hughes Aircraft on ways to improve company innovation.

In 1993 he successfully reverse engineered the B-2 bomber's classified propulsion technology and more recently has disclosed and explained the microwave beam technology used to propel vehicles developed in the super secret Skyvault Project.

He is the originator of the subquantum kinetics physics paradigm and also discoverer of the galactic superwave phenomenon, the notion that cosmic ray outbursts from the galactic core periodically trigger major shifts in the Earth's climate. In testing this theory he became the first to discover high concentrations of cosmic dust and gold in ice age polar ice.

He is author of six books, which include Secrets of Antigravity Propulsion, Genesis of the Cosmos, Subquantum Kinetics, Earth Under Fire, Galactic Superwaves, and Decoding the Message of the Pulsar.

Jari A Mikkola is the Director of World Nexus Publications, and has been researching the anomalous sciences for over 37 years around the world. Recently retired from his long career as a Global Business Intelligence Architect for IBM. He has consulted for many of the Fortune 100 companies and worked most of his career in aerospace and high-tech. Most recently, he has been living in the Netherlands having accepted a position with the Amsterdam office in 2009.

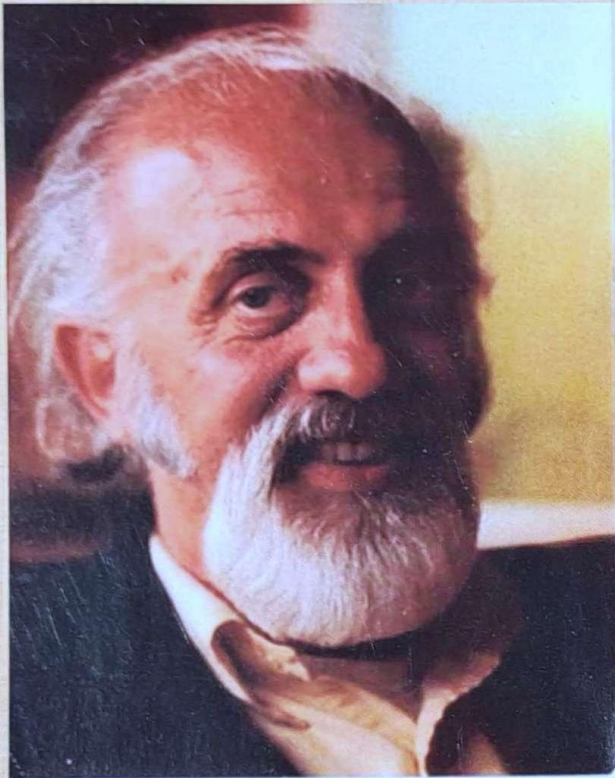

Throughout his many years of international travels, Jari has been actively researching and investigating anomalous events around the world for many decades. Having written many articles over his career for various publications, he decided instead to create a website utilizing his vast knowledge and experience. When asked why he didn't write a book, his reply was simple, "I have! Several in fact, and they're all free on the Internet on the Dimension Zone. Including the concept of conducting research and investigating the paranormal known as the "In the Shadows Paranormal Project," which is available to everyone within the Dimension Zone's Paranormal pages.

Jari's many years of experience was a natural progression, and envisioned and created The Dimension Zone as a forum to disseminate the facts behind what is fast becoming known as the proto-sciences, which prompted The Journal of Anomalous Sciences, DZ Nucleus, Occam's Enigma, and soon the Spirits, Shadows & Secrets International Symposium, in Edinburgh, Scotland for August 2013.

His many years of experience managing business issues, simultaneous projects, and many people, we can all understand what drives him to succeed. He is hard-working and truly believes that good is inherent in all people (some just need some help finding that good), making him well suited to lead his team as their director.

Jari is the President of World Nexus Publications & Productions, LLC, and editor for The Journal of Anomalous Sciences.

While pursuing a career writing fiction, Lloyd Pye also indulged a deeply personal interest in hominoids (bigfoot, yeti, etc.). By 30, he was convinced they were the indigenous bipedal primates of planet earth, and that what science told us were "pre" humans were nothing of the kind. They were the ancestors of today's living hominoids, not of today's humans, but he had no plausible way to explain how humans had come to be here. He knew we weren't a part of the flowchart of natural life on Earth, and that we clearly didn't evolve here in the way mainstream science insisted, but he couldn't find a valid way to support his position.

Finally, he read Zecharia Sitchin's classic book about Sumerian prehistory, The Twelfth Planet, which he published in 1976 but which Pye didn't find out about until 1990. His translation of Sumerian history written in cuneiform on stone tablets provided an explanation for human origins that made rational sense based on what he had learned about the reality of hominoids. He had the front end of his work and he had the back end of mine, so Pye knew he could combine the two and create something unique and valuable.

In late 1997, Pye published "Everything You Know Is Wrong" (EYKIW), which became a proverbial "overnight sensation."

Through 1998, he traveled all over the U.S. and into western Canada lecturing about it at dozens of conferences and speaking about it in many radio interviews. He then had some appearances on local TV shows. His increasing exposure brought him to the attention of Ray and Melanie Young of El Paso, Texas, who were in possession of an unusual human-like skull. They showed it to Pye early in 1999 and asked his opinion. He felt it was almost certainly a human deformity of some kind, but told them it couldn't hurt anything to be absolutely sure. They asked if he would confirm that for them, and that set in motion an on-going series of events as Pye attempted to definitively determine the genetic heritage of their unusual relic, since dubbed the Starchild Skull .

Pye has shepherded the Starchild through more than a decade of scientific tests, expert analysis, raised public awareness, and have published both a printed book and an eBook about it. After all that, a recent DNA test finally gave a preliminary but convincing result that the Starchild Skull is part human and part nonhuman. Now he plans to recover its entire genome to prove this radical assertion beyond any possible doubt. www.StarchildProject.com has more information about this topic.

Stan Romanek, Inspirational Speaker and International Bestselling Author, may be the world's most documented extraterrestrial contact case. The multitude of unexplainable events involving Stan and hundreds of witnesses continue to this day.

Growing up in a military family on an Air Force base, Stan was expected to follow a military career. However, he chose a different path pursuing commercial art, fashion design, grief counseling and corporate management. He was also an Olympic hopeful in cycling and even a renowned Native American flute musician.

It was shortly before he started a computer repair business in Denver, Colorado in 2000 that Stan had his first experience with the paranormal. Ever a skeptic, he began to document his UFO sightings and contact with extraterrestrials as proof to himself, and others as validation.

Due to the overwhelming evidence and multitude of witnesses who have come forward, Stan's case has created a stir in the scientific and UFO communities. Through his lectures and books, he provides an amazing look into numerous UFO sightings, abductions and contact with off-world beings. Stan presents compelling trace, video and photographic evidence to support these experiences.

As a reluctant experiencer grown to a willing messenger, Stan has been given the daunting task of sharing his story and guiding others to an understanding that we are not alone. As his destiny unfolds, Stan tours the country lecturing and doing book signings. Through these events, he shares his knowledge of why some ETs are so interested in the human race and the message of wonder and hope these Etherean beings have put forth.

Lisa Romanek, author of From My Side of the Bed: Pulling Back the Covers on Extraterrestrial Contact, A Spouses Point of View, is the wife of the well-known extraterrestrial abductee/contactee Stan Romanek.

Lisa realized that there are two sides to every story, two sides of every bed. She has learned the importance of taking that which is personal and at times embarrassing, and turning it into that which serves the public— those who have walked in the same slippers that she has as spouses of abduction.

Lisa takes you on her heart wrenching and at times hilarious journey as the wife of Stan Romanek. Her courage and integrity mix well with her Nebraska born charm. As does her decades of work with the elderly. All of which reflects the tenderness compassion and warmth she embodies and carries as a spokeswoman for those who feel that they are alone in a world of extraterrestrial chaos beyond their control. As the wife of an abductee and mother of three children she has a simple message to share: Live without fear, and love without limit.

She attended the University of Louisville, earning a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English Literature in 1966. This was followed by a Master's degree in Library Arts from Spalding College in 1971. Carla worked as a librarian for The Kentucky Home School, a thirteen-grade school for girls, as a school librarian until she was hired by Don Elkins to do paranormal research.

They formally created L/L Research in 1970. Elkins and she wrote Secrets of the UFO and The Crucifixion of Esmerelda Sweetwater together. Carla's other books include A Channeling Handbook, A Wanderer's Handbook, A Book of Days, and Living the Law of One 101.

Carla has served as a vocal channel since 1974 and was the instrument for what became the five volumes of The Law of One books. Carla continues to channel and offers personal counseling and channeling sessions. She presently lives in Louisville, KY, with her husband, Jim.

Anthony Sanchez, author of the explosive book UFO Highway which was called "an incredible story and an incredible book" by George Noory, is the founder of Sceptre Radio Network a platform for talk radio that is off limits to the establishment and which operates uncensored and unconstrained. In addition, Anthony is organizer of the annual UFO Paranormal Summit in Sacramento CA which provides an unprecedented gathering of top experts of Ufology and the Paranormal to help expose what is really happening to the people of this planet.

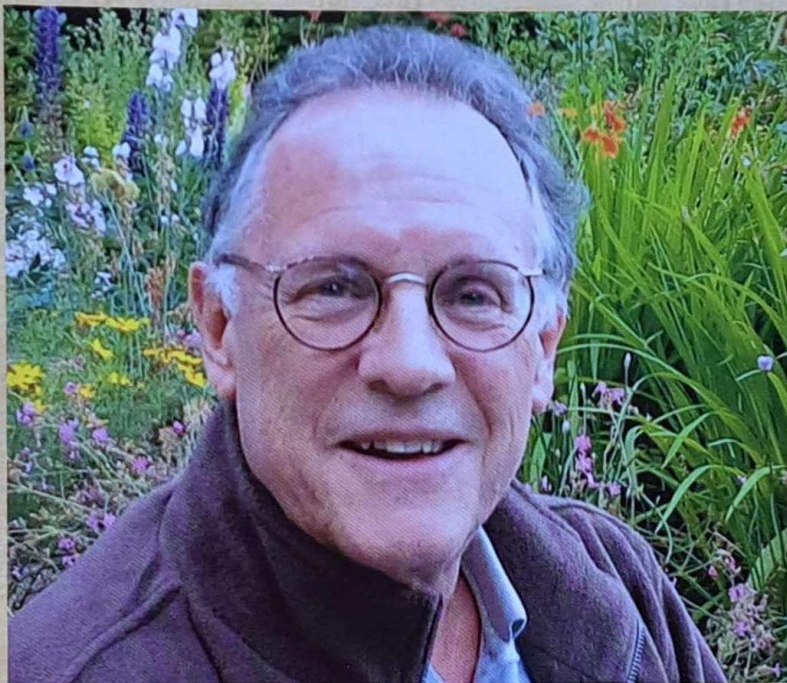

Jesse Randolph Singer of UFONAUT Radio calls the book UFO Highway, "The most important book in Ufology in the last 20 years."

Anthony is a senior level technologist and veteran of Silicon Valley, having received his BSc. in Computer Information Systems from Western Governors University in Salt Lake City, UT. To understand how it all started for Anthony, he became interested in UFOs back in 1989, at the time Area 51 surfaced as a public phenomenon when he began to research the subject matter thoroughly employing various scientific methods and hands on approaches, thus compiling over 20 years worth of UFO related research data.

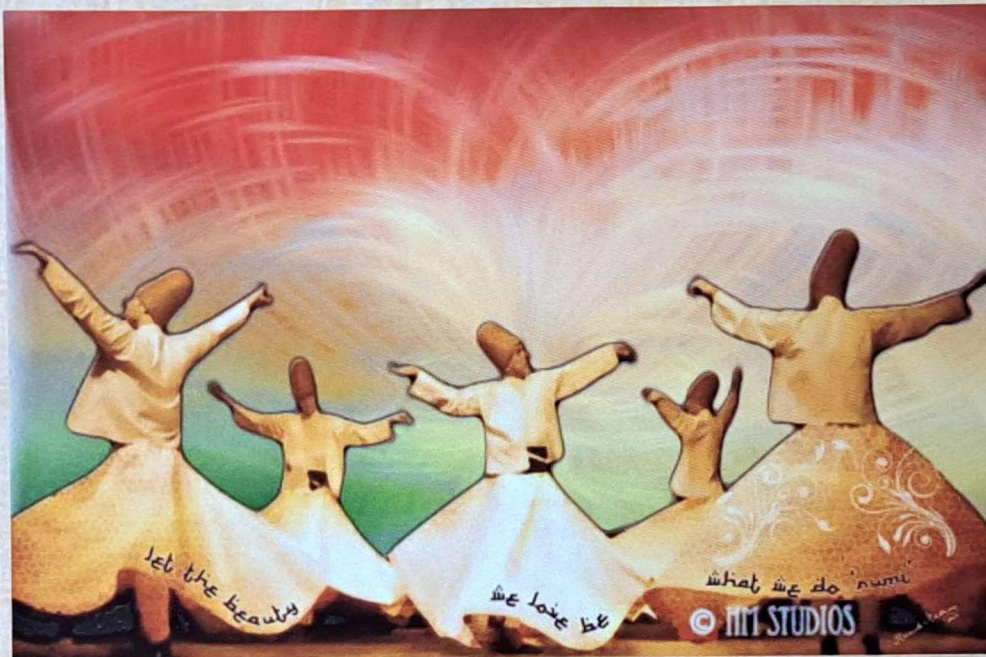

In addition, Anthony is the first Investigative Researcher to 'ever' find U.S. Government Property atop the Archuleta Mesa (Dulce, NM), on what is sovereign land belonging to the Jicarilla Apache nation, not the U.S. Government or Military. This is a clear indication that something is happening in Dulce. Along with his closest friend and fellow researcher Norio Hayakawa, Anthony is one of the only people trusted by the Jicarilla Apache and he has formed close friendships with both families and members of tribal leadership within Dulce NM.

In the media, Anthony has appeared on: Coast to Coast AM w/ George Noory, The Jerry Pippin Show, Veritas Radio, Project Camelot WhistleBlower Radio, The Paracast, OpenMinds.TV, Red Ice Creations (Europe), and The Kevin Smith Show, UFONAUT RADIO, The Quantum Leap, Unified Field Radio and many others.

Stephan A. Schwartz is a Senior Fellow in the Brain, Mind, and Healing Program at the Samuels Institute. He has spent a lifetime of work focused on exceptional human performance, particularly involving aspects of consciousness. Mr. Schwartz' experimental work began in 1973, when he wrote his first book, The Secret Vaults of Time, a survey of all the research done using the non-local aspect of the mind to locate and reconstruct archaeological sites. Considered one of the founders of Remote Viewing, Mr. Schwartz became Senior Fellow of the Philosophical Research Society in 1976, where he carried out the Deep Quest submarine study, one of the milestone experiments in parapsychology, establishing that nonlocal performance was not an electromagnetic phenomenon. After founding the Mobius Society where he was the Research Director and Board Chairman for the next 17 years,

Mr. Schwartz carried out many experimental studies focusing on three main research areas: remote viewing, therapeutic intention, and non-local awareness and its relationship to genius, religious epiphanies, and personality types. Seeking to change the materialist reductionism that defined science, Mr. Schwartz co-founded the Society for the Anthropology of Consciousness (SAC), now a unit in the American Anthropological Association, the International Society for the Study of Subtle Energies and Energy Medicine (ISSSEEM), and the International Remote Viewing Association (IRVA), while starting the peer-reviewed journals Phoenix and Subtle Energies. After resigning from the Mobius Society, Mr. Schwartz has pursued his experimental and theoretical work as a Research Associate of the Cognitive Sciences Laboratory of The Laboratories for Fundamental Research, as Director of Research at the Rhine Research Center, as a BIAL Fellow, and as a Scholar-in-Residence at Atlantic University. He is currently a member of the board of the Parapsychological Association, as well as its spokesperson, and a member of the board of IRVA. Additionally, he is the columnist for the peer-reviewed journal Explore: The Journal of Science and Healing, and editor of the daily web publication The Schwartzreport. He is the author of four books, has published over 50 papers in peer-reviewed publications and technical reports, and is a listee in Who's Who in America and Who's Who in America - Medicine and Healthcare.

Sharam Ghaedi, A Modern Mystic

Sharam as described by his students...

Sharam was born into the world of mysticism. His life has been filled with mystical experiences, experiences that even at a young age marked him as someone bound for an extraordinary life. His parents raised him in the Sufi faith, but he has worked with spiritual teachers from many different paths throughout his life.

Although we refer to Sharam as "our teacher," he does not consider himself to be one. He says, "I do not teach. It is more like a river.... Whoever is thirsty will drink from it." In seeking other terms to describe the essence of Sharam, we considered words like master, guide, spiritually advanced person, and others. Finally we agreed on the simplicity of the word mystic, someone who understands and connects with the subtle energies of Existence.

Anyone spending time with Sharam will begin to see miracles happening around him or her all the time, big and small, but when asked for "cool" mystical stories to introduce him to readers and publishers, he replied, "It is not because of anything I do that these miracles happen. It is because the energy of my master travels with me, not because I will it." When a person stands deep within his inner self, he becomes a great miracle for those who are still suffering. We have seen Sharam open the hearts of many men and women. These are the real miracles.

In working with his students, Sharam's tools are love, humor, wisdom classes, sittings, breathing exercises and meditation. Like that of all mystics, Sharam's work heads in unexpected directions, challenging belief systems, behaviors, conditionings, and even the morality that ego depends upon to keep us from our real selves. He uses a wisdom that comes from beyond the mind to conquer the enemy of our soul. He constantly reminds us that he is at war with our enemy, our ego, the source of all our misery, not us. "It's a dirty job," he says, chuckling, "but someone's got to do it."

Dr. Claude Swanson was educated as a physicist at MIT and Princeton University. During those years he worked at the MIT Science Teaching Center, Brookhaven National Laboratory and a Virginia cyclotron in the summer. At Princeton he received the National Science Foundation Fellowship and Putnam Fellowship. His Ph.D. thesis at Princeton was done in the "Gravity Group," which focuses on experimental cosmology and astronomy, and was headed by Prof. Robert Dicke.

Swanson conducted postgraduate work at Princeton and Cornell Universities on the design of superconducting plasma containment vessels for fusion energy systems. He then began work for Aeronautical Research Associates of Princeton, a consulting company, and later formed his own consulting company which carried out studies in applied physics for commercial and governmental agencies.

For the last twenty years, interspersed with his conventional professional career in applied physics, Dr. Swanson has pursued investigations into "unconventional physics." His principal interest has been unified field theory, the so-called "Theory of Everything" which could explain the universe at the deepest possible level. This has led him to investigate many aspects of the paranormal, which appear to be completely real phenomena which violate our present science. Paranormal phenomena, which have now been proven in the laboratory in many cases, offer a window into the deeper universe, the mysteries of consciousness, and unlock new forces and principles which conventional science has only begun to glimpse.

His latest research focuses on the force behind the effects of consciousness and the extraordinary abilities of healers. This energy has been called Chi by Traditional Chinese Medicine, prana by Hindu yogis, and "torsion" by modern Russian scientists. It appears to be a force overlooked by conventional Western physics. It serves to unify and explain many of the unusual aspects of consciousness and explains how the "life energy" interacts with the material world. It explains the true nature of the aura and how consciousness and healing forces are able to exert their effects over long distances. Dr. Swanson has just published his second book, Life Force, The Scientific Basis, which continues the exploration of his first book, The Synchronized Universe.

Dr. Jeno Torocsik is looking for individuals who are able to do demonstrate via their research or via their spiritual talent that the world is more than what we are able feel with our five senses. The goal is to raise human consciousness via demonstrations to the whole world's population. A set of primetime TV shows on the largest channels in each country will feature leading scientists to give credibility as well as international and local celebrities to raise interest.

Dr. Torocsik earned his PhD in Mathematics in algorithm theory, studying in Princeton University and working at the Math Institute of The Hungarian Academy of Sciences. Telemedia produce over 1000 hours a month of live esoteric TV shows, which are aired on leading TV channels around the globe. We employ over 1.000 credible spiritually talented psychics who are ready to participate in mass research. With the audience of the TV shows as well as with numerous number of sensitive psychics, we have done and are planning to do more research and demonstrations that spiritual is as real as material. In this we would be glad to cooperate with the researchers and spiritual people. On our website www.esoguru.com we provide lecture with the leading spiritual masters of the globe including Eckhart Tolle and the Dalai Lama.

It needed to happen...

For reasons time alone will fully bring to light...

I want to thank you all for being part of it.

I hope it's only the beginning of something incredible!
