Dear Dr. Millman:

Thank you kindly for your letter M45-1-101 of May 29, 1968, in which you concurred with my paper "A Day at National Research Council". I have deleted the two sentences as you suggested, and have since passed the paper to the Director of Information Services, DND, for concurrence. As a result of the comments of DND, I have added to paragraphs 5 and 6 to give a broader picture of the DND side of it.

A copy of my revised paper is enclosed for your information and retention. Again, my sincere thanks for your co-operation.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Bray
