Dear Sir,

Thank you for your letter of the 13th July. I am afraid it is not the practice of publishers to disclose the addresses of their authors, but if you would care to write to Mr. George Adamski and address it care of the American publishers of his book, The British Book Centre Inc., of 122, East 55th Street, New York 22, N.Y., they would certainly forward your letter in the usual way.

Yours faithfully,
