Dear Colman:

Thank you for your note of August 18th, enclosing the photos taken in Albany. I am pleased to have them.

I sent to you just the other day, the beginning and end of my speech. The rest of it was my brief to Trudeau, exactly as you already have it. All you need do is put the Trudeau brief between the beginning and ending and you already have it all.

Enclosed herewith, however, are copies of the replies from Trudeau's office and from National Defence. I prefer that these not be published at this time, as this may jeopardize any further replies I may receive from further action I intend to take in this matter. When I complete my initiatives, all replies can then be published. I will keep you informed.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Bray.
