

Sarbacher hardly seemed to care at all about the subject when interviewed in 1985. Very strange behavior indeed for someone who supposedly knew the people, or rather did not know the people (according to which version you believe) who saw these UFOs and alien bodies first hand!

7. I would be interested to see anything you dig up of the Smith-Sarbacher phenomenon, or any other relevant matters. If you think these will help the MJ-12 cause, I can reveal that MJ-12 is as good as sunk right now. (It certainly will be before the end of 1989). The person I feel most sorry for is Stanton Friedman. Likewise Arthur Bray, if he is pinning his hopes on MJ-12.

8. The MJ-12 forgery was inspired by Smith's November 21, 1950 "top secret" memo. That is how the forger got the idea of naming Vannevar Bush as MJ-12's leader, and one day, perhaps, STF will finally realise this. And it does not take a genius to see who the forger was, either.

Sincerely,

Christopher D. Allan
