Dear Arthur,

It is with deepest regret that I tell you that there will be no more issues of the APRO Bulletin. Mrs. Lorenzen has been through some very trying times, both physically and emotionally, no doubt hastened by the death of her daughter last month. Now her doctor advises that for her own welfare, she must not take on any more of the burdens imposed in running this organization. And since there is no one else with the editorial skills and endless font of memory to do the job, I must attend the last rites.

If you have unexpired subscription fees due you, I shall be happy to mail you the equivalent in past issues, if you will be so good as to tell me which ones you prefer. (at a rate of $1.50 ae.)

With trust that you will assist me in accomplishing a most unpleasant duty. Sincerely,

Robert G. Marsland, for APRO

P.S. If your interest in this subject continues, you might try to contact CUFOS 2457 W. Peterson, Chicago, IL 60659 or MUFON 103 Oldtowne Rd., Seguin, TX 78155
