

as posing no threat to national security. If and when a sighting is assessed as indicating such a threat, a public announcement would be made. However, there is no "final report" on unidentified flying objects by any Canadian Government agency, nor is any such publication contemplated.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'H.E.T. Doucet', written in a cursive style.

H.E.T. Doucet,
Brigadier,
Executive Assistant.