Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter of November 20th. I have no news to offer you at present but wanted to pass on to you my very best wishes for the Christmas season.

Thank you also for the request for an additional six books. These should reach you soon, as they have been shipped. You are indeed very helpful. I appreciate your offer to find more book-shops that may want my book, but I cannot expect you to go to that bother. Thank you anyway. They are still selling, in many countries, and stock will soon be depleted.

I am still awaiting Cathie's book. I understand it is on the way to me. Should receive it shortly.

Very sincerely,

Arthur Bray
