

LCDR (Lieutenant Commander) Bremner was a Canadian Naval Officer attached to the Canadian Joint Staff in Washington, who did a bit of WBS' leg work for him down there.

Looking forward to receipt of any more MJ-12 material you can send me. Let me know of any charges for the photocopying so I can reimburse you.

Re the "Notes on discussion with Sarbacher 8/5/85". Very interesting indeed, and thank you very much. One question -- who conducted this interview with Sarbacher? The notes don't identify the interviewer.

yours sincerely,

Arthur Bray.
