

I am sorry that I cannot undertake this for you, much as I would like to. I have turned down numerous other requests to publish books also. I do wish you all the luck in the world. If you do get out, I assure you I will order an early copy.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Bray.