Disk Goes To High Officers

*Picked Up
Last Week*

ROSWELL, N.M. — (AP)—The Army Air Force here today announced a flying disk had been found on a ranch near Roswell and is in Army possession.

Lt. Warren Haight, public information officer of the Roswell Army Air Field, announced the find had been made "sometime last week" and had been turned over to the airfield through cooperation of the sheriff's office.

"It was inspected at the Roswell Army Air Field and subsequently loaned" by Maj. Jesse A. Marcel, of the 409th bomb group intelligence office at Roswell, "to higher headquarters."

The Army gave no other details.
