Re: Appeal No. 85-0921
RLH:CJS:RMS

AUG 5 1985

Dear Major VonKeviczky:

You appealed from the action of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on a referral from the Central Intelligence Agency, as part of your request to the CIA for access to records pertaining to yourself.

After careful consideration of your appeal, I have decided to affirm the initial action in this case. All of the material pertaining to you is classified and I am affirming the denial of access to it on the basis of 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1). This material is being referred to the Department Review Committee for review and determination whether it warrants continued classification under Executive Order 12356. You will be notified if the Committee's final decision results in the declassification of any information. This information cannot be the subject of a discretionary release.

Judicial review of my action on this appeal is available to you in the United States District Court for the judicial district in which you reside or have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia, which is also where the records you seek are located.

Sincerely,

Richard L. Huff, Co-Director
