

for two reasons:

- a. we may never obtain a detailed report from the Canadian government,
- b. if we do obtain such a report, it will be important to have another independent report for purposes of comparison, as the government report will always, I am sorry to say, be suspect.

If APRD is willing to pursue this matter, I will forward a sample of the metal to you.

Very sincerely,

Arthur Bray
Field Investigator