

REVIEWS

This was the first lecture that I had heard on this subject, and like most of those who attended I enjoyed it immensely. The hall was packed from start to finish, and the question time went on for longer than any lecture that I have ever been to. The subject was fascinating and the speaker excellent.

General Secretary, National Committee, Institution of Post Office Electrical Engineers — National News, Autumn/Winter 1973

This is the first time that we have had a great enough response to a talk to justify repeating it in the same season.

Chief Librarian, London Borough of Lewisham — October 1975

I think it is quite a compliment to you that so many people stayed behind after the lecture to ask questions.

The Union Society, The University, Newcastle-Upon-Tyne — May 1977

Everyone who heard you was intrigued by the evidence you put forward, some of the arguments are still going on. It has to be some measure of the interest aroused that the evening actually showed a profit, when there have been times when we have barely covered our outlay.

Bramhall High School Parents' Association, Stockport — November 1977

Many thanks for giving us such an interesting lecture which was thoroughly enjoyed by all age groups.

St Edmund's School, Canterbury — October 1978

I think we all hope that one day we spot a UFO, and that in time our Government will officially recognise their existence.

The Inverclyde Ladies Luncheon Club, Leicester — November 1978

Thank you for an excellent lecture. All the reports I have heard from boys have been most favourable — it was obviously thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Rugby School — February 1980

Many thanks for your fascinating superb lecture to the School. I am sure you were aware of the appreciation of the audience, but I can tell you that the lecture has aroused a lot of interest and favourable comment.

Felstead School — September 1980

Thank you for giving us your usual entertaining and provocative evening. The Librarian told me that she had a number of favourable comments and I know this is due to the conviction you bring to your subject.

Borough Librarian & Arts Officer, London Borough of Waltham Forest — October 1980

Breath-taking... Your talk was a great success and quite roused us all!

The Concorde Luncheon Club, Leicester — December 1980
