Dear Bill:

Thank you for making the first move regarding informality. I appreciate it - it does make it more friendly.

I was unable to pass on the photo of Dr. Lindtner to Gene in time for his arrival, as I received it too late. I did receive an invitation from Gene to go to Toronto to meet and have dinner with Dr. Lindtner, but I was unable to get there that weekend due to previous engagements. I do regret that I was unable to meet him. I hope that he enjoyed his brief visit to Canada. I had a visit from Hank McKay of Toronto last night and he met the Doctor at Gene's.

Thank you for the Money Order. It came to exactly eighteen dollars, Canadian. The balance now owing is $10.90 plus $9.00, for a total of $ 19.90 Canadian. Thank you for the very nice review of my book in your Newsletter No. 23. It was very kind of you.

I will be pleased if you will send me a copy of your Review No. 10, which you mentioned. Let me know the cost and I will remit. Or if it is simpler, deduct it from what you now owe me.

You asked me to let you know if I have any more copies of my book available. Yes, there are plenty on hand yet. If you would like some more, I will ship.

Very sincerely,

Arthur Bray
