Crabb, R.H.

UFOs and the MARTYRDOM of Frank Scully

Frank Scully as he appeared at the time he wrote his book BEHIND THE FLYING SAUCERS, describing the Aztec recovery.

THE INNER CIRCLE
TEACHERS OF LIGHT

CLIPS, QUOTES AND COMMENTS

By

Riley Hansard Crabb, MsD DD
161A Centreway Road, Orewa,
Hibiscus Coast, New Zealand

A saucy liaison

The great UFO cover-up?

AFTER what he believes were a couple of bungled attempts on his life, Riley Crabb packed his files and an overnight bag and headed for Godzone.

Just out of San Diego, California, the Director of Borderland Sciences tells me he left a house, regularly spied on from helicopters, and where the phones were bugged — both done by shadowy organisations who like to keep their fingers on the pulse of the UFO business, and anything else Riley and his worldwide Borderland Science followers dug into.

Looking at him in the Orewa flat he shares with Phyllis (the penfriend of 20 years he finally wed), it's not hard to believe Riley Hansard Crabb gave some of the first lectures on UFOs (when sightings were in their infancy) and helped create worldwide awareness of the phenomenon.

He's tall, grey haired, and alert with bright eyes and a crisp manner.

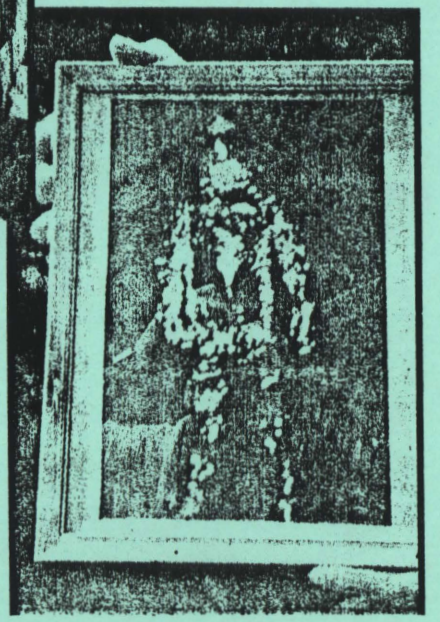

The Riley and Phyllis Crabbs of this world are an enigma.

They want to know the truth about the little green men, and spend a lifetime researching them.

They are prepared for and even welcome the pooh-poohs from disbelievers. Then they show films which in turn show objects which may or may not be the craft these same greenies fly round in.

I don't need a lot of convincing there's something no one has been able to explain out there.

JOINED FORCES... Riley and Phyllis Crabb (above) shared an interest in gathering UFO evidence (right)

RILEY says he got interested in the borderland sciences such as ESP, telekinesis, psychic surgery, hypnosis and the rest when he discovered the metaphysical library of the Theosophical Society in Minneapolis.

Nellie Peyton helped him with psychic research — the same as she helped the local cops find missing people.

Having been in Hawaii with the military during the war, he returned there as a civilian and studied pagan magic at first hand with the Kahunas, whom he likens to the Maori tohungas.

He was also a Visual Information Specialist for the US Navy's Pacific Missile Range in California.

That was before taking over as Director of Borderland Sciences which has members in 40 countries feeding UFO and other information back to the San Diego base.

Unreal

And, having seen spook harassment at first hand in America, I can understand Riley's feelings — digging round in murky waters can produce more than a rap on the knuckles.

So it was only after we'd talked and eaten cookies for some time that he and Phyllis showed me the letter from a "Justice for Military Personnel" requesting an Executive Order from President Reagan to end the UFO cover-up.

The JMP, as they call themselves, are mostly retired brass who say they want clearance to talk to Congress about their past dabblings in muddy waters and they don't want to be zapped for talking.

Riley believes the letter to be genuine. It asks the President to take into account that the start of the cover-up 40 years ago was confined to a very few folk within the military and the government. Today thousands are involved.

The brass say they intentionally ordered pilots to shoot at UFOs hoping to get one for research purposes.

Pilots who reported UFOs were silenced; commercial ones smeared if they described what they saw. Citizens were slandered when they dared report the objects and Congressmen and Senators debunked when they sought information.

If all this sounds a bit remote from everyday Orewa goings on, it is.

But just recently Riley says he had a call from the US about a mutual friend's line of investigation and the friend disappeared.

Unreal? Certainly. Checkable? Probably not. We haven't had the UFO situation thrust upon us the way it has happened in America and (to a lesser extent) Europe.

One Aucklander who has been involved, Captain Bruce Cathie, received threats when his first book was published 20 years ago. It was to him that Riley went on arrival here before joining up with Phyllis.

Both had recently lost their spouses. They enjoyed the same UFO investigatory bent, so they joined forces in matrimony.

UFOs AND THE MARTYRDOM OF FRANK SCULLY

1. The U.S. Government's Double Standard of Morality
2. Advanced Beings in the Solar System
3. War In Heaven
4. UFO Over San Diego, California 1946
5. "Awake, Thou That Sleepest"
6. The Aztec Crash Location
7. Helicopter Surveillance, Big Brother Is Watching
8. UFO Patrols of the 1940s and 50s
9. UFOs From Decaying Suns
10. The Prometheus of 1950
11. End Run Around the Critics
12. The Martyrdom of Forrestal
13. UFO at Holloman AFB
14. The OLON Type Flier, 1947
15. The Natural Consequence of Invasion
16. The UFO Connection, How Many Investigators Have It?
17. Unique Is the Word for Abduction!
18. Awakening To Another Reality
19. Duplicity? Concession? Conversion?
20. Whitley Streiber's "Transformation"
21. Invaders a Necessary Evil
22. The Jolt of the True
    The War Against Sleep
23. Koot Hoomi on Advanced Man
24. "The Abduction Experience" by Cynthia Crowell
    Soulless Non-Human Monsters
25. The Clones From Rigel, Orion Constellation
26. Reptoids Crash in South Africa
27. We Are "Milked" For Secretions
28. The Heart of the Solar Mystery
29. The Unknown and Incomprehensible War
30. To Become Men and Women In Some Future Cycle
31. Chart of Successive Life-Waves
32. The Unrecognised Disintegrating Constellations
33. Who's The Boss?
34. Are You A Likely Candidate?

CGB

Archives for UFO Research
Arkivet för UFO-forskning
P.O. Box 11027
SE-600 11 Norrkoping
Sweden

CS
2006

35. Soul-Shearing
36. Collusion With The Enemy
The Four Worlds of the Cabalist
37. Counter-Intelligence
38. Abductees Martyrs Also?
39. Map: Southern California east of Los Angeles
40. The Martyrdom of Frank Scully
Postscript
41. UFO and the Green Beam
The Men In Black
42. The Clone Army of the CIA
43. The Most Exciting and Challenging Subject in the World, Red Martian
The Seven Physical Sub-Levels
44. The Difference Between Objective and Subjective Existence
Astral-Etheric-Physical Interrelationship
45. A Jealous, Possessive Wife On Mars?
46. The Bad Guys Are Misusing It Anyhow
47. Phylos, Dweller On Two Planets
48. Gravity Is Light, Levity Is Dark
49. "Until You Can Do It Yourself" Captain Avalon
50. Emotional Control and How To Achieve It
51. The Action of the Light Nullified
52. The Need For Awareness and Concentration, Ashtar
53. Portrait of Jesus-Sananda
54. Bibliography

THE MARTYRDOM OF FRANK SCULLY

With Clips, Quotes & Comments
By Riley Hansard Crabb MsD DD

"Between the people and government today lies a double standard of morality. Anything remotely scientific has become by government definition a matter of military security; hence of secrecy, something which does not breed security but fear. If we see anything unusual, even in the skies, we the people must either freeze our lips, like a Russian peasant at the sight of a commissar, or give our names, addresses, business connections, and testimony to be screened and filtered by anonymous intelligence officers.

"Feared and respected by many people, these anonymous creatures can deny what we say, ridicule what we say, and sometimes (and in an increasing number of countries) jail us for what we say -- especially if our timing does not match to the second their intended official pronouncements on the subject."

Those are the opening two paragraphs to Frank Scully's Introduction to the astounding revelations of his great book "Behind The Flying Saucers". It was his declaration of war on Majestic 12, the secret government of the United States of America, organized by the great patriot of World War II, General George C. Marshall, in 1947 and authorized by that great Democrat, President Harry S. Truman.

Scully signed the Introduction to his epic opus on Decoration Day, 1950, the day when the American people give recognition to the military men and women who gave their lives protecting and preserving the "land of the free and home of the brave" -- a shibboleth to the soul-less human monsters who run MJ12 behind the scenes in Washington and Scully knew it in 1950.

My copy of "Behind The Flying Saucers" here in New Zealand was published in 1955 by Victor Gollancz, London. Read with me the interesting and revealing comment of the publisher on the inside front flap: "Ever since this book went out of print, we have been plagued by orders and enquiries from book-sellers and public -- not unmixed with a certain amount of indignation. We were just thinking it was high time we reissued it, when we happened to take a walk in the Charing Cross Road, and saw a copy in a bookseller's window with the following information on a card sticking to it: 'Out of Print, the most asked for book in the Trade. The first of its kind yet the most authoritative.'

"That decided the matter. The next day we sent round to the book-shop, in order to copy the card, so that we could reproduce on this jacket what it said, The card was available but the book had gone -- immediately snapped up by another bookseller. This re-issue should obviate such cut-throat competition in the future. Our friend in the Charing Cross Road is right. Published in 1950 it was the first book on the subject that now invariably best-sells and is (still -- or so the cognoscenti tell us) the most authoritative." That was the second edition. My copy of the first edition of "Behind The Flying Saucers", published by Henry Holt & Company in the USA in 1950, was purchased at a bookstore in Waikiki in 1950, before I became president of the Honolulu Lodge of the Theosophical Society in Hawaii. That copy was left behind when I fled police state America, from Southern California, in 1985.

Riley "Alapai" Crabb

Authorities in Hawaii were overwhelmed with sighting reports from both civilian and military personnel, some confirmed by radar; and there were contacts and abductions -- one a Navy pilot from Barbers Point NAS, held aloft in his plane for eight hours, then returned to base, to the consternation of his superior officers!

Of course they had no explanation for his kidnapping by Tractor Beam, a Fourth Dimensional Function, and there were no answers to the Flying Saucer phenomenon, coming from Science, from the State or politicians, or from the Church; so the Lodge members turned to me for answers; and I found them in the early literature of the Society, the basis for my first public lecture on Flying Saucers. This was in the Honolulu Y.W.C.A., June 27, 1954, seven years after Ken Arnold's famous sighting.

One source of information on space travel between planets in Theosophical literature is "The Mahatma Letters to A.P. Sinnett" written in 1882. Another written in 1887 reveals the Guardian roll played by advanced beings here in the Solar System. This is H.P. Blavatsky's "The Secret Doctrine". In Vol. II we read: "Venus is the most occult, powerful and mysterious of all the planets; and one whose influence upon, and relation to the Earth is most prominent. . . the priest instructor of the primeval giants. . . Venus (the planet) is symbolized by the sign of a globe over the cross, which shows it is presiding over the natural generation of men (and women). . . "

It also presides over evolution of all life here on planet Earth because of the intervention of dozens of Masters from Venus as long as 18½ million years ago, according to Blavatsky, the Kumaras who came here in "Flaming Chariots". It took some doing on my part in 1954 to relate her metaphysical pronouncements in "The Secret Doctrine" to the space ships seen in and around Hawaii; for these were here-and-now mechanical contrivances, not allegorical myths as some Theosophists believed!

"The Secret Doctrine" also establishes a philosophical basis for the probable invasion of the earth by Aliens who mastered space travel long, long ago and, fanning out through nearby Constellations -- and even Galaxies -- are looking for new worlds to conquer, "old worlds that perished conquered by the new".

WAR IN HEAVEN

In Vol. I of Secret Doctrine Blavatsky writes: "The 'Struggle for Existence' and the 'Survival of the Fittest' reigned supreme from the moment that Kosmos manifested into being, and could hardly escape the observant eye of the ancient Sages. Hence the incessant fights of Indra, the god of the Firmament, with the Asuras -- degraded from high gods into Cosmic demons; and with Vritra or Ah-hi; the battles fought between stars and constellations, between Moon and planets -- later on incarnated as kings and mortals.

"Hence also the War in Heaven of Michael and his Host against the Dragon (Jupiter and Lucifer-Venus), when a third of the stars of the rebellious host was hurled down into Space, and 'its place was found no more in Heaven'." So the co-founder of the Theosophical Society has given us a hint as to the identity of the Cosmic forces of evil , the Spirits that inspired the coverup of the reality of Flying Saucers in 1947 and maintained it to this day, over forty years later. How many hundreds, perhaps thousands, of humans have been remorselessly killed to maintain that Silence Policy, and we believe Frank Scully was one of them. True he got the information out, but martyrdom was his "reward", as he hinted on page 127 of "Behind The Flying Saucers".

America's controlled press was out in full cry for the courageous few who tried to at least lift a corner of the Veil of Secrecy -- David Lawrence, Henry J. Taylor, Walter Winchell. "Time" magazine's professional character assassins referred to the space ships contemptuously as "flying dragons". So Scully, though he was interviewed and photographed, was surprised not to be "ridiculed by the 'Time' dragon slayers.

"All the roundup said of me was: 'Henry Holt announced a 'serious' book on flying Saucers by 'Variety's' columnist Frank Scully.' Under the circumstances, you'd think I would be discreet enough not to go around slaying dragon slayers. But I'm looking into the future, and I dont need a crystal ball to tell me that I wont come through the next occasion unscathed. Like the moon, I'm due for capture. But like the prophet who was not without honour, save among his own kind and his own kin, I'm not missing at least this opportunity to say: 'I told you those birds couldn't be trusted."

Scully writes that he spent three years researching material for BTFS, so it deserves the term "authoritative" bestowed on it by British readers. One of the sources he consulted at length was the publications of Borderland Sciences Research Associates, San Diego, California. It was founded in 1945 by N. Meade Layne, a retired schoolman and student of Occult Science. The night of Oct. 9, 1946 a torpedo-shaped Mother Ship made a leisurely cruise over the city of San Diego, California, flashing cruising lights. It was seen and reported by dozens of San Diegans. This was eight months before the Ken Arnold sighting. Mark Probert, a bellman in a San Diego hotel saw the UFO and already he was channeling relevant space age information as a trance medium. George Adamski, living 40 miles north at Palomar Gardens, received reports on the Oct. 9th sighting from friends and students living in San Diego. He was already a believer.

N. MEADE LAYNE

Mr. Layne, reading a brief notice of the sighting in the morning paper, placed an add in the paper the next day and received some 40 replies and reports. They varied considerably in details but this was real enough for him; so he asked Mark for a trance session and contact with his Controls, for they had convinced Meade of their sincerity and reliability as a source of information.

The presence of the space ship in the skies over San Diego was confirmed. Meade was told the visitor was from another planet. There would be more sightings and the visitors hoped a meeting with earth scientists could be arranged.

This was only the first of many sessions which followed in which much information was gained about the visitors, where they came from, why they are here, etc. Most difficult to grasp was the concept that the UFOs are "emergents" from other planes of consciousness or levels of being and that it doesn't take time as we know it to cross space between planets and systems. Thus was evolved the 4-D concept of the origin of the Flying Saucers.

MAT and DEMAT we call it, Materialization and Dematerialization. Frank Scully accepted this concept in BSRA Saucer literature but it smacks of psychism, a no-no to orthodox science; so, orthodox science closed its mind to any understanding of the Flying Saucer phenomenon and hasn't opened it since.

Here is a sample of the kind of information Mr. Layne was getting in 1947, and sharing with Associates like Frank Scully, with his Round Robin journal. The Control, seen and painted by Mark Probert, was a late 19th Century New Yorker: "When will you people learn that there are worlds within worlds -- that the Etheric worlds interpenetrate with your plane and with each other," said Lingford.

MARTIN LATTIMORE LINGFORD

"I know I should not be sticking my neck out by talking so much about these Saucers, as you call them, at least until I have investigated more fully. But they are not craft constructed on your planet; nor is it necessary to assume that they come from any other planet. It seems impossible to get it through your heads, that objects can pass from an Etheric to another level of matter and will then appear to materialize there. Then they disappear by dematerialization, returning to an Etheric condition. This is a perfect analog to the materializations witnessed in the seance room, to which many of your learned men bear witness. Not only do human forms materialize, but solid objects appear 'miraculously', and often these are brought from long distances.

"AWAKE, THOU THAT SLEEPEST!"

"You call these materializations Apports, but an apport is dematerialized so that only the etheric pattern remains, and then the original atoms are reassembled in the pattern or mold and you have a materialized object. Well, these Saucers that puzzle you so much come out of the Etherial world also, and can return to it. The purpose of these visitors is simply to compel your attention, to wake you up!"

The leisurely and protracted cruise of the Mother ship over San Diego, California, Oct. 9, 1946, was an obvious example of that awakening. The Venusian Guardians knew that hundreds of San Diegans would be watching the skies that night for an anticipated meteor shower, as the earth passed through the tail of the Giacobini-Zimmer comet. The watchers got more than expected! Some rationalized the UFO as a secret military craft. The authorities denied this. Others thought it might one of the new, DC-4, four motored airplanes, but the UFO made no noise. Then came the UFOs crashing to earth in 1947. These were a real awakener to high government officials and to the top scientists invited by General Marshall to view the remains in strictest secrecy.

In BTFS Scully reviews some of the current scientific speculation on space travel, especially Venus as a source of intelligent life. On page 136: "Air Force consultant astronomers, strangely, do not consider the possibility of intelligent life on Venus as completely unreasonable." Then rocket propulsion, page 137: "It is therefore possible that some early Venusians having come on CO2 (hydrogen gas) as a means of propulsion. . . may have been outside those cloud formations for untold centuries.

"And it is the opinion of the best authorities on electromagnetic energy that some intelligent beings from somewhere have got far beyond CO2 as a means of propulsion, despite the bookies in the Air Force, who quote odds on such space travel at 1,000 to 1. The best our aerodynamicists can do to date is to think in terms of rocket ships from this earth to Mars or Venus along narrow Keplerian elipses."

But there were no engines or rocket motors on the crashed UFOs in New Mexico in 1947; so the General's scientific consultants were forced to consider other possibilities, which some of them communicated privately to Scully. He gave them the collective name of Dr. Gee in his book, to hide their identities. On page 142 of BTFS he writes: "A trip to Venus, according to partisans of the rocket propulsion, would take two years, one month and three days. (According to those on the side of magnetic propulsion it would be about half an hour.)"

One of those original MJ12 scientists on the "side of magnetic propulsion" was Dr. Carl L. Heiland, according to William Steinman in his book "UFO Crash". He believes Heiland was the unwitting source of the leak of the information on the crashed UFO at Aztec, New Mexico, May, 25, 1948, which Frank Scully included in his book BTFS. After over 40 years of looking into the Flying Saucer phenomenon, Steinman's opus of 625 pages is the most informative and thoroughly documented book I've seen.

Dr. Carl A Heiland

It was the reading of Scully's best seller of 1950, picked up irresistibly in a second hand book shop in the Los Angeles area in the early '80s that set Steinman off on his quest. Did a UFO really crash in New Mexico in 1948? He first wrote to the well recognized UFO researchers for their opinions and found only one that had actually gone to the Aztec scene was Bill Moore.

Moore's response was that Scully's book on the crash was a hoax and he sent Steinman a copy of J.P. Cahn's famous or infamous article in "True" magazine, September 1952 implying that the Aztec crash story was a fabrication of con men around Scully. It would seem that Moore "bought" the Cahn story; for when he went to Aztec himself years later he could not find anyone who even remembered that there was supposed to have been such an event there in 1948!

But Steinman didn't buy it. Impressed with the authoritative material in BTFS he decided to go to Aztec and do some looking around himself. Moore found what he wanted, confirmation of his belief; but I believe the Venusian Masters saw to it that Steinman found what he wanted, confirmation of his belief.

Search in the Aztec newspaper morgue for 1948, was fruitless. Any crash stories appearing there had been removed and replaced with inoffensive material years before -- IF the editor hadn't been threatened with punitive action from the military at the time! But Steinman was tempted to browse through a garage sale at a private home. Page 242.

"After about 15 minutes of mulling the thought over in my mind, I approached Mrs. Vivian Melton the owner of the house and sponsor of the sale. I asked her: 'What do you know of the alleged crash and subsequent recovery of an unidentified flying object some 12 miles east of here in 1948?' Nonchanantly and very seriously she stated, 'We know about that; in fact we know exactly where it happened!!'

"I was so surprised and taken off guard by her answer, that I didn't know what to say next. Finally, after gaining my composure I said, 'Can you tell me how to find that spot?' She once again was serious, 'Sure, Harvey will take you out there first thing in the morning.' Then Steinman goes on to detail how the Meltons learned of the crash and the site from another researcher in 1975. At the site Steinman found it surrounded by barbed wire, for no apparent reason. A check of land records revealed that the site perhaps a half acre in size, had been purchased from the owner of the ranch, H.D., years before by the U.S. Government! Steinman found that H.D., fearful of punitive action by the government, absolutely refused to talk about the 1948 crash on his land.

Steinman went over the mesa ground carefully and found telltale details, trees stunted and bent by an accident years before, adjustable, strong pipe supports left there from propping up the fallen craft, and a little spark trigger device, of the kind used to ignite acetylene torches in the US in the 1940s. But best of all he found the owner of a nearby ranch who had not been silenced and was willing to talk. He heard and saw the Flying Saucer coming low over his property, smash a glancing blow at the rocky edge of the mesa, and glide on toward H.D.'s property.

HELICOPTER SURVEILLANCE: BIG BROTHER IS WATCHING!

The best proof of all, if Steinman needed any, that he had confirmed Scully's story came at the end of his investigation of the UFO crash site of 1948: "I made one more trip back to the crash-site in Hart Canyon before leaving the area myself. This time two, huge, unmarked helicopters followed me in and out of the canyon!!. This didn't bother me so much at first; but when I got back home, the same type of unmarked helicopters circled very low over my house on several different occasions over a period of several months." (Page 259)

A familiar story to me, for my home in Vista, California was the object of such helicopter surveillance for several months in the 1970s. They were so low that at times we could feel the beat of the rotor blades inside the house! The first time it happened I had just opened and was reading a letter from an Associate describing the real cause of the animal and human mutilations, invading, vampire, elemental entities from another planet! I was not reading the letter aloud; so the surveillance must have started at the mental level! And purveyed to the "Unmarked Helicopter Center" in the San Diego area. The mutilation information came from an Associate in touch with the Ashtar Command.

Back to "Behind the Flying Saucers" and Scully probing Dr. Gee and his evaluation of the Aztec crash. "I said, 'Doctor, what do you make of this whole thing? Where do you think these ships come from?'

"He said, 'Of course we dont know, but our best guess is at this moment, astronomers to the contrary, that they have flown here from Venus.' I asked him why they had decided this.

"'Well, in all the latest research regarding the possibility of life on other planets if was fairly well agreed among quite a school of thought in astronomical research, that there was more likelihood of human habitation on the planet Venus than on Mars.'"

Perhaps the good doctor didn't realize it, but he was implying that Venusian space ships were not adequately shielded against American radar. Steinman writes that immediately after World War II a powerful net of radar stations had been erected along the southern borders of the United States, to detect possible Russian? intruders. and that the jitter of these beams had scrambled the computer brains of the crashed space ships of 1947-48. But he is only echoing what Meade Layne received from Associate Ralph Holland in 1952, but the crashed UFOs were from outside the Solar system, not from Venus; for the Flying Saucers of the Guardians are adequately shielded against radar -- or anything else our military might throw at them.

The late Ralph "Rolf Telano" Holland, pic enlarged from a 35mm colour photo by Crabb at Mr. Holland's Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio home in April 1960.

Holland was an ET who chose to come to earth by birth through an earth mother, another volunteer from Venus to help uplift benighted mankind. He was a mechanical engineer for one of the large rubber companies in Ohio.

He was also into metaphysics and occasionally did channeling, in full consciousness, seated at a typewriter. This is how he discovered that Earth is not his home planet. A former mate from Venus, identifying herself as Borealis Telano, gave him considerable information on Venusian Guardian craft on patrol duty around the Earth.

She also made this comment about the crashed UFOs in the southwestern part of the United States: "Aside from our Viknor craft described, various other types are seen at very infrequent intervals. Some groups on your planet and plane have found and reactivated very ancient fliers which were left here by the old Elder Races (in Richard Shaver's Cavern World). These are predecessors of the Olon class.

THE PATROLS OF THE 1940s AND 50s

"Visitors from other solar systems occasionally come to this one for various purposes. If their purpose is not malicious, they are permitted to proceed. Otherwise they are usually intercepted and turned back in the outer limits of this solar system," continued Borealis. "The craft most deserving of the name Flying Saucers were brought to this planet in 1949 by a midget race from a base on your moon. These craft were slightly less than 100 feet in diameter, but much of this area was aero-dynamic surface, the actual cabin being only about 16 feet in diameter.

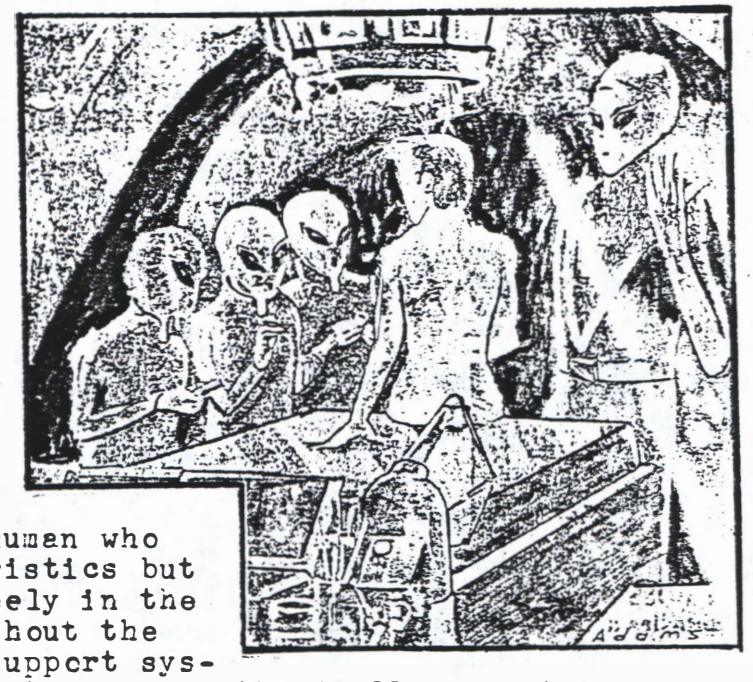

"They used an electro-magnetic, or Earth Induction drive, but different in construction than that used by our Nor craft. It was their first interplanetary flight and their purpose was peaceable exploration. They became stranded here, without base or supervisory control, when their carrier craft became disabled. The small fliers were unable to return to Luna, because they were incapable of space flight.

"One of the Lunar fliers was shot down over northern Mexico by the over-anxious pilot of a Nor patrol craft, when it failed to respond to signals or otherwise identify itself. Several others were caused to crash by Radar, to which they were particularly susceptible because of insufficient shielding of their drive and control apparatus. As soon as it became apparent that the return of their carrier would be delayed, and that the craft and the pilots were unable to cope with the conditions of this planet, they were rounded up and returned to Luna by a Viknor carrier. Of the original 37 fliers, 26 were safely returned to their home base. Eight were known to have crashed. It is assumed that the remaining three went down unnoticed." (from pages 41-42 of the "Coming of the Guardians")

Borealis says that Invaders "are usually intercepted and turned back in the outer reaches of this solar system". That was 1952. In 1954 an offer of interplanetary cooperation was made by the Guardians to the military and President Eisenhower at Edwards AFB in 1954 IF America would stop the nuclear weapons program, but this they refused to do; so the offer was withdrawn; and we were headed toward planetary suicide.

UFOS FROM DECAYING SUNS

The Guardians then opened the door to Invaders who would control or stop the nuclear weapons program for their own selfish purposes. Looking for a new planetary home, they would appreciate an intact, non-polluted earth even if we didn't! Present mankind has been declared a failure; so, laboratories on the space ships have now been involved for years in attempts to create hybrid men and women. What the invaders need is a new type of human who embodies their own characteristics but in a body which can move freely in the earth's heavy atmosphere without the need for a cumbersome life support system -- as our Astronauts had to wear on the Apollo moon trips. Here we have an artist's drawing of Whitley Streiber's description of one of his abduction experiences, from "Communion" or "Transformation".

Thousands of humans have been abducted and are involved in the cross-breeding program, with the consent of our military authorities and MJ12. This consent was given in a secret meeting between Air Force officers, high government officials and Greyliens from Rigel in the Orion constellation, at Holloman Air Force Base, New Mexico, USA in 1964.

The Greys from a planet revolving around a dying sun in the Orion constellation were given permission to help construct and use huge underground bases at Air Force installations in exchange for technical information not available here on earth. Frank Scully's worst fears of 1950 have been realized and that was the year of his sudden death, 1964. As he wrote in 1950, "I'm due for capture."

Knowledgeable UFO researchers believe that now, in 1990, the invasion is complete and the Greyliens will soon move toward open control of our society. Covert control seems to have already happened, with the murder of people in public positions who decide to "break security" and expose the Coverup. Frank Scully became aware of the criminal conspiracy of MJ12 when he researched BTSF prior to its publication in 1950. It was formalized with the Greyliens at Holloman AFB in 1964 in a secret treaty. In America, treaties with foreign powers have to be publicly formalized by the U.S. Senate. This was never done. Now the shadowy MJ12 government of the nation dares not go public with its actions for fear of being charged with sedition, and found guilty. This is the hold the Greyliens have over the secret leaders of the nation.

THE PROMETHEUS OF 1950

After reading "Behind The Flying Saucers" in 1950 in Honolulu, I sent him an appreciate note to him in Hollywood, and received an appreciative reply. He was agreeably surprised that his UFO opus have mde it to bookstores in Waikiki, but it became a best seller around the world. The Good Guys, and more particularly our Venusian Guardians, the Viknors, caused this to be an awakener for millions of readers to the reality of Flying Saucers, and to the reality of the government Coverup.

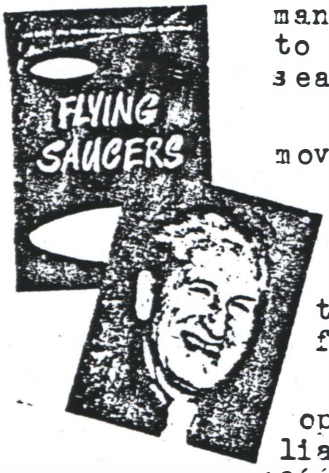

In reminding present day readers of Frank Scully's pioneering work, William Steirman devotes many pages of "UFO Crash" to Scully. He visited widow Alice Scully at her Palm Desert home and obtained valuable material, his picture as he looked then, and copies of his followup articles and book "In Armour Bright", published in 1963. In that he says that he wrote BTFS in 72 days. "It became a best seller in the fall of 1950 and went into 12 languages before it quieted down."

"Pageant" magazine printed a condensation of BTFS in October 1950 and Scully wrote an article for it "What I've Learned Since Writing 'Behind the Flying Saucers'.

"What has happened to me since I wrote 'Behind the Flying Saucers' could easily explain why all the little men found in Space Ships in the Mojave Desert were dead. That I did not join them is a triumph of faith over experience. . . When it became evident that a handful of critics were out to kill a book (inspired by the Gods of the Greyliens, no doubt. RHC) I had spent three years in assembling, I either had to take it lying down or fight. It was Korea all over again. I couldn't fight them long distance. I had to go into their territory. That meant New York" and the critics' "task of choosing between the veracity of the Air Force spokesmen and me as the Saucerian ambassador. . .

"As soon, however, as I saw that certain New York critics were not going to allow me to work both sides of the street, I decided to fly East to take care of them and to effect an encircling movement and sell a book which seemingly should and would have made them happier if it had died in the galleys.

"By going on television and radio in mad Manhattan I was able to interest millions, whereas if I had limited my appeal to literary journals which seemingly live by trading each other's mash notes, I would have found myself trapped. The encircling movement was so successful that a book which got scant recognition on publication day, September 8, was rated ninth on the best-seller list on the "New York Times" a month later, and soon at the top in many cities which listen more to radio than they do to what emanates from West 45th Street's hermetically sealed Hazletts.

"Soon people in the outlying districts began moving in on bookstores and after three weeks those newspapers which didn't believe my reporting of the interplanetary contest between the Pentagonians and the Saucerians was worth even a stick as news discovered to their amazement that they had to report "Behind The Flying Saucers" as away up front among best-sellers.

"New York conquered, except for a mopping up operation which could easily be left to the old reliable firm of Henry Holt and Company (established in 1866), Scully and his wife celebrated a 20th wedding anniversary at a private party for hundreds of friends sponsored by John Masterson, producer of "Bride and Groom", and then we left for Chicago.

"There the opposition was even tougher than that in New York. Book critics were being pulled out of the lineup and science editors substituted. One, Roy Gibbons of the 'Chicago Tribune' was particularly vehement in denouncing the book, but he spelled my name correctly and that, after all, is what really matters. Nevertheless I seem to have been annoyed because he said I wrote the book 'to make a fast buck'.

"This seemed to put him against the capitalist system, but that wasn't what annoyed me. It was that any critic should be so ignorant as to believe an author writes a book for a fast buck. Bucks are slower than oxen in the book business. You take one to five years writing the book and dont get paid until six to eight months after your book is a hit, and not at all if it is a flop. At a time when acclaim is all but drowning you, you haven't got a buck of any sort, fast or slow. You are forced to borrow from your publisher and he hasn't got his returns yet."

George Adamski and Desmond Leslie were subjected to same sort of "fast buck" character assassination when their Flying Saucer books were published in the early 'Fifties.

"Mr. Gibbons was on safer ground when he wrote: 'Many a reader will have his credulity outraged by this book. If compelled at pistol point (I told you they were still tough in Chicago) to make a choice, this reviewer would recommend the book as fit reading only for children but never for adults beyond the fairy tale level of intelligence.'

"By my standards these were not fighting words but, knowing showmanship, I set out to encircle Mr. Gibbons and his "Chicago Tribune" and let them die of malnutrition. I made 14 personal appearances in four days in and around Chicago. I performed on everything from morning television shows to midnight disc jockeys. I even pitched for the book between wrestling matches and later learned I had been on television as far east as Jamaica, Long Island (New York), and as far west as Catalina (California). By the end of my whirlwind tour a book that was standing still when we came to town in Chicago, was sold out in every bookstore!

"Two radio shows in Denver and two interviews, and the flying

MJ-12 ordered the entire town of Aztec, New Mexico placed under complete surveillance. The family of ranch owner H.D. were under special watch. Their phone calls, all mail, and all movements were monitored at all times. All of their relatives, school mates, teachers, close friends, etc., were also watched like a hawk. This close surveillance is still going on 39 years after the event, and will continue until MJ-12 sees fit to relax the net. And this is only one example...

Frank Scully as he appeared at the time he wrote his book BEHIND THE FLYING SAUCERS, describing the Aztec recovery.

Scullys were ready to fly back to Hollywood and call the tour a success. By then the book had climbed to No. Four on the national best seller list.

"There was a mountain of mail, telegrams, phone calls and requests for personal appearances staring me in the face. Breaking the letters down into two piles -- pro and con -- I discovered the majority was overwhelmingly favorable to the position taken in 'Behind The Flying Saucers'. They ranged from industrial scientists down to amateur astronomers. . . This showed a tremendous advance for our side in the Saucerian controversy and a corresponding loss for the Air Force party liners.

"A year ago (1949) according to a nation-wide survey of the United Press, only 26% believed there was anything to the Flying Saucers, beyond what had been explained by the Air Materiel Command in its Project Saucer reports. By now the percentage of believers in space ships would be nearer to 85%, and judging from the hundreds of letters which I have received the figure would be nearer to 98%. . .

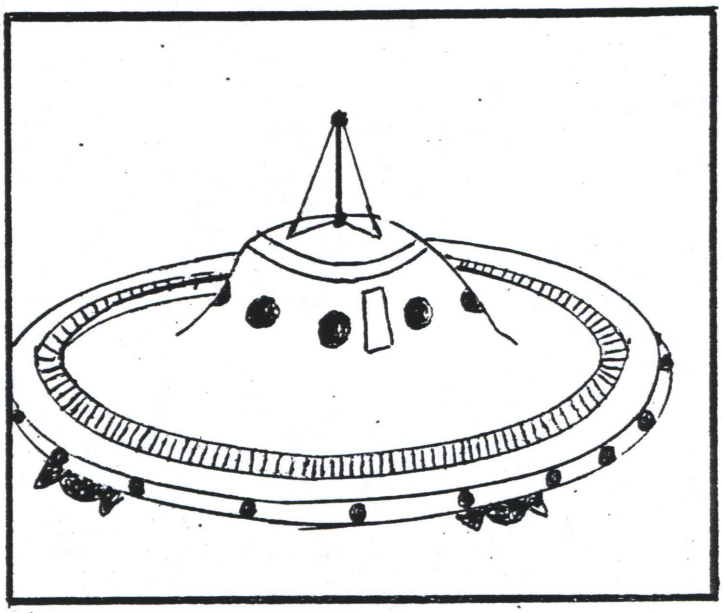

"Everybody even remotely connected with this book has reported a certain amount of annoyance from Pentagonian snoopers except me. Maybe I dont know what pressure is any more. Maybe I have to be shot in the head before I believe that somebody wishes I would shut up. I suppose this was no secret to the Air Force or the FBI. So I was bypassed. I wasn't hurt, because I am convinced Project Saucer must have been turned over to the Boy Scouts who had read Freud."

THE MARTYRDOM OF FORRESTAL

No doubt one of the reasons why the United Press survey of 1949 showed such a low percentage of believers in Flying Saucers was the government's disinformation program. America's first Secretary of Defense was James Forrestal. He was also a member of the MJ 12 group. when he arranged for one of America's top journalists, Sidney Shallett, to tour Air Force Bases and talk to the top brass, including General Hoyt Vandenberg, another member of the original MJ12 group. They all denied the reality of Flying Saucers.

Shallett's two articles were published in a top national magazine "The Saturday Evening Post", early in 1949. Later that year Forrestal's conscience began to bother him and he experienced a change of heart. He felt the American people should be told the truth, evidence for the reality of the Flying Saucer phenomenon and urged this change of policy on other members of MJ12 -- which made him a traitor to his class, for he was a prince of the Church and an Investment Banker on Wall Street before entering government service in World War II, for patriotic reasons. For a supposed nervous breakdown, he entered the Navy's Bethesda Hospital in Washington D.C. on the 13th floor, from which government hatchet men could conveniently toss him out the window. His sudden and untimely death in 1949 was reported a suicide. In Europe such political assassinations are called Fenestration. Was Scully aware of the sinister implications of this? Then there are the consciences of President Truman and General Marshall. Did they have any feelings of remorse that crimes were being committed in support of the Silence Policy they had instituted in 1947?

The Flying Saucer drawing above was sketched by a mechanic at Holloman Air Force Base in 1958. The craft was seen hovering over a runway in full daylight.

In 1978 a neighbor of ours in Vista, California told us of his own UFO sighting ten years earlier when he was a U.S. Marine on temporary assignment as a musician in a military band at Edwards AFB. In chatting with a pilot he mentioned an interest in UFOs.

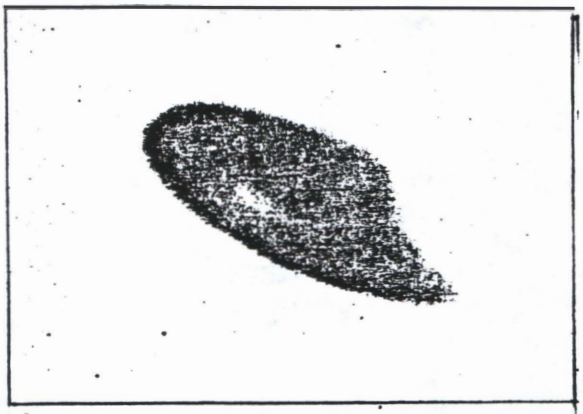

The pilot said, "Follow me and dont ask questions, for I wont answer them." He was led to a nearby hangar, passed through security and on up to second level offices overlooking the hangar floor. There was a 25-foot disc with central cabin, on stilt-legs, with normal-sized humans in Air Force blue coveralls, servicing it. The pilot gestured to him. They walked out in silence and separated.

Later, in talking to civilian guards at the Base, the retired Marine was told of underground hangars, camouflaged under what appeared to be desert floor. At night the "desert floor" would separate, roll back, and glowing Flying Saucers would emerge at great speed and disappear into the night. The floor doors would roll back into place again.

BACK TO SCULLY'S 1951 PAGEANT ARTICLE

"One of the things that convinced me was what I heard one day before I went East. I sat in my living room talking to Gerald Heard, a British Scientist (and author of "The Riddle of the Flying Saucers" published in London, 1950, by Caroll & Nicholson). We had a caller.

"I recognized him as a pilot who had been flying everything since 1926 and was one of the military pilots who came home from China with Flying Saucer tales, one particularly about a Saucer that encircled a military plane while flying over the Hump and killed the planes engines until the Saucer flew away, whereupon the engines started coughing again. He was now an officer in the

This flying object was twice snapped at dusk Monday as it circled north of Phoenix. William A. Rhodes, 4833 North 14th street, first shot the picture at the left as the slow-flying object was approaching him. As it banked to make a tight turn, he obtained the picture above, showing clearly the shape of the object. In seconds, Rhodes said, the "disc" shot away to the west at high speed. It had made three whirling turns north of the city, after approaching from the west. Aircraft identification experts yesterday would not hazard opinions on the object's nature.

Speedy 'Saucer' Zips Through Local Sky

By ROBERT C. HANIKA

THE FIRST clearly recorded photographs of what is believed to be a mysterious "flying disc" which has 33 states in America and even a few foreign countries on edge with its peculiar activities, was taken by an amateur Phoenix photographer.

Reproduced in the Arizona Republic today, the photographs were made by William A. Rhodes, 4833 North 14th street, who was on his way to his workshop in the rear of his home when he heard the distinctive "whoosh" of what he believed to be a P-80 or Shooting Star jet-propelled plane.

Rhodes snatched a camera from his workshop bench and by the time he reached a small mound at the rear of his home, the object had circled his home once and was banking in tight circles to the south at an altitude of approximately 1,000 feet, he said.

IN THE overcast sky the object continued its speedy flight from north to south and directly east of his stance. Rhodes snapped the hurtling missile by sighting along-

Civil Air Patrol. He told us he had been hunting a lost ship beyond Newhall, California, on the edge of the Mojave Desert, when he spotted a Saucer.

"He tailed it toward Taft and then returned to his base at Burbank. 'I drove right over here to tell you,' he said. I asked him when it happened. 'Less than an hour ago.'

"Then he looked at his watch and realized he had to hurry back to the base and report in. 'Are you going to report the Saucer?' I asked. 'You think I'm crazy?' He demanded. 'Think I want to be asked to lie down on a couch and have the psychiatrists take over?That's why I'm telling you instead.'

"Grown men would have nothing to do with the Pentagonians any more. Seasoned pilots preferred to report to me, a civilian, which shows you how far off base the Pentagonians have gone and how far afield they have led those who have followed their party line to the effect that believers in Flying Saucers are victims of either personal hallucination or mass hysteria."

At left is an illustration from Gerald Heard's book. There are no illustrations in BTFS. The news photo was published in the Phoenix "Arizona Republic", July 9, 1947, only a couple of weeks after the Ken Arnold sighting of June 24th and the term Flying Saucer became popular. We can identify this Unidentified Flying Object as an Olon type flier described by Borealis Telano in "Coming of the Guardians":

"Crescent or rubber heel shaped, about 45 feet across by 18 feet thick. Reconnaisance craft. Normal crew five. Uses jet drive, one jet being placed in a universal mounting at each of the points of the crescent. Control is by changing the direction of these jets, no external control surfaces being used. This is a very ancient type of flier but well suited to the requirements of the present task and therefore the type most frequently seen. Olonar type. Similar in shape and construction to the Olon but much smaller, being only about 14 feet across. It is a single place flier but can carry two when required."

THE ERROR IN JUDGMENT WAS MADE

Elsewhere in "Coming of the Guardians" Borealis wrote: "The task of your Guardian races is threefold. First and foremost is to accelerate the spiritual awakening, and the resultant ethical and moral development of the Adamic races. Second is to closely watch their scientific progress, aiding that which is beneficial, retarding that which is detrimental, and temporarily halting that which is disastrous. Third is to watch the evil influences which may prompt some to take harmful actions. Interference with these influences will come only if they threaten to cause very great harm. The Adamic races must learn to recognize and resist these influences on their own behalf. To this end they must be permitted to make errors in judgment in these matters, and to suffer the natural consequences thereof, that they may learn by their own unpleasant experiences."

That was 1952, when the Guardians, the Good Guys, were still hopeful that "Behind the Flying Saucers" and other revealing books would help to accomplish the "spiritual awakening". There was also the change of administrations in Washington, but there was no change in the Silence Policy on UFOs. It wasn't put up to the voters in the campaign! So when the Guardians made the final appeal in the face to face meetings at Edwards Air Force Base in 1954 the die was already cast. President Eisenhower and his advisers from Wall Street, the Church and the military, turned it down. The Guardians then were faced with a choice, let the Nuclear empire carry mankind and the earth on to their doom, or save the physical planet by sacrificing mankind to the Invaders. It must have been the latter and the Greyliens were not turned back at the "outer limits of the Solar System" as heretofore; thus the secret treaty at Holloman AFB in 1964, under the Johnson administration and with Kennedy assassinated and out of the way. That unpleasant experience was only a prelude to even more "unpleasant experiences" to come, the invasion of the earth by Aliens.

THE NATURAL CONSEQUENCE

One "natural consequence" of opening up the planet to the Invaders is that we now have interplanetary neighbours who are as carnivorous as we are, and they look down on us as we look down on the animals we eat. They have two other needs. One need is for a human-type body that can move as freely in earth's atmosphere as we do. This can be had only by cross breeding with earth females, whether the females are willing or not. The other is, being elementals, they would like an immortal soul, and hope to achieve or acquire one by living among us on this planet.

This is how far the dedicated Flying Saucer researchers have come in the 40 years since "Behind The Flying Saucers". One of them, LtCol Wendelle C. Stevens USAF (ret), has this to say in one of his latest publications, "UFO Contact From Andromeda", in a footnote on page 191, about some of the Good Guys:

"2. They have correctly observed that our world is sharply divided in many ways, and that the nature of humanity evolving here is such that they may mutually annihilate each other, and all life on this planet, before any world government could evolve. Thus it becomes a humane and probably desired step to allow, and even assist, another civilization to take over our planet and to impose their form of order and control -- even for our own good. Such a plan, under present conditions, is likely to be approved for any society willing to take the risks."

And apparently some of the abductees involved in the cross-breeding program agreed to take part in it before birth; for there was a willingness to take part in it from the time of the earliest abductions in childhood and on through puberty into the child-bearing age, with conscious memory blanked out, of their dedication to take part in the development of a new human race for the New Age. Consider this first person report sent to me for publication in my Journal of Borderland Research, July-August issue, 1983, from Vista, California. At that time she was living in the State of Iowa. I've lost touch with her since coming to New Zealand. She considered herself a "born again" Christian, which created a problem in understanding; for she had been trained to believe that only good comes from heaven.

THE UFO CONNECTION, HOW MANY INVESTIGATORS-HAVE IT?

By Barbara Schutte, Contactee

In the midst of an increasing number of abductions coming to the attention of UFO research, I submit this article in order that all Ufologists be aware of the fact that abductee-contactee cases are not just a "civilian" problem to Ufology.

You see, as a person I find myself in the strange but wondrous position of mother, nurse, UFO investigator, abductee and contactee, in that order. I strongly suspect that other UFO investigators may soon learn of their own "UFO connection". Perhaps one of you reading this article will be caused to wonder about some puzzling past events that bothered you in some way.

I first became aware of my possible UFO connection at the CUFOS Conference in September 1981, with Jim Harder of APRO. Two nights after my return from that conference I had a strange and horrifyingly real nightmare. I afterward discovered bruises, soreness, and an illness that kept me from work for four days. These things led me to believe that I had indeed been physically abducted from my home. Then an unexplained depression set in and worsened. By the end of October it was obvious to myself and others that I would have to have professional help; so I made arrangements to meet with Dr. Leo Sprinkle, at the University of Wyoming in Laramie. Through hypnotic regression with him, we learned that I had indeed been abducted two days after the Chicago CUFOS conference, and also twice before! Since that time I have explored another abduction in January 1982.

The first known abduction was in 1959 at the age of eight. I was examined by an alien. A sample of flesh was taken from the first finger of my left hand -- the scar remains to this date. We became friends. The alien told me he would see me again. He would teach me what I needed to know later, and that some day I would be doing important work. When I grew up I would understand.

The second known abduction was on April 17, 1973. There was a time-loss involved. I was dematerialized in my car and taken out up through the roof in an alien craft. I was in various rooms, with smaller alien types and with the same alien as in my childhood experience of 1959. After the examination I told the aliens I would do my best not to disappoint them. I was returned to my car through the roof.

The third known abduction was on September 29, 1981. This time there was some conscious recall. Taken from home onto alien craft. Drugged for complete neurological exam. Implantation. Signal given:

Pain in head down neck, arm, hand would move automatically and I would write. Hence, UFO-clinical services. Physical evidence: bruises, soreness, dizziness, nausea, general malaise, sores, ect. Scar at level of 8th thoracic vertebrae present at this date. X-ray shows compression of 8th thoracic vertebrae dorsally.

The fourth known abduction, January 22, 1982. Local hypnotist did regression. Taken from home, floated across cornfield into craft; examination with particular interest in wrists and fingers; wires or tubes attached to the forehead and fed information; a tube into body and could feel fluid or drug going through arm; sensation of crawling skin associated with electricity; same alien being as in childhood and 1973 abductions plus taller, dark-clothed beings. The info fed to me was preparatory for the Camp David conference on UFOlogy, Feb. 19, 1982. The physical traces of the abduction were bruises on inner parts of both left and right arm with puncture or needle marks, non-visible at this date but witnessed by people in the medical profession.

I say known abductions but I have impressions of four other occasions which have not been explored at this time. I consider myself a contactee due to mediation with an alien intelligence, automatic writing, and three channelings of information sessions with Dr. Sprinkle present at each session.

UNIQUE IS THE WORD!

One UFO researcher shared concern with me on revealing a possible abduction of an investigator. "I've been at this so long that I'm afraid I would be accused of making it up from all of my previous research!" I agree, one might be accused of such. There appears to be many similarities in abductions; however, an abduction is a unique experience, planned for each individual. I dont feel that we shall ever find two abductions exactly alike.

As for myself I have been a UFO investigator for about two years. I've been through a lot, done a lot, both bad but more good in those two years. Some things have been done by choice, other things not by choice. In my research I avoided abduction accounts because I did not believe them and they frightened me. Once I have more fully explored my own experiences I will be able to truly study abduction accounts more comfortably.

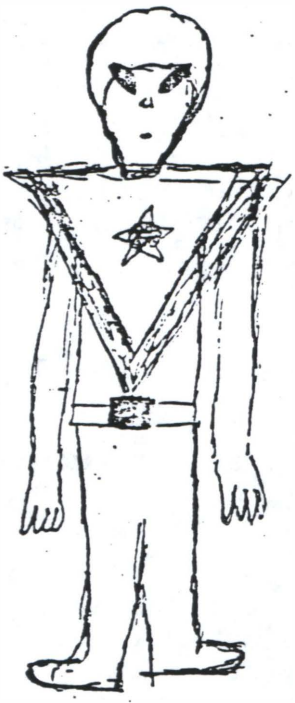

Other UFOlogists have expressed interest and concern and have helped as they could. I am deeply appreciative. I hardly feel that I am capable of investigating my own experiences, objectively; but I believe they occurred, and are real only to someone who has had an abduction. My sincerest hope is that fellow investigators who often wonder why they are still at this UFO business after all these years -- or feel they may have had an abduction -- will explore the possibility and discover their true "UFO connection".

The sighting of three huge red lights in the sky triggered an insatiable curiosity in me, more than just a curiosity about UFOs but about the world, the universe! This curiosity led me to become a UFO investigator for the Center For UFO Studies, Mutual UFO Network and the formation of a local UFO study group . My activity was not confined to investigating sightings only but spread to speaking engagements, writing several papers and contact with others interested in the phenomenon, from coast to coast and abroad.

AWAKENING TO ANOTHER REALITY

One of these contacts suggested I may have been abducted. What an insult! He was associating me with that "less than popular" theory of extraterrestrial contact. As a rookie of Ufology I backed down until that alarming event of September 1981. The possibility of being a contactee myself was now staring me in the face! I had to know for my own sanity and peace of mind.

QUAAZGAW
Sketched from memories during hypnosis

Working with Dr. Leo Sprinkle and under hypnosis we learned that the event was an abduction! -- the real cause of my having been sick for a week or so, with those burns and bruises. In retrospect, this was my "awakening". It was then also I learned of my UFO connection as early as the age of eight.

Had I known of these events when they occurred the reaction and integration would have been disastrous due to family life and circumstances. The time of the awakening, triggered by the UFO sighting, was of a purpose, making sense out of things that had puzzled me before.

I could now consciously communicate with this "friend from childhood", who had patiently waited for my acceptance of communication through automatic writing, trance, telepathy and auto-drawing. Hard lessons were learned. Most important were: That I have free will always; to go with my God-given intuition; to be with God and His teachings; that I am an individual

I also learned that Ufology is not all it is cracked up to be; things are happening in this world that shouldn't be happening but are; also, there is a definite Spiritual meaning to the UFO phenomenon. As has happened to many other investigators and contactees; my phone and my friends' phones have been bugged, my mail and packages have been tampered with; my job and associated legal matters have had strange intercessions; my medical records have either disappeared or been unexplainably altered; tests were performed under the order of an unknown doctor; and there was unorthodox surgery.

Through the past year and a half my "friend from childhood", Quaazgaw and I, have gotten to know each other. This is not his real name, but their name for Teacher, and there are others. The relationship we have is unique from other friendships. He has given me constant encouragement and has shown concern. He, too, is under the auspices of higher beings and has been reprimanded on occasion, as have others. I have scolded him. He has scolded me. He's been happy, sad, frustrated, embarrassed, but never openly. He's given us information that has checked out to be true. When we ask, he answers, or finds out.

He has protected me, no more dramatically than his warning two days prior to a severe bout of pneumonia, but I wouldn't listen to his urgency in seeing a doctor. He's very proud of his students on his home planet of Omega-3, where he teaches what we call biochemistry and physics.

DUPLICITY? CONCESSION? CONVERSION?

Most importantly, and I can think of no greater advice for any contactee, Quaazgaw has been challenged and has acknowledged Jesus Christ in the flesh on this planet. He acknowledges God and his Son's teachings.

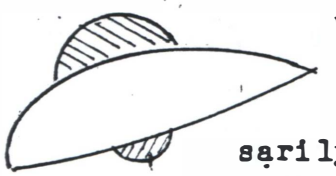

This time is in the end of an Age and the beginning of a New Age. It's time for the individual to sum up his life and prepare for the great events that lie just ahead. When all has been said and done in this phenomena, it is you that is important. You may advise your readers of my address and phone number should they have any further questions. 1525 Grand, Davenport, Iowa 52803

* * *

Jesus Christ may be the Savior of Christians on this planet -- as is Buddha for the Buddhists, Krishna for the Hindus, Zoroaster for the Mohammedans, Chenrezigs for Tibetan lamas, etc. but Omega-3 has its own solar and planetary Logoi, not to mention the lesser gods or Masters who make up that planetary hierarchy -- whose legions have invaded the earth and are carrying on subversive activities -- of which your abductions are a good example. You tell us of these four invasions of your privacy and the brutal physical examinations which left you wounded, black and blue and sick for a week. I would not call this Christian behavior. Rather you have a certain value to Them as a source of information about human beings in Their collection of data, derived from cold, unfeeling scientific research. The only thing that excuses Quaazgaw's treatment of you is that you might be an E.T., one of them, who chose to to experience life fully on earth by birth through an earth mother and father -- and of course lost all memory of any other existences, anywhere.

Thanks for another revelation, over the phone, that the tiny metal implant in your head -- a radioactive homing device for the convenience of the Omegans -- has been discovered by the medical authorities at your local hospital. This by X-rays not authorized by your doctor. It would seem from this that Radiologists at all hospitals have been alerted and when an implant shows up in a head X-ray, to immediately notify a certain government agency, which sends its own medical experts to conduct secret and unauthorized examinations of the contactee, and to add to the list of those kept under surveillance.

So, unsuspected thousands could be among us in all nations, ready to be activated as a "Fifth Column" of "Manchurian Candidates" by an eletro-magnetic signal from a central control source. MJ12 is aware of this, thus the listing of all contactee/abductees, and is desperately seeking counter measures. One would be to round them all up and place them in concentration camps.

Would we class Frank Scully as a contactee -- if not an abductee then, when he was writing BTFS in 1949-50 -- yes; for he was guided to sources of information necessary to the completion of his opus. His "guides" wouldn't necessarily leave calling cards, or expect a "thank you" when giving necessary protection from the 4th Dimension.

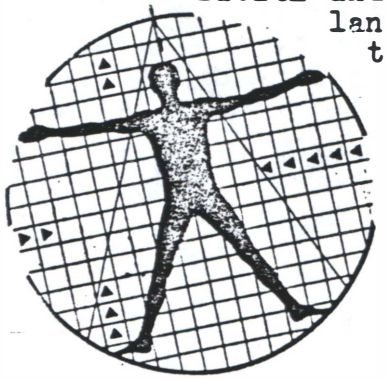

"TRANSFORMATION"

The most nationally prominent abductee, of course, is Whitley Streeber, author of "Communion" and "Transformation". In the latter book he observes on the forty-year Coverup and Disinformation program of the U.S. Government, under MJ12:

"The visitors are certainly capable of penetrating to the center of cities. Our society has so completely dismissed them that they have free reign here. Because of all the debunking and denial they can come and go as they please and do what they want, and be confident they will be ignored. It is ironic that those who deny the existence of the visitors are actually doing their work for them."

Despite a lifetime of abductions, his abductors never bothered to tell him who they were or where they were from; so they are called Grays because of their skin colour. They did give him a glimpse of their home planet in 1968, though he could not believe he had been taken there physically: "A desert , with a glowing tan sky and adobelike buildings. Out side the immediate area of the buildings it was a harsh, ugly desert as well. I also remembered that it never relly got dark there. Because the planet of the Grays (call them Grayliens) was orbiting a binary star system, it was also said to be perpetually light."

This gives us a clue to why they are here, The Grayliens have made their home planet an inhospitable desert -- just as we are doing with ours. Beyond that, it is said that their binary sun system is dying, another reason for looking for a new planetary home, with plenty of air and water. However, they have mastered space travel and we have not! Other abductees have been told where the Grayliens are from, the Orion constellation and the sun Rigel. Interestingly enough here in New Zealand the Maori shamans, the Tohungas, tell their followers that Rigel is the sun of the planet from which they migrated to earth thousands of years ago.

Streiber was forced to come to terms with his traumatic experiences eventually. He formulated nine questions about them and in answering them forced himself to look objectively at them for the first time. "What is their nature? I am thrilled by their power, also frightened. Curiously, I want them with me, to care about me. At the same time I'm so darned scared. Why? Control is the issue. I dont want to give up control, but they are very controlling. They feel like something that is both deep inside me and far away."

STREIBER

When I met Whitley Streiber at the 2nd Annual Congress for Paranormal Research at Colorado State University in 1989, and heard him lecture, he showed the audience a 35mm copy of the brain scan which revealed an implant in his forehead area. This could be a resonating contact for the control he mentions.

A NECESSARY EVIL

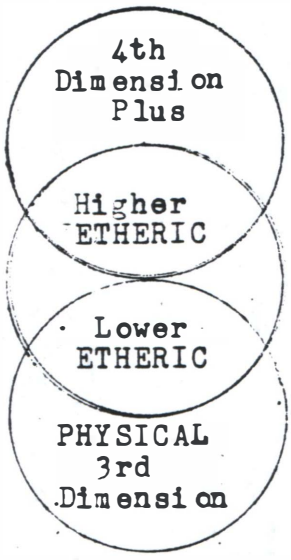

"They are not only functioning in my life to terrify me. They have another function. They are forcing me to grow, stressing me so much that my mind is evolving. . . Maybe they are the best friends I could ever have, friends with the courage to be hard on me in order to help me grow. But they are so terrifying. They come across as very negative. But the whole universe exists because of friction between negative and positive.

"Atomic friction causes heat and light of the stars. Positive and negative forces battle perpetually. This is simple, physical reality. Does that make negative forces evil? No, essential!

"Words of Jesus from Matthew: 'But I say to you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you. . .' Oh, Jesus, you knew, didn't you? You knew how to work with a force like this. . . Have you been our demons all along, tempting us, tormenting us, laboring through the ages on behalf of our growth? Is that why you sound so tired? What promise there is in this relationship, a new world!

"The nine questions helped me enormously. In reminding me of them the visitors gave me a marvelous tool. Suddenly I was no longer the victim. Armed with good questions, I was a partner in my experience and possibly its master. . . Now I knew the truth: I loved them, wanted them, needed them, chose them and called them. I was responsible for the visitor experience becoming a part of my life. I was not being randomly oppressed by them.

Those nine questions had been had been formulated in his mind by nine knocks on the side of the house, while he was still questioning the reality of his experiences. "These knocks were coming from just below the line of the roof, at a spot approximately eighteen feet above the gravel driveway. The knocks were so exactly spaced they sounded as though produced by a machine. Both cats were riveted with terror. They stared up at the wall. The knocks went on, nine of them in three groups of three, followed by a tenth lighter double knock that communicated an impression of finality. . . The Burmese cat hid on a shelf of linen in the bathroom. When we got up the next morning she was still hiding there (and) remained in hiding for nearly twenty-two hours after hearing the sound." This reaction the part of the cat removed any doubts he had about the reality of the sound and fixed it indelibly in his memory.

"THE JOLT OF THE TRUE"

Abductee Barbara Schutte objects strongly to the ill-considered guestimates of those Flying Saucer researchers who have had no contacts or abductions themselves. Whitley Streiber agrees and puts it a little differently in the opening paragraph of Chapter 13 of "Transformation", of which the heading is our sub-title above.

"I was changed by those nine knocks, but the the people around me weren't. It seemed to me nobody could really grasp that they meant the visitors were a physical reality. The reson, of course, was that I had been the only person who heard them. To me this pointed out the fact that people had to participate personally in the visitor experience if they were to feel its full impact. No amount of description, no level of sincerity, no proof could equal the awesome jolt of the real thing." If the physical reality of the crashed UFO publicized internationally by Frank Scully in 1950 Streiber wouldn't have had any "awseome jolts" in the 1980s! As it was, the "awesome jolt" experienced by President Truman and General Marshall when a UFO crashed at Aztec, New Mexico in 1948, the "awsome jolt" caused them to cover up the news and to destroy Frank Scully's credibility and eventually his life.

Above is a simple drawing of the over-lapping of levels of consciousness. We have been so deliberately brainwashed by both Science and Religion -- and our governments! -- that sudden awareness of these other realities can cause an awesome jolt. This is true today even though the reality of the 4th Dimension was forced on us by the development and use of electricity in the 1880s and 90s; for electricity transcends both time and space, as we prove here in New Zealand every time we make an overseas call to friends on the other side of the world. The Visitors are able to manipulate time and space with equal ease, and for their own purposes, which include MAT and DEMAT. A change of vibration is a change of location.

THE WAR AGAINST SLEEP

In his second book on the Flying Saucer phenomenon, "Transformation", Streiber writes that he was a member of the Gurdjieff Foundation in New York City for 15 years. The occult science of Gurdjieff, as expounded by Ouspensky in "The Search For The Miraculous" for instance, is designed to awaken the student of the Mysteries to the realities of other dimensions of consciousness.

But his studies with the Gurdjieffians dont seem to have been any help to Streiber in coming to terms with his abduction experiences over those 15 years, nor in accepting the reality of the 4th Dimension and its denizens, whether good or bad.

"Gurdjieff said that in the late Middle Ages interdimensional barriers went down in such a way that mechanical demons of world 96 got into human incarnation and were bent on reducing ordinary life of world 48 to their level of mechanical slavery and are playing greatly on human gullibility over the unseen to promote their cause and gain control of mankind."

Perhaps that lesson and its relation to his abduction experiences got lost in the mail. In one of his Newsletters Streiber speaks of meditating on his navel, which may be a key to his problem. Meditation on the hearth center would have put him in touch with the Jesus of his Roman Catholic faith and inspired him to more uplifting themes than his science fiction horror stories. Meditation on his head center would have opened up his consciousness to the realities of other inhabited planets and the possibilities of other lines of evolution than the human!

The vast library of occult material of the Theosophical Society and Alice A. Bailey's Arcane School were available to Streiber in New York City, as they were to me in Honolulu when the Flying Saucer phenomenon burst on the public there in the early 1950s, when I was president of the Honolulu Lodge of the Theosophical Society. My wife and I also began our studies of the Western Mystery Tradition and the Tree of Life of the Cabala.

THE FOUR WORLDS OF THE CABALIST

Spiritual World		0 D
Mental World		9 D
Emotional World		8 D
The Physical-Chemical World and its Seven Sub-Levels	(Reflecting Aether - Akasha	7 D
	(Light Ether	6 D
	(Life Ether	5 D
	(Chemical Ether Heat - Fire	4 D
	(Gases - Air	3 D
	(Liquids - Water	2 D
	(Solids - Earth	1 D

A study of the Four Worlds of the Cabalist opens one's mind to the many dimensions beyond and within the three of our physical world. Theosophy divides the Spiritual World into another three, making seven basic levels in all. In the earliest literature of the Society, "The Mahatma Letters to A.P. Sinnett", the adept Koot Hoomi anticipated our present Space Age in this way in 1882:

"Please, bear in mind that when I say 'man', I mean a human being of our type. There are other and innumerable manvantaric chains of globes bearing intelligent beings -- both in and out of our solar system -- the crowns or apexes of evolutionary being in their respective chains, some -- physically and intellectually -- lower, others immeasureably higher than the man of our chain. But beyond mentioning them we will not speak of these at present."

KOOT HOOMI

Poor Sinnett, an educated Englishman of the 1880s, he was no more prepared to accept the reality of advanced beings, and their Flying Saucers, from other planets and systems, than are the contactees and abductees of today -- unless their studies of the Mysteries have convinced them of other realities, as they did me in 1950.

Then it was George Adamski's contacts and pictures of 1952-53 which verified H.P. Blavatsky's statements in "The Secret Doctrine" of Venusian presence and guidance of evolution here on planet Earth. She also wrote of the Asuras, evil Cosmic beings opposing evolution in every creative cycle of the Universe. This kind of superhuman influence must be taken into account as overshadowing the thugs who run MJ12 in the U.S.

"THE ABDUCTION EXPERIENCE"

The extent and functions of that evil influence are spelled out by abductee Cynthia Crowell in a 12-page document in 1989 published by Nevada Aerial Research and distributed widely by the UFO underground to circumvent the U.S. Government Coverup censorship revealed by Scully in "Behind the Flying Saucers".

"An abductee is any person of any age and any cultural or national background who is 'taken' or otherwise manipulated by aliens and/or government agents without his/her consent one or more times throughout life. Specifically, I will be referring to the abductees who were first taken when they were small children and who spend most or all of their lives involved at some level, with this interaction.

"There is a very large number of these abductions, thousands or tens of thousands worldwide. Most of us dont even know we are part of the group. Most are currently hovering on the edge of an awareness that we are somehow different. The tendency to relate this difference is only to ourselves and not anything external, certainly not to real aliens. More and more of us are becoming aware of our experiences and our identity within the larger society that also includes these aliens. Such dawning awareness is happening, for the most part, in accordance with our own mental/psychological programming as designed by our alien programmers. . .

"Often, the aliens will use the (human) relationship to control the abductee. They will make us feel better or calm down by reminding us of the mate. It works. They will threaten us with our mates: 'If you dont be good, you will never see your mate again'. That also works. The bond between mates among humans is very powerful, sometimes especially with abductees who feel isolated. The aliens do not understand this bond because they dont experience it among themselves the same way, but they are aware of it and know how to use it to their advantage."

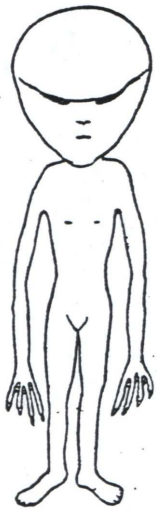

SOUL-LESS NON-HUMAN MONSTERS

Cynthia Crowell writes that her report is only "concerned with two groups of aliens: Greys and Reptilians." As a student of the Mysteries I would say that these Invaders have never experienced the bonds of human love and caring; so they dont understand it. As an elemental type of life they dont have a soul, an enduring Higher Self that carries over from one incarnation to the next; and this could be one of the major reasons why they are here, the expectation of eventually gaining a human soul. Cold blooded reptiles are not known for warmth and caring, nor do they look to the Sun for light and life as we do. But their mastery of space travel increases the problem of our understanding. It is very difficult for us to accept the fact that non-human beings are smarter than we are!

"There are several different kinds of both Greys and Reptilians, but for now I will simply refer to them as single groups. Both groups live on this planet or beneath the surface, and in space. They have been here a long time.

"The Greys are also 'working' for Reptilians, relative to the abductee as an individual and to the human race as a whole. They have been used by the Reptilians as the middlemen, doing the work and exposing themselves to us on behalf of and instead the Reptilians. The Greys are consistently referred to as a mercenary force, though they themselves will often say that they 'have no choice', that they themselves are the slaves, presumably in their own culture or to the Reptilians (or Reptoids)."

THE CLONES FROM RIGEL

At right is a drawing of a typical Grey or Greylien, typical of many seen by abductees and all looking very much alike, as though cloned and with an animal soul. Our civilization has reached the place where bio-genetics can clone human beings and it is probably already being done in underground bases, with the help of Greylien and Reptoid scientists. But few realize that the Deros of the Shaver Cavern World mystery are descendants of the clones of a previous, Chaldean civilization, which destroyed itself with evil as ours is doing.

Below is a chart from "The First Principles of Theosophy" by C. Jinarajadasa, a Secretary General of the Society back in the 1930s. He took the standard chart of evolving life forms and added to it our knowledge of the pre-physical, elemental life forms and the advanced humans and angels unknown and unsuspected by orthodox science. Study of this chart will help the Seeker to understand the various lines of evolution and to realize that these lines of evolution on other planets will develop non-human, intelligent beings far beyond us in evolution in their own way.

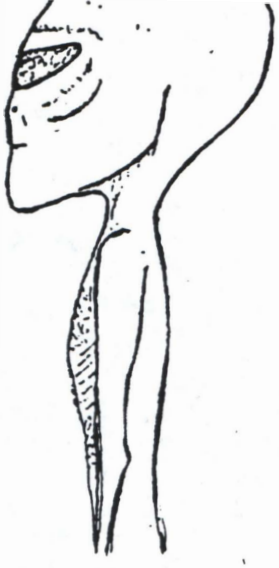

The Insectoids keeping Whitley Streiber under surveillance all his life, for instance. In "Communion" he compares their appearance to gigantic Praying Mantises. We even have information that certain Insectoids come from a planet revolving around the sun Dubhe in the Great Bear constellation. Their passage over a contactee is compared to the sound of a swarm of bees. Find them on Jinarajadasa's chart there and extend that line on up to the Adept level and beyond, to account for their Gods or Dhyan Chohans guiding them to this planet for their further evolution, at our expense!

As you can see, the Reptoids are a different line of evolution. obviously they have achieved individuality bypassing the mammal level we went through before becoming humans. Accepting these thinking types of non-humans is one of the great barriers to full understanding the Flying Saucer phenomenon revealed by Frank Scully in 1950.

Two Reptoids piloted the crashed UFO on the following page.

SOUTH AFRICAN
AIR FORCE

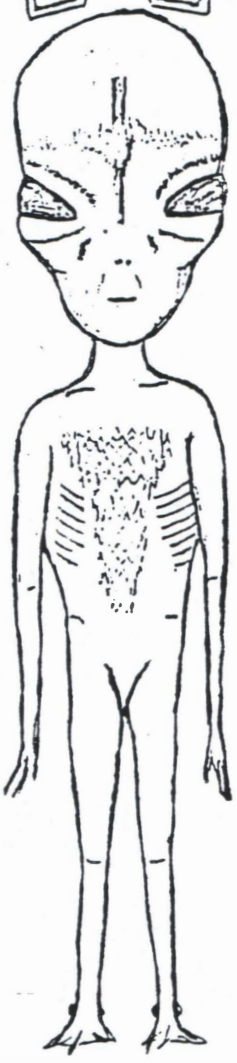

PART OF THE VARIOUS SOUTH AFRICAN DOCUMENTS SUPPLIED BY QUEST'S INFORMANT.

AN EYE WITNESS WHO ASSISTED IN THE RECOVERY OF THE UFO FORWARDED THESE DIAGRAMS OF TWO ALIENS AND CRAFT. [NOTE INSIGNIA - IT IS ALMOST IDENTICAL TO THAT SEEN BY A POLICE OFFICER IN SOCCORO, NEW MEXICO]

THIS FILE HAS BEEN CLASSIFIED BY D.A.F.I.
INFORMATION NOT TO BE DIVULGED - TOP SECRET

ALIEN BEINGS HELD AT SECRET AFB IN SOUTH AFRICA

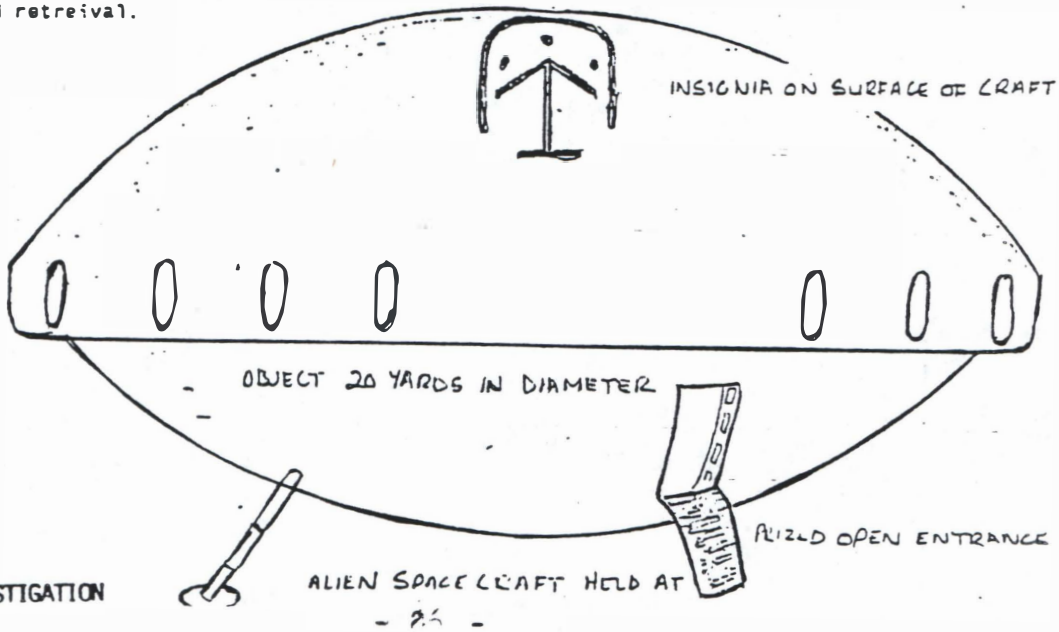

Reptoid

At 13H45 GMT on 7 May 1989 the naval frigate radiced Cape Town naval headquarters to report an unidentified flying object that appeared on radar scopes, heading towards the African continent in a north westerly direction at a calculated speed of 57[illegible] nautical miles per hour. Naval headquarters acknowledged and confirmed that object was also tracked by air-borne radar, military ground radar installations and D.F. Mala international airport at Cape Town.

The object entered South African air space at 13H52 GMT. Radio contact was attempted with object, but all communications to object proved futile. Valhalla air force base was notified and two armed Mirage FIIG fighters were scrambled. The object suddenly changed course at great speed which would be impossible for military aircraft to duplicate.

At 13H59 GMT squadron leader reported that they had radar and visual confirmation of the object. The order was given to arm and fire the experimental aircraft mounted thor 2 laser canon at object. This was done.

Squadron leader reported that several blinding flashes eminated from the object. The object started wavering whilst still heading in a northerly direction. At 14H02 it was reported that the object was decreasing altitude at a rate of 3000 feet per minute. Then at great speed it dived at an angle of 25 degrees and impacted in desert terrain 80km north of South African border with Botswana, identified as the Central Kalahari Desert. Squadron leader was instructed to circle the area until retreival of the object was complete. A team of airforce intelligence officers, together with medical and technical staff were promptly taken to area of impact for investigation and retreival.

ALIEN SPACE CRAFT HELD AT

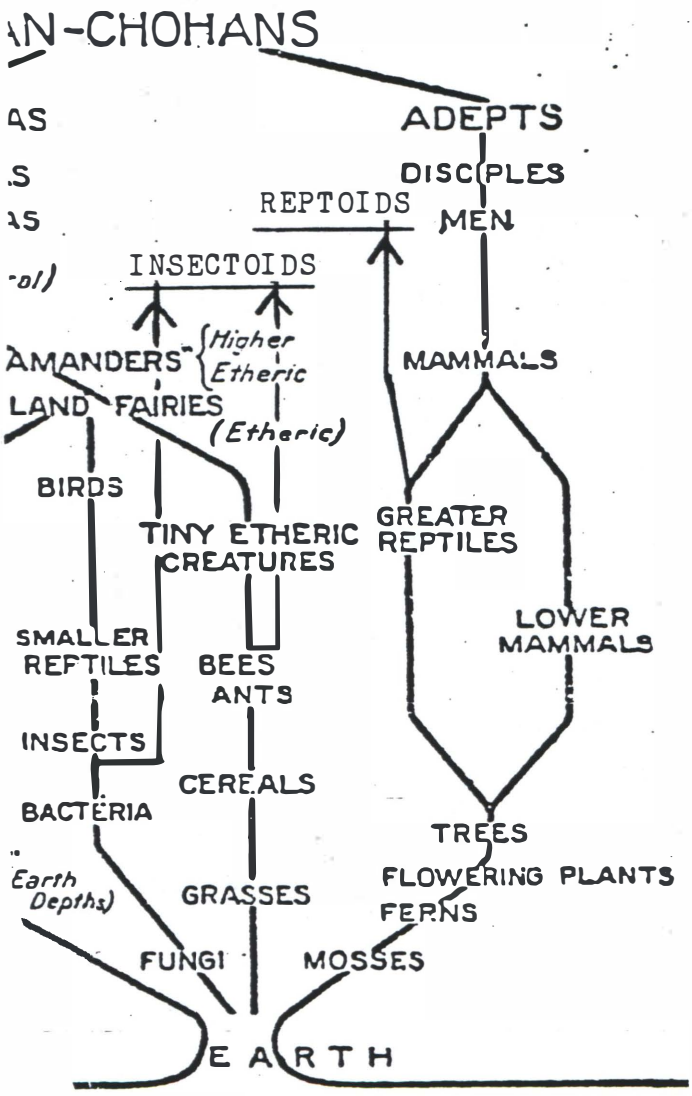

The Thor 2 Laser Canon referred to in the South African Air Force shoot-down could be the experimental weapon developed by physicist-inventor Paul Bennewitz of Albuquerque, New Mexico. for the U.S. Air Force in 1987, from research of the beam weapons used by the Greyliens. Insectoid "portrait" at right is from Streiber's "Communion".

WE ARE "MILKED" FOR SECRETIONS

"The Greys are engaged in abductions and related activity, as they tell it, in order to survive," continues Cynthia Crowell. "A great deal of the above is relative to their survival on an individual basis. They dont eat humans but they use biological substances from humans (such as glandular secretions) in a manner we can compare with eating. (They absorb nutrients through their skin. Insects breathe through their skin.) They milk us in the way we milk cows and they need what they take from us, or think they do.

"As a species they are using material from us to recreate themselves, by creating their next generation with hybrids. Most of them can no longer individually produce offspring. I've been told that only one in a hundred or a thousand Greys can even conceive and that most of those babies do not live.

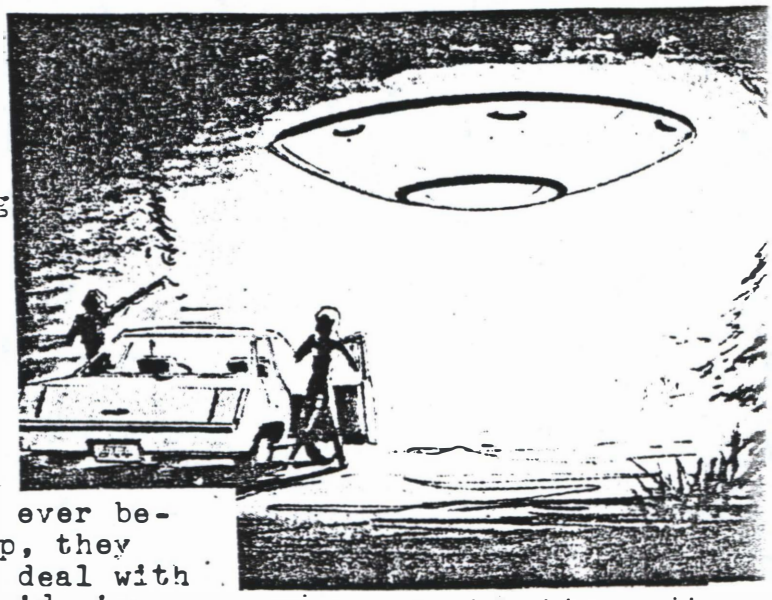

"Some Reptilians, on the other hand, eat us like we eat chicken. In the U.S. there are rumors of great, underground food storage rooms full of preserved human bodies. Sometimes the rumor has it that the bodies are those of children.

"I asked the Greys why, if this was true, why would it be children? I was told that it is not only children but also adults that Reptilians eat. Children are preferred because they generally unpoisioned by substances like caffeine, nicotine, alcohol and other things adults are saturated with, as a group.

"The Reptilians dont seem to be dependent on us as a food source, although part of their experimental work with us is toward the end of future food/supply production. When they become involved with crossbreeding (humans and Reptilians), they are not doing it for survival but for the purpose of creating a subclass, slave race, within their own culture. These halfbreeds are to be biological war machines and laborers, etc. They are to be someone else's property. Most contemporary monsters or oddities, such as the Cabbit, half-cat-half-rabbit found in New Mexico in the 1970s, were probably created by or are otherwise related to Reptilian and/or government genetic research.

"Reptilians seem to have little regard for us as living beings. They think we are as ugly and repulsive to them as we ever portrayed them to be, and that we, the human race, are as valuable as weeds. However, they do seem to consider some of us as valuable property. One gets the feeling they will continue to use us as they see fit or, if we ever become a real problem as a group, they would sooner wipe us out than deal with it. They do not fear us, considering themselves far superior to us by all comparisons. They supposedly consider the surface of the earth to be poisonous, an inhospitable environment and 'allow' us to live here, since they live below the surface and in space. We and our surface environment serve as a physical buffer or living shield around their home underground."

FIRST IMAGE—Many abductees with 'missing time' see a looming UFO.

THE HEART OF THE SOLAR MYSTERY

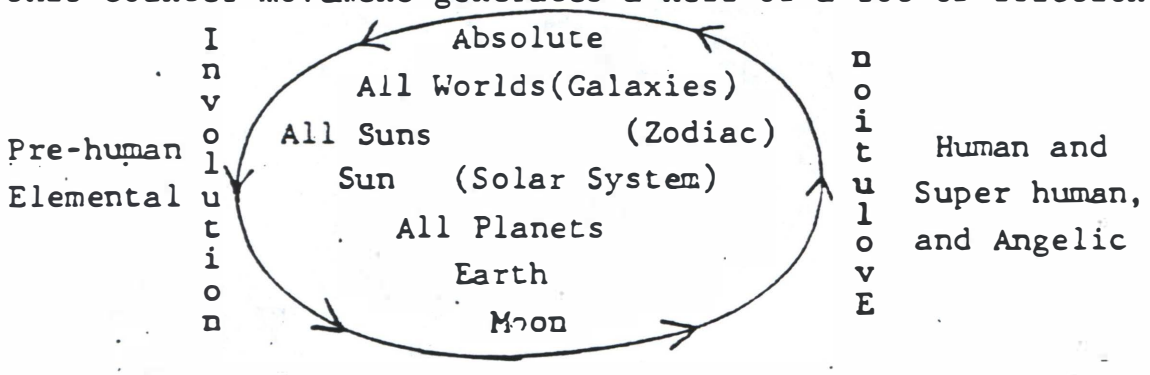

What say the Mahatmas of the Himalayas? We've already quoted one, the Master Koot Hoomi; let's turn to another, one of his students and a teacher of Madame H.P. Blavatsky, the Master Djwal Khul and his great opus of 1925, "The Treatise on Cosmic Fire", written through Alice A. Bailey. That was 22 years before the term Flying Saucers was created and kicked around by the press. Without their inspired guidance from the higher worlds the Flying Saucer mystery will remain just that, and our eyes closed by the jungle of conflicting claims and counter claims by those whose views register only 3-D material vibes. The fact that the Greyliens and the Reptoids prefer to live underground indicates that they are not Sun worshippers like ourselves. So --

Come, let us eat the fruit of the Tree, that our eyes be opened and we be as the Elohim, knowing good and evil; and with the power of that knowing we shall choose the good; and the good shall make us free to understand what the Master D.K. calls "the heart of the Solar Mystery"

He writes, through Alice Bailey, that if we wish to become Masters of our own fate and destiny, we must learn to distinguish between the Solar Angels of a planetary scheme, our Higher Selves; the Solar Angels of a solar system, the Masters or the Occult Hierarchy; and the lunar lords of the scheme and system. "The moon or moons in any scheme are systemic effects, and are not causes. In certain planetary relationships, they are considered causes."

They sure are, Deke! The Lunar Mafia are the cause of a hell of a lot of trouble here on this planet that's for sure! And behind and above the Lunar Mafia are the Solar Mafia. Behind and above the Solar Mafia are the Zodiacal Mafia Then comes the Galactic Mafia to which we must add professional trouble-makers from other Galaxies. These Lunar Pitris are on the Involutionary Path, descending into Matter we Solar Pitris are on the Evolutionary Path ascending out of Matter. Because in effect, we are travelling in opposite directions this counter movement generates a hell of a lot of friction.

Ouspensky illustrates the Involution idea in Chapter Five of his book "In Search of the Miraculous". There he summarizes Gurdjieff's teachings on the Ray of Creation; but the cycle-completing, Evolutionary aspect of Creation is not emphasized as we show it above; nevertheless, that chapter is well worth thorough study at this end of an Age.

Dont be deceived by our exploded diagram of the Cycle. rather than the Ray, of Creation Both the Involutionary and the Evolutionary processes are going on within us all the time, at the same time This is true of the Earth, the Solar System and the rest of Creation also.

THE UNKNOWN AND INCOMPREHENSIBLE WAR

"In connection with a system," writes D.K., "there exist cosmically certain bodies in space which have as definite an effect upon the solar system as the moon has upon the earth. This is something as yet unknown and incomprehensible to meta-physicians scientists and astronomers. War wages cosmically as yet between the systemic 'lunar' lords, and those Entities who are analogous to the solar Lords on cosmic levels.

"Until our students extend their concept to include in their calculations the logoic astral and mental bodies as the Logos seeks to express emotion and mind on the physical plane (through His physical body, a Solar System) they will not progress far towards the heart of the solar mystery."

We might paraphrase D.K. here and add that no Flying Saucer researcher will progress far in his search for the solution of the UFO mystery until this War in Space becomes both known and comprehensible to him.

"Until the force of the cosmic Lunar Lords is sought for, the fact of there being entire constellations beyond our solar system in process of disintegration in time and space in a manner similar to the disintegration of our moon will not be known nor the effects of this be traced Eventually our solar system will pass into a similar state. The true mystery of evil lies here, and the true reality of the War in Heaven must here be sought.

"Similarly it must be remembered that planetary schemes pass into obscuration and 'die out', through the withdrawal in all cases of the positive life and energy and of the electric fire which is the animating principle of every system, scheme, globe, kingdom in nature, and human unit. This produces in every case the dying out of the 'solar radiance', or of the light produced by the commingling of the negative and positive energy. All that is left in every case again is the habitual energy of the substance upon which, and through which, the positive energy has had such a remarkable effect."

Solar Gods get old and tired just as we do. They also abandon their worn out bodies. In such a case the abandoned planet or satellite is called a Sidereal Idiot because the indwelling consciousness has been withdrawn. Consider our Moon.

"This negative type force gradually dissipates, or disperses itself, and seeks the central reservoir of energy," continues D.K.

And that dispersal, at our level of being, results in the Flying Saucer phenomenon! These elementary invaders want to take over our planet in their Mafia style and continue their involution and evolution here because their original home is breaking up.

"The spheroidal form is thus disintegrated," as D.K. puts it. "This can be seen working out now in the case of the moon, and the same rule holds good for all bodies. We might word it otherwise: The Solar Devas (or radiant energy) return to the central Heart or the Source which breathed them out. This leaves the lesser deva substance dependent upon its own internal heat, as it involves the withdrawal of that which built substance into form. This deva substance is of many kinds and perhaps the consequent procedure can be more clearly understood if we say that as the form breaks up the lesser builders and the devas return to their group soul.

TO BECOME MEN (AND WOMEN) IN SOME FUTURE CYCLE

"Certain of them, those who form the bodies of the Fourth Kingdom in nature, and who are therefore the highest kind of substance through which consciousness can manifest in the three worlds, are on the road towards individualisation -- they are nearer the human stage than the substance of the three other kingdoms. They occupy a place in the deva evolution analogous to that which man holds in the human kingdom (note that I say kingdom, not evolution) who is nearing the Path. The goal for the devas (below the rank of Solar Pitris) is individualisation, and their objective is to become men in some future cycle."

And Individualisation means acquiring a soul or Higher Self, the vehicle of an Evolution, which we humans have. So these Invaders with their gangster-like tactics despise us, hate us, and yet envy us because we are ahead of them in evolution -- yet way behind them in the mental sciences and the science of space travel.

THE SUCCESSIVE LIFE-WAVES

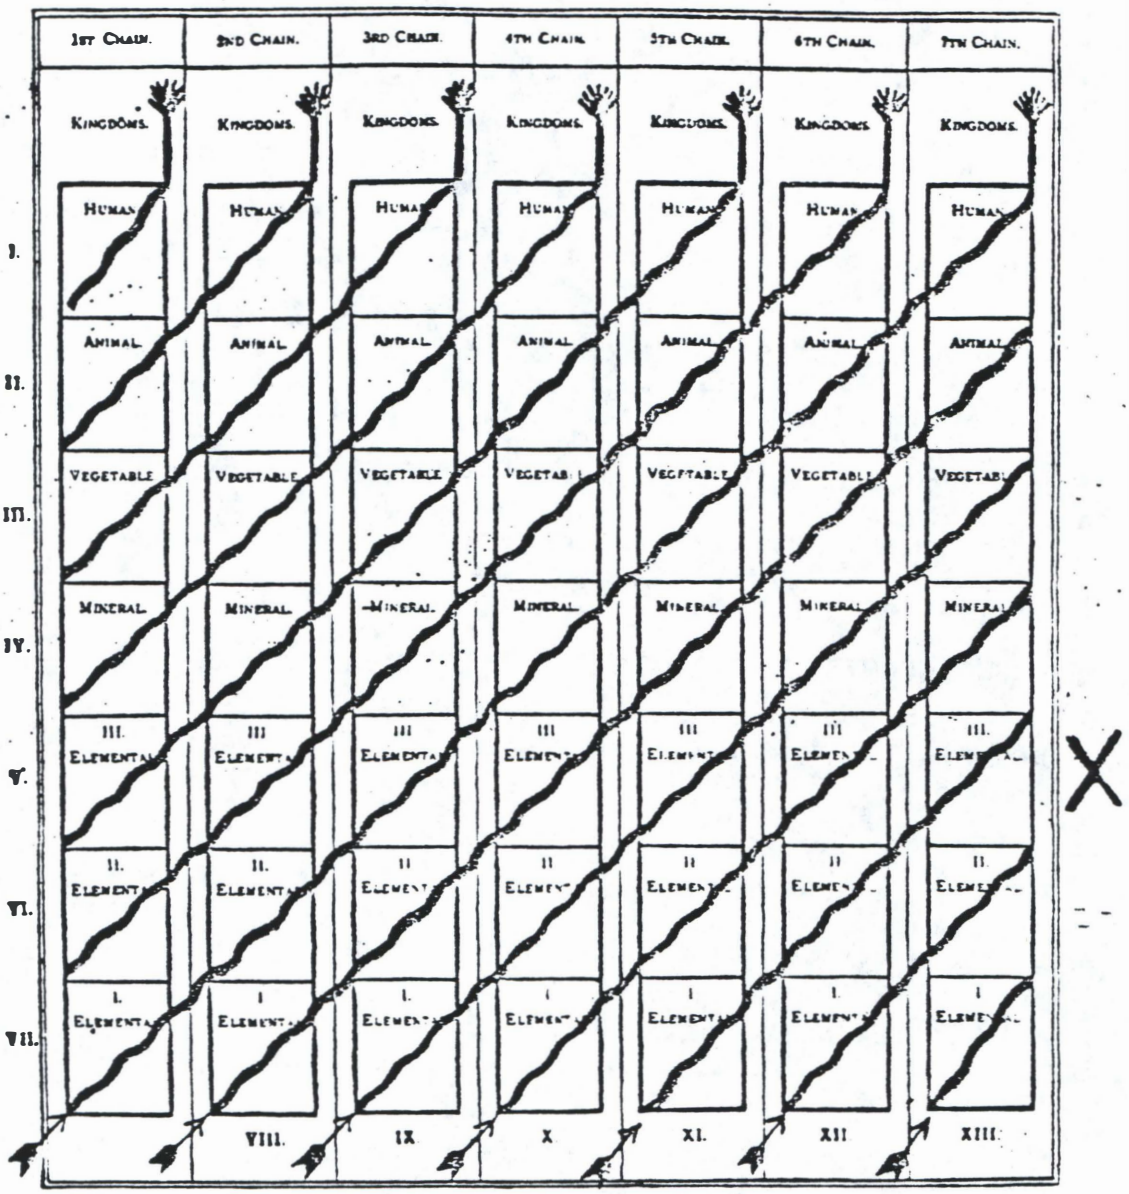

DIAGRAM III.

The above diagram is from Besant and Leadbeater's "Man: Whence, How and Whither", Theosophical Press, 1913. It illustrates the successive Life Waves passing through the Kingdoms of Nature of a planet and solar system. Our concern is the third Elemental wave of the 7th Chain (extreme right). Their Logos has quit for the day -- cosmic day; but they haven't finished their evolutionary schooling! So the more advanced of them must look for a younger solar system containing a planet or planets with an environment suitable to their needs, and the Earth is it!

Alice A. Bailey

"The goal for a man (or a woman) is initiation, or to become a conscious Dhyan Chohan, and in some distant cycle to do for the humanity of that stage what the Solar Pitris have done for him, and make their self-conscious expression a possibility. The goal for a Solar Pitri is, as said earlier, to become a Logoic Ray.

"To return to the matter which we were considering: Just as the moon is a deterrent or malefic force where the Earth is concerned, and productive of evil 'influence', so all such disintegrating bodies are equally destructive."

This is why we use the general term Lunar Mafia to identify, to the Western mind, these evil elemental gods from the Moon; and thus it is logical to carry the identification back up the scale of Involution to Solar Mafia, Zodiacal Mafia and Galactic System Mafia. To the Eastern mind there are the Thugs of India, the Tongs of China, the Assassins of the Islamic Middle East, and their counterparts in Japan, whose generic name escapes me at the moment. If we are to understand the enduring quality of evil in our nations, we must be aware of the cosmic connections which guide and sustain it. (Japanese Mafia: "Yakuza")

THE UNRECOGNISED DISINTEGRATING CONSTELLATIONS

"Such bodies exist within the solar ring-pass-not, unrecognised as yet, and disintegrating constellations (of which there are many in the universe, unknown and unrecognised by scientists) have an equally malefic effect upon our solar system, and upon all that passes into their sphere of influence.

"There is one such constellation, situated between the lesser Dipper and our system, and another, interrelated with the Pleiades and our system which still have a profound effect upon the physical body of the solar Logos.

"The above paragraph is specifically worded thus because the effects are felt in the lowest sheath of all, and are responsible for much that is ignorantly termed 'black magic'," continues D.K.

Part of that Sheath is the planet Earth, and the most obvious effect right now is the threat of total nuclear destruction of the earth and everything on it. That must be the penultimate goal of the Zodiacal Mafia, "If we cant control the earth let's destroy it!" The ultimate goal would be the total destruction of a Solar System. The occasional Novas seen by astronomers may be the work of Zodiacal or Galactic Mafia.

D.K. says the above-named "two constellations have run their cycle and are dissolving. Some of their life force and energy have been transferred to our solar system, just as the lunar life-force was transferred to the earth, and this it is that is the cause of much cyclic evil. The process of decay and the evil emanations induced still have power to influence the forms which are responsive to what was for them an earlier vibration. The substances of these forms is magnetically linked with the decaying body, much as the etheric double is connectedwith the dense physical sheath, and the effects are therefore manifested. Purificatory fire is the only cure for this magnetic corruption, and this is being freely used by the planetary Logoi in Their schemes, and by the Solar Logos of our system."

EXPOSED—Buried trauma will sometimes surface with memories of the beings' interest in human sexuality. Art by Rick Moore

Now back to Cynthia Crowell and her experiences and observations of the Greyliens and the Reptoids from Rigel? In the Orion Constellation.

From Vicki Cooper's "California UFO"

"The Greys sometimes treat us more like children than animals. They consider us physically beautiful and healthy, mentally young and fresh. They do fear us contrary to what they claim, because they do not understand us. They have no emotions or individuality, they are of a group mind."

So, they do not have free will as we do and everything has to be referred back to the Asura leaders on the home planet. Our unpredictability is the reason they fear us. Streiber remarks on this in "Communion". This is why we Freewillians will win out in the end, untrammeled creative thinking. American officers discovered this in the conflict with the Japanese dictatorship in World War II. The Japanese soldier rigidly and unthinkingly followed orders. The American soldier could adjust himself and his tactics to unforeseen battlefield situations.

WHO'S THE BOSS?

"They also fear us because they know we are potentially powerful beings," continues Cynthia. "However, they insist they own us. They say they have created us and therefore have the right to do what they will with us."

Cynthia's above statement finds confirmation in the occult science of the Lunar Pitris described by D.K. in "Cosmic Fire" and Blavatsky in the "Secret Doctrine" that they are "the builders of man's body". On page 618 of Cosmic Fire D.K. has a footnote of appropriate quotes from Secret Doctrine: "The Lunar or Barhishad Pitris have the following functions: They are the ancestors of Man, They are the fashioners of his form, They possessed the physical Creative fire, They could only clothe the human monads, They could not make man in their likeness, They could not give him mind, They build his external form. . . Forms are the battleground, Eventually Spirit will slay the forms. . . (but) Temporarily They are the conquerors of Spirit, Spirit becomes immersed in material forms, Eventually Spirit will slay the forms. And then D.K. quotes the 'Voice of the Silence': 'Before that Path is entered (freedom from the Wheel of Rebirth) thou must destroy thy lunar body, cleanse thy mind, and make clean thy heart.'"

So Cynthia Crowell, a Solar Pitri, goes on with her contacts with Lunar Pitris from Rigel. "Their attitudes are propaganda. Their control over us in any capacity is ultimately very frail due to its very nature. Their control is based on intimidation and advanced technology. As we become more aware we are harder to control, harder to lie to, harder to confuse. Our technology would definitely be competitive if we had access to it. Much of the technology we would need to be effective to overcome this situation exists now. It just isn't made available to the public, for economic reasons, as well as 'national security'. The preceding statements about the Greys are based on conversations with them and long observations of them."

Here the abductee reveals that the Silence Policy created in 1947 by Marshall and Truman played directly into the hands of the Invaders, and is so maintained to this day. Philosophically the MJ12 rulers of America are bed-fellows with the Greyliens and Reptoids and share their contempt for the taxpayers supporting the program of invasion and subversion. If you cant beat 'em, join 'em!

"Impressions about the Reptilians are more general. I have not engaged in conversations with Reptilians," writes Cynthia, "though they have sometimes spoken to me. Most of my experiences with them do not include direct communication between me and them. Almost all of my consciously recalled memories of Reptilians also include Greys who usually do the communicating between us. Often the Reptilians seem to be present during abductions as observers only, standing off to the side of the action, just watching."

ARE YOU A LIKELY CANDIDATE?

She writes that a Greylien UFO scans a group of people and judges likely victims by the "quality of their brain response to the signal". Then follows detailed descriptions of how chosen children are tagged and followed for years as they develop..

"I do recall that as a very small child I was taught levitation and other psychic skills, as well as physical skills like changing the body temperature almost instantly. Then I was made to forget these abilities and how to tap them. . .

"We are taught/input with much information (almost as if we were biological computers) and made to forget it, throughout the abduction experience. Sometimes we are told the information will come back to us when we need it, or when they need for us to have it. They have said that much of this learning is not for us, but is intended to go through us genetically and subconsciously to reach (after a kind of translation in us) our unborn children, the halfbreed or hybrid children."

Is this how the first Adam and Eve were developed for Earth? From two or more interplanetary strains? More than likely. Now, that present mankind has generally been judged a failure, the process of creating a new race is being used again, hopefully more peaceful and less warlike than the present one!

Back in April 1954 we awakened ones of Borderland Sciences Research Associates had this biting comment from Ramon Natalli through Mark Probert: "The Etherian people do not care who is right or wrong; they are coldly disinterested in 'isms' (Catholicism or Communism). They are simply trying to keep man from disrupting the entire solar system, and they are going to do it if they have to destroy the whole human race from the earth and transplant other beings from other planets who have been seeking to get in here anyway. This is not a threat. This is not because the Etherians are concerned with any moral aspects. This is simply a direct statement of fact with no emotions behind it."

That was in 1954 when the Guardians of the planet were still hopeful that mankind could be redeemed. Now, in 1990 it is obvious that the majority cannot and the "transplants" are here. Mankind has not had to be destroyed, yet, and our controllers in the military, commerce and industry, politics and the priesthoods, now have their controllers, from outer space! Whether they are consciously aware of it or not!

MARK PROBERT, in trance and under control.

"Another reason for this education," writes Crowell, "we are told, is to create a common knowledge for abductees as a group. This further widens the gap between us as a group and the rest of our kind, as does being told, as some of us are, that we will be 'taken away' some time in the future."

"SOUL-SHEARING"

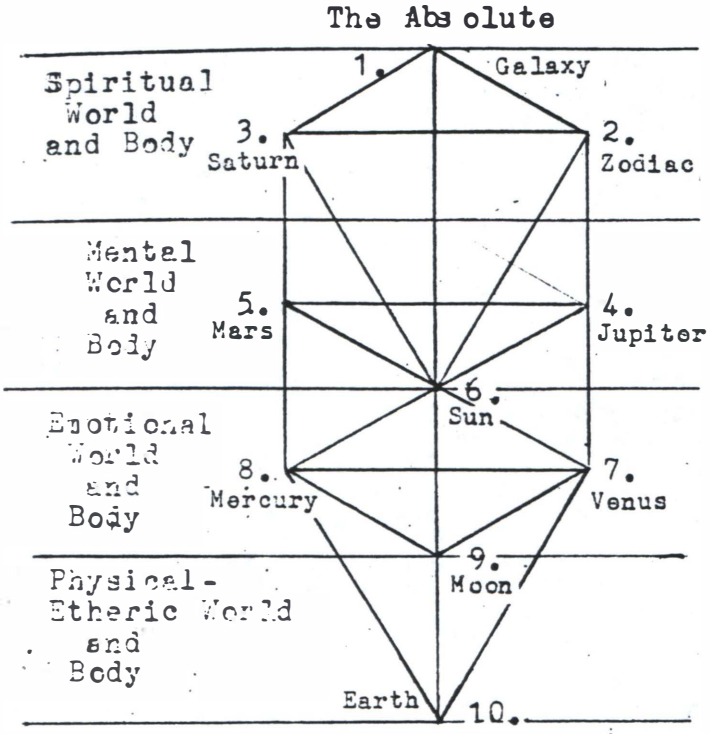

That's a new one, vampirism, only more sophisticated than that practiced by black magicians here on earth, though there are some examples of it in occult literature which I have read.

"Emotional energy is, to them, like a potent, much sought-after drug. They can take it out of us and bottle it, so to speak, and use it recreationally, scientifically and as a trade item, like money. . . I've been told that we store it in our etheric body, as a substance between the small ridges in the etheric field. . .

"During this 'harvesting' Greys will look directly into our eyes, as if they were drinking something or basking in light. The sight of Grey eyes brings on a feeling they are 'sucking my soul out of me', absorbing it into themselves. It is one of their control mechanisms. After a 'harvesting' we may go through intense emotional activity such as depression or anger, over producing the energy as fast as possible as possible, leaving us exhausted with no apparent cure but time. . .

"With the process of soul-shearing they can literally take a person out of his body and put him in another person's. I have been threatened with this and would not be surprised to find out that it has already happened. . . Many times I have experienced time as or through another individual, often in other time frames and in other, alien cultures. For a flash of a moment or for several moments at once I will actually be another person.

"This is done when they manipulate and temporarily separate our various bodies (physical, etheric, emotional or mental). They take the part of us that is consciously aware of their own group awareness, through which we can experience as another person who has also been taken into the group awareness via implant or whatever other means they may use. I do not know their reasons for doing this yet."

The Four Worlds of the Cabalist

The most obvious reason is that the Greys hope to speed up their evolution from the Lunar Pitri, elemental to the Solar Pitri, human level; but without the background in occult science offered by Theosophy and the Cabalistic Studies of the Western Mystery Tradition, Cynthia Crowell, Whitley Streiber and other abductees would have no way of understanding this.

On the Tree of Life of the Western Mystery Tradition at left, the Moon consciousness of the Lunar Pitris is limited to No. 9 on the Tree, Yesod, the Moon centre. They are trying for our Sun consciousness, represented by No. 6, the Christ Centre on the Tree.

Remember, the Tree is an exploded diagram of Creation. Actually these levels of consciousness, planes and bodies interpenetrate one another, a change of vibration is a change of location. This is true of a Flying Saucer coming here from another planet or System. It shifts up the scale of vibration to a level of consciousness where there is no time or space as we know it and rematerializes at our level in the earth's atmosphere, and at our present calendar time! Advanced beings are actually from our future. Try to adjust your thinking to that if you can!

COLLUSION WITH THE ENEMY

"A significant part of the abduction experience is the government factor, for abductees who are not directly involved with it as well as for those of us who are," writes Crowell. "I can only speak for the American abductee relative to the American government, but I am told that it is done in the same way world wide.

"In the 1960s the American government knew of the abductee situation and had agreed to it (the secret and illegal treaty at Holloman Air Force Base, New Mexico in 1964). At that time (I dont know if it is still being done) the government also assigned 'handlers' to some of the abductee children they knew about. Were my abductee siblings and I on an abductee list in the late 1950s and '60s because our parents were in government employ?

"These agents having some of the same technology available to them (part of the agreement at Holloman in '64) also conducted their own abductions in order to interrogate the abductees about alien encounters and other testing. Then they erased our memories, just as the aliens do. . . We abductees are under government surveillance because of our alien contact, but in the minds of the government we have no civil rights or value at all, beyond our usefulness as far as keeping track of what the aliens are doing.

"Further, we may present a danger, which could account in part for the spiteful attitude to which we are subjected by government people. What would you do if you were the government and you realized that the deal your predecessors had made with these Aliens had gone bad and you were sitting on a sleeping army of unknown numbers, probably thousands, of abductees?

HYBRID CHILD. CROSSBRED BETWEEN HUMANS AND GREY ENTITIES.

COUNTER-INTELLIGENCE

"The agent handler program intended to track and monitor a percentage of the sleeping army, specifically in hopes of being able to predict a possible future mass movement of the army, presumably orchestrated by Aliens through implants. It would not surprise me to learn the government is aware of the group mind aspect of the abduction experience. If so, they know the more individual abductees they can counter-control, the more influence they can exert over the army as a whole. If they are not aware of that aspect, then we are probably not only expendable but already lost to the conflict in their minds, since people from whom they have tried to remove implants have supposedly died."

An abductee/contactee who has been in touch with me by mail from America, wrote to tell me of having an implant removed. Obviously this was by one of the Good Guys with mind-over-matter powers. Asleep at night she dreamed vividly of lying on her left side on a brighly sunlit beach. He leaned over her, pressing a hand lightly on each side of her head, and then a bright little object popped out of her ear, painlessly. Without a word he left and she went back to sleep. This came about only after she had consciously faced up to the fact that she had been a part of the abduction program since early childhood, and had suppressed the traumatic memories. Now she intends to write a book about it!

"I have been told not to talk about these subjects," writes Crowell, "and am aware of a threat I cant quite identify. I assumed it was Alien oriented. . . Now it occurs to me that the impression is intuitive of real danger from this government factor. Which side has more to lose from exposure (the Greylien/Reptoids? Or MJ12 and its minions?) Who is my enemy?

"Good people, like my family, work for the government, at least at the superficial, public levels. I dont blame the government for entering into this agreement with the Aliens if they did it 40 or 50 years ago."

My Inner Plane sources say Adolf Hitler had his first abduction/contact with the Orion renegades in 1892! Because of the deal with the Nazi "MJ12", fleeing German scientists were welcomed to the Renegade's underground bases in northern Brazil after World War II.

Then comes Cynthia's searing indictment of the soul-less human monsters who run America from behind the scenes -- while excusing Truman and Marshall of their ghastly mistake of 1947:

"I an understand how they may have felt they had no choice but to do what they did, the way they did it. But at what point did they become the monsters who run drugs and guns to finance their actions, who rape children and murder to keep their secrets, who specifically withhold/suppress the technological developments that would help us fight our way out of this?

ABDUCTEES MARTYRS ALSO?

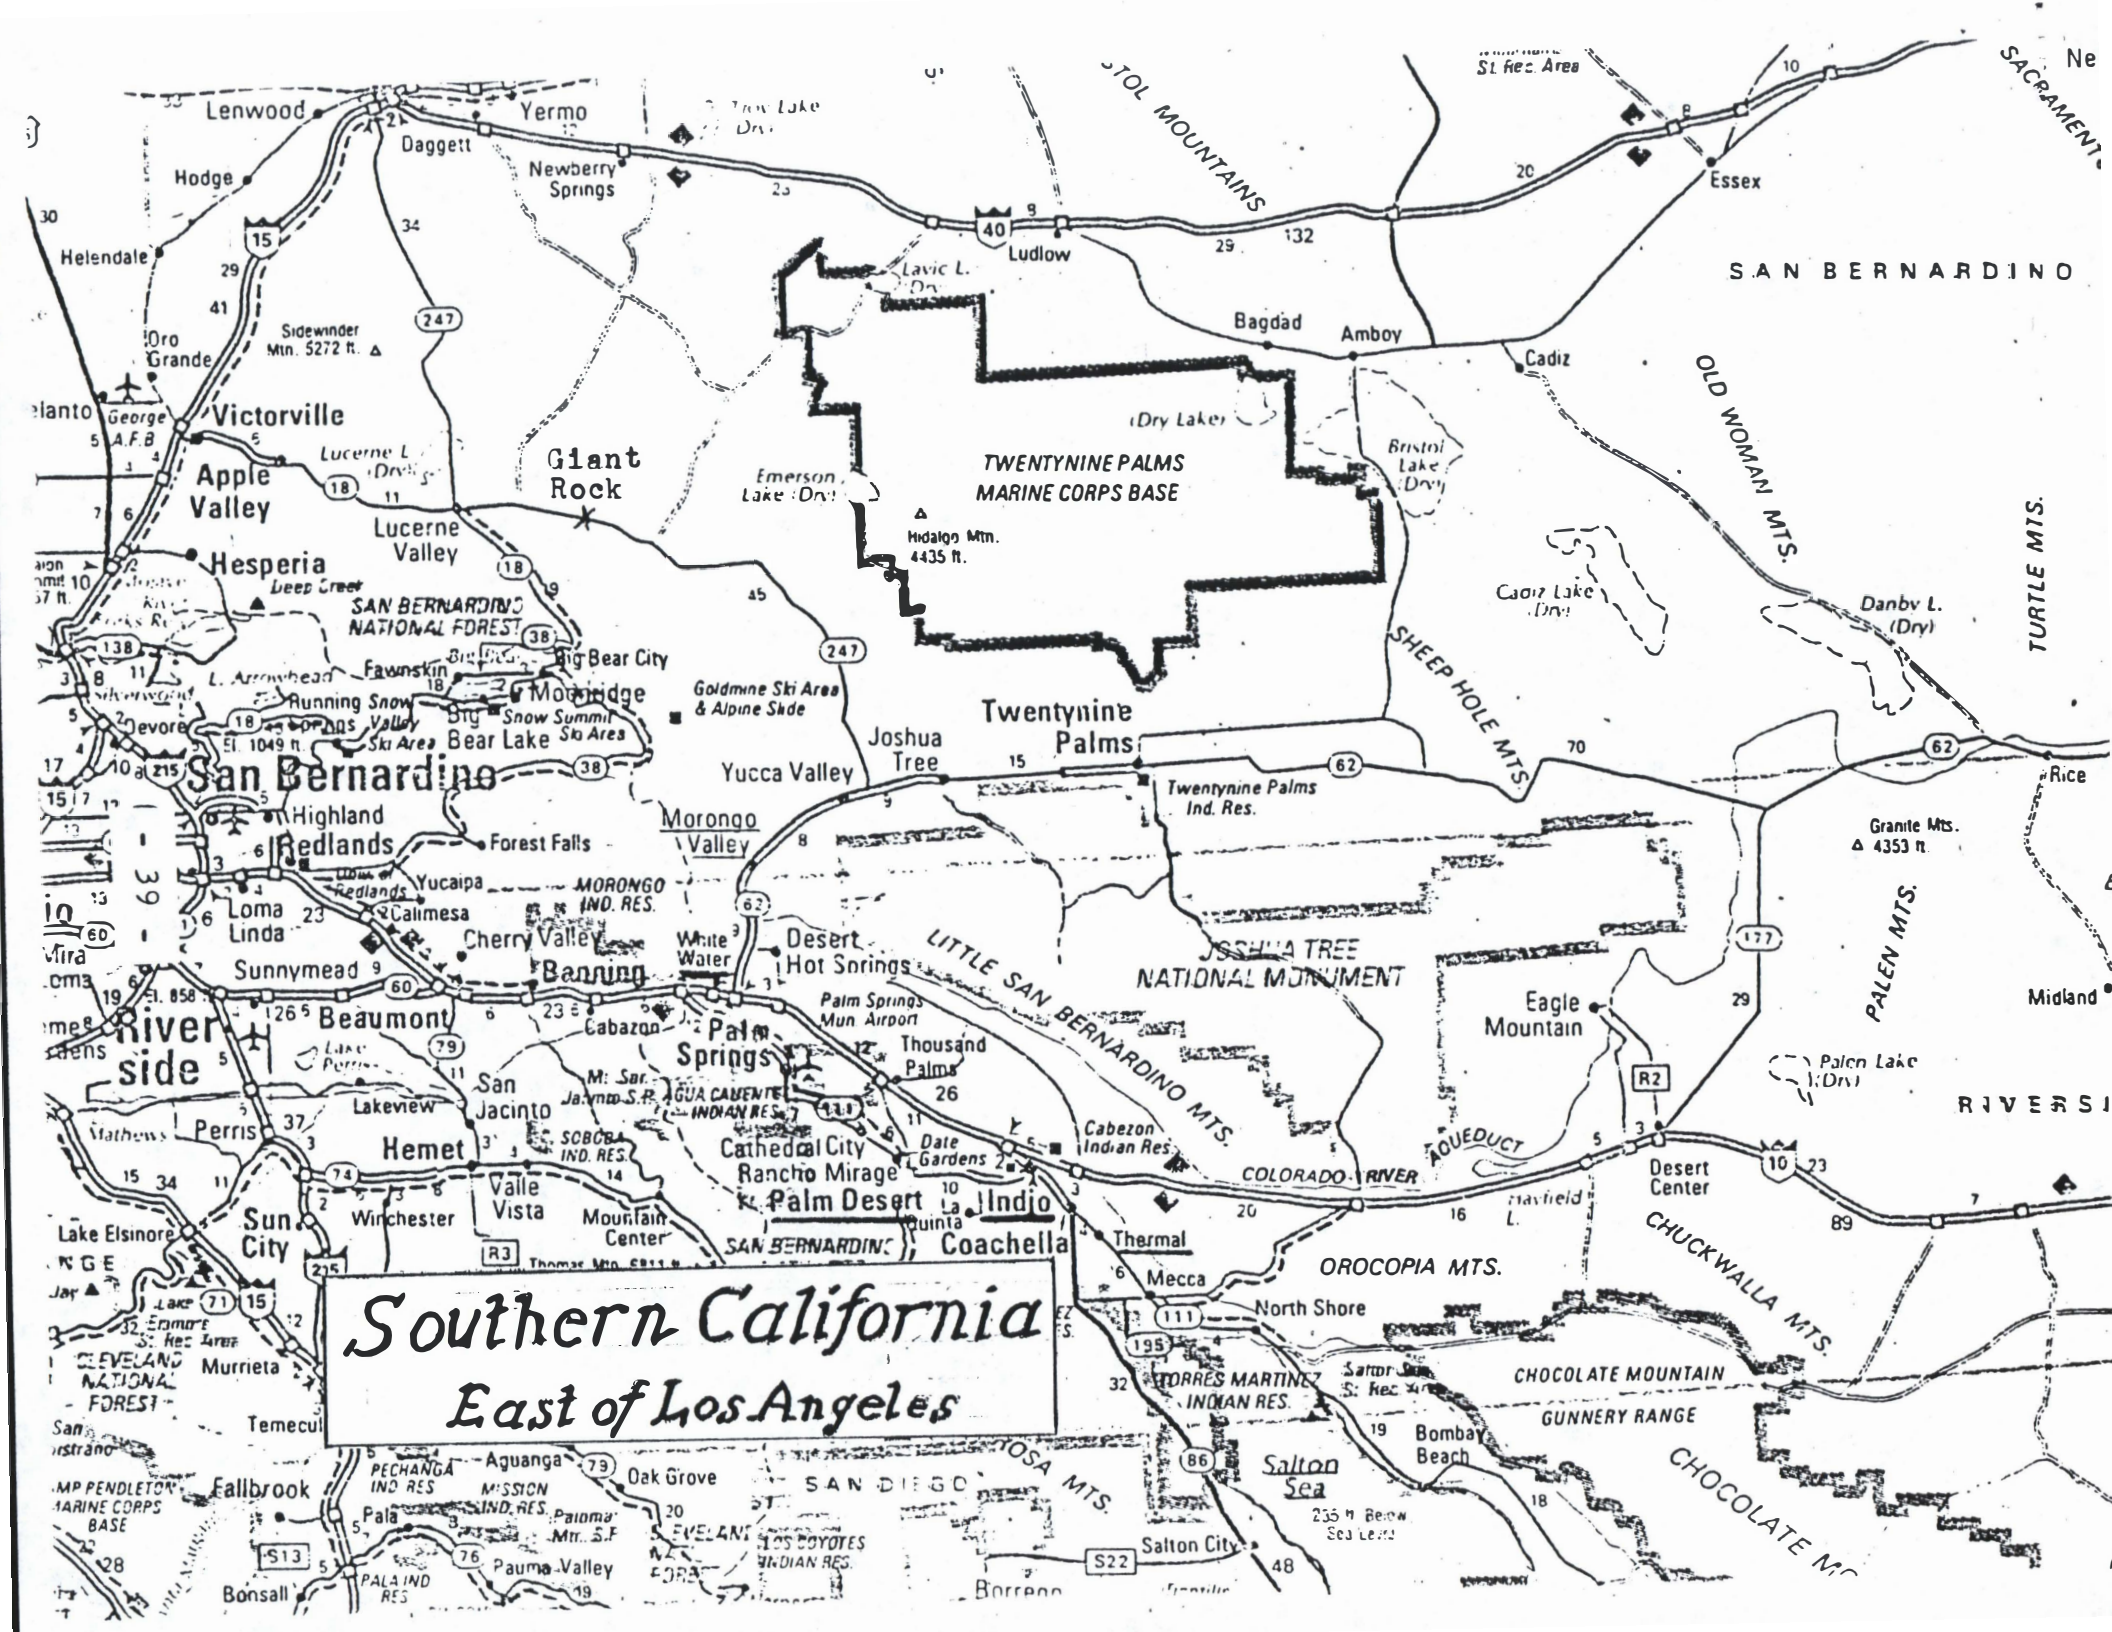

"We abductees are the human sacrifice of our times. This would probably be acceptable to the vast majority of us if we could believe that it was for the good of the whole nation. If asked, most of us would have been willing to help the Greys out, too. But the truth is that all of the rest of you have been sold out as well, right along with me! I could be your wife or daughter. I could be your mother or sister. And there probably are abductees in your family, friends or acquaintances, no matter who you are.

"But our blood has bought you nothing (like medical, technological and other scientific advancement) and it has not saved you or your children from the Aliens. It has served only to line the pockets of the select few in the central power group, be they government, financial, religious and/or alien leaders.

"If this system is not successfully opposed, what will happen to you if the Greys really do take us abductees away? Who will the central power group feed on, when we, the abductees, are all used up? Themselves?"

If you want a turning point for the moral turpitude of America's political and military leaders, Cynthia, take the Yankees' invasion of Vietnam. US Air Force officers found themselves helping to protect the drug production facilities of the local satraps and military men and the CIA organized a huge airline to fly the soul-destroying stuff to the States. This was and is the source of the unvouchered funds to finance the construction of the huge underground basesfor the Aliens. The head of MJ12 is the President of the United States, a Texas oil man when oil rigs in the Gulf of Mexico were used as trans-shipping points for drugs brought into the country from South America, avoiding customs and border patrols. He is expendable, along with the Dr. Fausts who have sold their souls to these Lunar Pitri fiends from outer space.

Propaganda you say? Let's quote Frank Scully again, from his introduction to "Behind The Flying Saucers": "Propaganda has made true -- and false -- practically obsolete in our language. In fact, if a man has served time in intelligence, it may fairly be said, the truth is no longer in him. Spies cannot even buy or sell lies with skill. If so, why are they being arrested all over the world and almost invariably getting sentences of 15 years? Has that become the Fair Trade Practices act on the international level? . . . our commissioned sons have been trained for combat but have been assigned in peacetime to espionage and counter espionage. But our sons in uniform do not report to us, the people, but to Central Intelligence which, as far as we can make out, reports to nobody and is answerable to nobody. . . " Now let's look into the Postscript of Frank Scully's last days, revealed to us by a friend and associate.

Southern California
East of Los Angeles
Lenwood
Yermo
Daggett
Hodge
Newberry Springs
Helendale
Ludlow
Essex
Bagdad
Amboy
Cadiz
SAN BERNARDINO
Oro Grande
Sidewinder Mtn. 5272 ft.
Victorville
Apple Valley
Giant Rock
TWENTYNINE PALMS MARINE CORPS BASE
Hidalgo Mtn. 4435 ft.
Emerson Lake (Dry)
Bristol Lake (Dry)
Cadiz Lake (Dry)
Danby L. (Dry)
OLD WOMAN MTS.
TURTLE MTS.
SHEEP HOLE MTS.
Lucerne Valley
Hesperia
Deep Creek
SAN BERNARDINO NATIONAL FOREST
Fawnskin
Big Bear City
Moonridge
Goldmine Ski Area & Alpine Slide
Running Snow Ski Area
Snow Summit Ski Area
Big Bear Lake
Twentynine Palms
Joshua Tree
Yucca Valley
Twentynine Palms Ind. Res.
San Bernardino
Highland
Redlands
Forest Falls
Morongo Valley
Granite Mts. 4353 ft.
Yucaipa
MORONGO IND. RES.
Loma Linda
Calimesa
Cherry Valley
Banning
White Water
Desert Hot Springs
LITTLE SAN BERNARDINO MTS.
JOSHUA TREE NATIONAL MONUMENT
Eagle Mountain
PALEN MTS.
Midland
Sunnymead
Beaumont
Cabazon
Palm Springs
Palm Springs Mun Airport
Thousand Palms
Palen Lake (Dry)
RIVERSIDE
Lakeview
San Jacinto
AGUA CALIENTE INDIAN RES.
Cabezon Indian Res.
Perris
Hemet
SOBOBA IND. RES.
Cathedral City
Rancho Mirage
Date Gardens
AQUEDUCT
COLORADO RIVER
Desert Center
Palm Desert
Indio
La Quinta
Valle Vista
Winchester
Mountain Center
Sun City
Lake Elsinore
Coachella
Thermal
Mecca
OROCOPIA MTS.
CHUCKWALLA MTS.
North Shore
Murrieta
Temecula
TORRES MARTINEZ INDIAN RES.
CHOCOLATE MOUNTAIN
GUNNERY RANGE
Bombay Beach
Salton Sea
235 ft Below Sea Level
Salton City
Aguanga
Oak Grove
SAN DIEGO
PECHANGA IND. RES.
MISSION IND. RES.
Pala
Pauma Valley
Fallbrook
Bonsall
PALA IND. RES.
LOS COYOTES INDIAN RES.
CLEVELAND NATIONAL FOREST
CAMP PENDLETON MARINE CORPS BASE
Borrego
Lake Elsinore St. Rec. Area
Lake Perris
Lake Cahuilla
Mayfield L.
Dry Lake
Lavic L. Dry
Bristol Mountains
St. Rec. Area

THE MARTYRDOM OF FRANK SCULLY

This is transcribed from a cassette recording sent to me in mid-1990 by a long time friend and associate, E.N. Timar. He studied the Cabala with me in classes held in Yucca Valley, California in the early 1970s, long after Scully's rendezvous with Aliens from outer space in 1964, the year of Scully's death. He and his family were living in Palm Desert, California. My friend lived up on the high desert in Morongo Valley, located on the map.

"I'm driving up Interstate 10 highway from Indio in my pickup truck. The typical summer day was clear as a bell, a slight breeze, temperature about 110 degrees. I turn off on to Indian avenue to cut across to go up to the high desert and Morongo Valley where my home is, travelling about 55 miles per hour.

"When I get to where Cubic Road is, a mile from where the road crosses to get to Thousand Palms, I run into this terrible sand storm. I had been planning on going in to Palm Springs to pick up a coat for my wife at Sears Roebuck store but decided against that, the vision was down to only about 200 feet. I've always dreaded desert storms, the sand wrecks your windshield, and the paint on the car. It even gets into the motor oil through the breather.

"Another two miles and I was suddenly out of the storm! It was clear. The wind wasn't blowing. Looking in the rear view mirror I could see all the way back to Indio! Yet I had just come through this heavy storm; so I decided to go toward Palm Springs after all. When I crossed the bridge over the railroad tracks I was up 25 feet. Looking back southeast toward Indio I could see this great big, dome-type storm. I was about eight miles from it.

"Suddenly, from the top of this dome I could see a green light coming straight down to earth. My God, it was just like a cone, narrow at the top and wider at the bottom. I couldn't believe what I was seeing. Indian avenue is straight but that old pickup truck has to be steered. Here I was, both arms out the window, staring at that dome, but the truck was going straight down the road at 55.

"Funny, on Interstate 10 I couldn't see the storm but on Indian avenue I could. It wasn't really a sand storm but sand particles whirling around, and here was this green light shining down to the ground. A few minutes later it goes back up, right behind the clouds. I went on in to Palm Springs, picked up the coat and drove home." At that time in 1964 Timar wasn't aware that Frank Scully lived in nearby Palm Desert.

POSTSCRIPT

"Several years later I took my wife and daughters to Whitewater for trout fishing from the commercial ponds there. Standing next to me in line to sign up for poles was a lady getting poles for her two daughters. To the clerk she gave the name of Scully.

"Scully? That's a famous name," I said to her.

"A famous name?" she repeated.

"Yes, I read a Flying Saucer book by a man named Scully. Are you any relation?"

"Yes," she replied. "He was my husband."

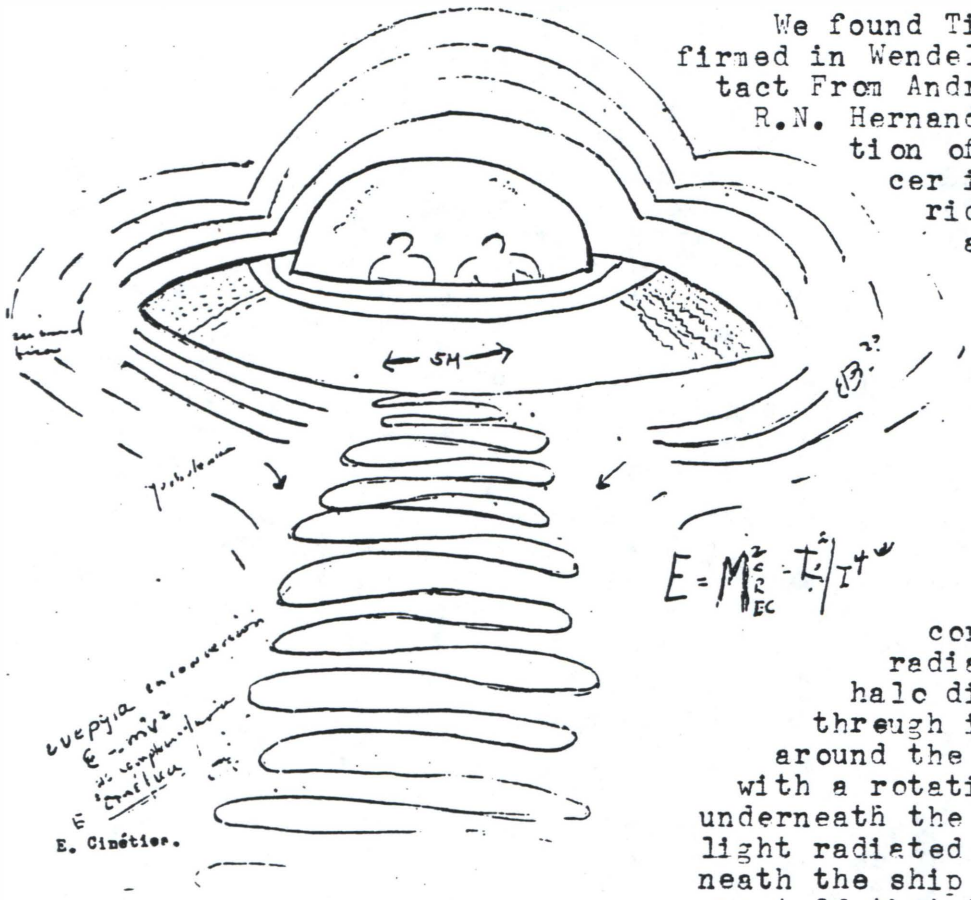

"I didn't know he lived down here," I said. "Is your place in or near Palm Desert?" The sighting of that great dome and the green light of years before flashed through my mind.

"Yes, we live off Ramon road. Did you know that Frank died?"

"That's a shame because he was the first one out with a book on Flying Saucers. I bought it. Read it. And believed it. About three or four years ago, was your husband picked up by a Flying Saucer?"

"Yes, they came and beamed him up. He was brought back three days later. Shortly after that he suddenly died. He was working on a second book on UFOs," she said.

We found Timar's Green Beam confirmed in Wendelle Steven's "UFO Contact From Andromeda". It is in Prof. R.N. Hernandez drawing and description of a two-place Flying Saucer in which he was given a ride, and found in his diary after he disappeared in 1979. The professor was a nuclear physicist at the University of Mexico. The diary is in Spanish. Here is Col. Stevens' translation of the relevant comment, page 243:

"The craft is completely surrounded by a violet-shaded halo, corona, or glow, and it all radiates heat. The colored halo distorts all images seen through it. The halo flows around the ship and blends then with a rotating turbulence noticed underneath the craft and a greenish light radiated from the center underneath the ship and downward. Hernandez was told that the green light was a part of the antigravitic field generated by the craft, and was a result of energy conversion in the field."

THE MEN IN BLACK

Now back to Timar's chance meeting with Frank Scully's widow. "She indicated to me that he was put to death because he was working on a second book. I didn't ask her whether her husband had finished that second book, or whether it was picked up by the Men in Black. She said they had two visits from the MIB. They kept tabs on him. He must have found out something that was secret.

"I got the impression she didn't want to say much more there in public. There were other people around and I didn't want to stir up their curiosity. We talked only about five minutes, so nothing more was said -- nor did I try to contact her again.

"This peculiar sand storm effect. When you're away from it you can see clearly through it. When you're in it, you cant. They have a way of enlarging the molecules of the air so they look like dust particles, but it wasn't dust. You didn't cough or spuuter while it was blowing on you. Yet it wasn't blowing across the street. Sand storms dont stop immediately. I could see that dome and cloud of particles. And who was driving my old truck while I was leaning both arms on the car window sill watching it? I wasn't steering it. Those particles were being magnified and that's where the green beam came in and picked up Frank Scully. He lived right off that area, probably on Rua del Sol, back of Ramon road.

THE CLONE ARMY OF THE CIA

"I lived in Morongo Valley for about 20 years, on the main highway going to the big Marine Corps base at Twentynine Palms. They train soldiers from all over the world there. You see them going up the road, different types of units, in marked personnel carriers.

"Then from 1975 on my wife and I could see a different type of soldier riding along. They came through in bunches. When stopped along the road you could see they were disciplined. Not one word was said. They just stared straight ahead. They were fully armed, guns loaded, ready for any period of time. There were no identifying markings on the trucks except one small ingignia. I talked to one Major, he said "CIA troops".

"Their discipline was absolutely tops. I thought we had discipline aboard our ship in the U.S. Navy -- we were top of the line -- but these CIA troops made us look like kids in a sand box. This went on until I left Morongo Valley in 1985.

"I had a friend, retired from atomic energy research and with an easy job at the airport at Thermal, off Hiway 86 coming up from El Centro. From the tower he could see the convoys of troops going by on their way to Twentynine Palms and sometimes watched them through binoculars, so he could see the identifying insignia. The troop-loaded trucks came in bunches.

"Visiting him one day at the tower I asked him if he could identify those troops. He said they must be Army because they weren't Marines.

"You know what kind of troops they are? CIA troops," I said. "They are going up to Twentynine Palms for special training."

"You're kidding!"

"No, I'm not. Check them out. They're different. That's a CIA insignia on the truck doors. I'll get back to you tomorrow."

"He called me the next day and said 'Timar you are absolutely right. A couple of those trucks pulled off the road for cold drinks for the soldiers and I got a closer look. There are no numbers on the trucks, no markings to indicate what units. There's only one insignia on the truck and none on the soldiers. I cant believe it! The CIA has its own troops.' He had even driven over to Hiway 86 for a closer look at this secret, perfectly disciplined army."

The above revelation from my California friend is just another item to add to the underground UFO news mill among Flying Saucer researchers the world over, to get around the governments' news blackouts. At that historic but secret meeting between MJ12 civilian reps and Air Force brass, and the Greyliens and Reptoids from Rigel at Holloman AFB in 1964, the Invaders agreed to exchange technical information in exchange for access to underground bases and the right to abduct humans for research in genetics, crossbreeding, etc. Those perfectly disciplined CIA troops suggest clones to me, from a genetic technique passed on to government scientists by the Greyliens in the 10 years from 1964 to 1975 when Timar first began to observe these animal-souled humans on the hiway to Twentynine Palms base. Is it likely that those CIA troops will be sent to the Gulf? When their primary mission is to maintain order in the US when the truth comes out?

The reference to Good Guys from Andromeda constellation brings up the subject of Solar Pitris and their efforts to get the truth of Flying Saucers out to the public; so to balance Cynthia Crowell's info on Lunar Pitris, let's look at communications from Solar Pitris.

THE MOST EXCITING AND CHALLENGING SUBJECT IN THE WORLD

From the Sept-Oct 1969 Journal
By Mrs. R.B.J.

"I would hardly know where to begin to give you information on the Martian, and several other men and women from other planets with whom we have been in contact, because of the many facets of the subject, and also because of the fact that I am not a writer.

"My late husband and I have spent years in research into metaphysics, from all angles, and were particularly fortunate in the fact that we had our own research laboratory and engineering building, with fine equipment, which made it possible to carry on experiments not possible for the average person. Added to that was the fact that my husband was a brilliant physicist and inventor, with a tremendous urge to go forward into unexplored reaches of science -- especially into anti-matter, fields of electro-magnetism and planes of nature above the three-dimensional physical -- and since he had his own business there was no one to stop him from working on these projects. Add to this the enthusiasm of such men as John Otto (who designed and made successful use of a light-beam communicator for space contact) and George van Tassel and others, the whole universe of nature seemed to lie before him and he loved the challenge."

PLANES OF NATURE: The Seven Sub-Levels of the Physical World, from Max Heindel's "The Rosicrucian Cosmo-Concepcion"

Etheric Region or Fire	7th Region Reflecting Ether, Memory of Nature 6th Region Light Ether, Medium of Sense Perception 5th Region Life Ether, Medium of Propagation 4th Region Chemical Ether, Medium of Assimilation and Excretion	4-D and up
Chemical Region	3rd Region or Gases 2nd Region or Liquids 1st Region or Solids	3-D

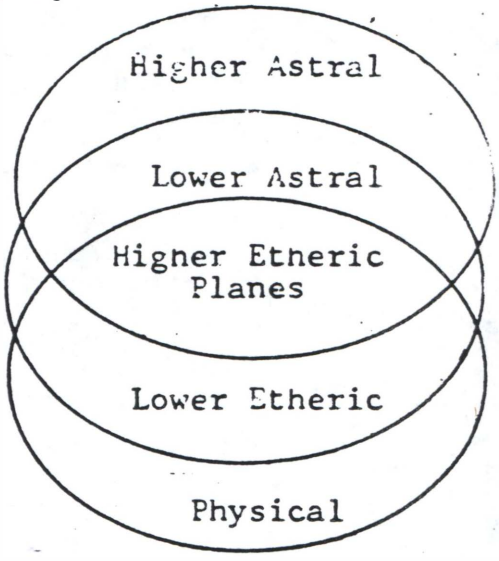

"When we first contacted the man from the Red Planet my husband was unimpressed. He was courteous but firm in the statement that he would appreciate Red's proving his mental and scientific superiority to us. Red patiently did this, by calling attention to several little-known things about our planet which we checked and found to be correct, and then by telling us of magnetic fields around our earth which science had not as yet discovered, but did a few years later. He described an unusual type telescope used on Mars, which is quite understandable now that we know about laser beams.

"We even took the trouble to go back to the University of Chicago to study nuclear physics and found that science knew little of the magnetic fields Red spoke about. Their existence was verified two years later by the discovery of the Van Allen belts. Since then we have had frequent contact with Red and he has become a very, very good friend -- one who advises us, teases us, teaches us whenever we ask for scientific data, and deplores sadly the condition of our world today. Red's knowledge is far, far ahead of ours, especially in the field of mental power and the transformation of matter from the Third to the Fourth dimension and back again, by will or by instrumentation! This last is the basis for their approach to us; for they come either in space ships or by projection, and Red often says to us, 'I cant stay any longer; I'm a human being you know; and I've got work to do. I'm not like your other friends here.'"

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN OBJECTIVE AND SUBJECTIVE EXISTENCE

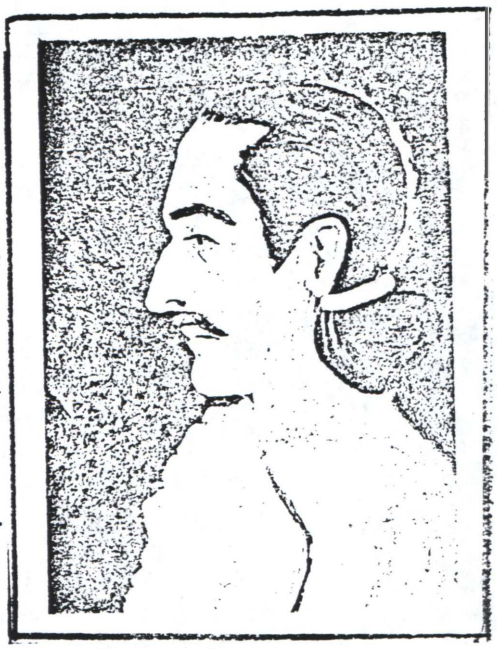

The Martian was referring to the earth friends of our Chicago Associate who had passed on and were no longer involved in physical plane living, but they were also exchanging ideas through the medium or channel. Here again is one of the greatest problems in understanding for the Flying Saucer researcher, to distinguish betwen an earth human who has "died" and is living a subjective existence on the Astral plane, and a human being from a life-stream on another planet who has not "died" but is still living an objective existence on the physical--etheric place of his home planet. Because of the limitations of our five senses such types of beings are normally invisible and inaudible to us. They must either materialize a temporary form or use a human medium if they would communicate with us -- unless we have the abstract level of mind developed. Then the would-be communicator can merge his or her mind with ours and dictate material directly. Call it Cosmic mediumship.

Our Founder-Director, Meade Layne, came up against this problem in the late 1940s in his Flying Saucer research and had it clarified by Ramon Natalli of the Inner Circle, with the over-lapping circle diagram at the right: "Physically considered, these 'planes' are distinguished by varying rates of vibration; spiritualy considered they are varying states of consciousness," said Natalli.

"Substance as earth man knows it takes on the tangibility suited to earth consciousness on the lower etheric, and it is from this region that your sky phenomena burst into view, and also your psychic phenomena. At death, man's sojourn in the lower etheric is very short lived. But he does not enter the higher etheric, going right on through it with no consciousness of it, to the lower Astral. Later, and depending on his mental activity, he enters the higher spheres of the astral. But in order to make any contact other than mental, he must make it through and by the lower etheric." (From BSRF No. 5, "The Ether of Space" by Meade Layne, $5.50)

RAMON NATALLI
As seen and painted by Mark Probert

A JEALOUS, POSSESSIVE WIFE ON MARS?

"Red says he can come any time we really need and call for him, but it is a little difficult at times because it involves his going into his room in his Martian home, lying down and projecting himself to us -- which sometimes causes trouble at home, just as it would at your house. So you see, all this would be a little difficult to explain in an article in your Journal."

No, it's understandable that Martian women wouldn't be that different, and would have little enthusiasm for their husbands gallivanting around the solar system, hobnobbing with alien women on another planet! Mrs. R.B.J. need only ask herself how she would feel with her husband in deep trance for hours and gone who knows where.

Solar system travel will be one of the more esoteric sports of the New Age predicted by Captain Avalon, as Aquarians try out their new-found mental powers. In her book, "The Fifth Dimension" Vera Stanley Alder has this to say about it: "The hope of setting up communication with life outside the earth's radius will become an ever-growing desire. . . No instruments or machines will avail them. They will finally realise after many generations have been practising various forms of mind-control, that if a group of people could project their minds together as one mind to the particular planet they wish to contact, the channel formed would be strong enough to act as a 'television' allowing them to gain admittance by mental wireless as it were, to the planet, and impress their own visit upon the life there as well. This 'magic' of the future will become so absorbing and dangerous a game that many will unfortunately lose their minds over it, thus adding to the subtle mental diseases of the day. Like spiritualism, this practice will be bitterly opposed because the wrong people are able to take part in it."

"You ask, 'What means of communication?'" continues Mrs. R.B.J. in her letter to us in 1969. "Let me say that in our first search for contact we tried every means of approach. Using a light beam was rather successful but the messages were too fast and irrelevant. The success we did achieve came when we attempted to meet them on their own level, and found that to a great extent the people from other planets operate on the Fourth Dimension. By will or by instrumentation they change their ship and themselves to the Fourth Dimension on their own planet, then move without regard to space or time to their destination. By changing back to the Third Dimension they become visible to us. Red says that man, as a human, three-dimensional being, cannot survive in true, deep space -- beyond the Moon."

As some of you Associates know, all of the above agrees with what we have been told through Mark Probert by the Inner Circle, and is discussed in great detail in BSRF No. 3, "The Coming of the Guardians", by Meade Layne, 90-page mimeo book, illustrated, $20.00. Blavatsky, Heindel and other occultists teach that the Earth and the Moon share one Etheric double. Thus the lower Quarternary of the personality, Physical-Etheric, Emotional and Concrete Mind could hold together for the Apollo trips and Moon landings; but outside of that protective field, and into the Abyss beyond the Moon, no.

"So we found that Red could talk to us through a sensitive or medium, as do many other people we know who have died and are on a higher plane. I believe he operates on one of the four higher physical ethers or from the Astral plane. He always says he comes on a higher dimension. Red is not unique in this approach. A fine scientist from Venus, named Electra, is instructing us on some electronic projects; and there are others -- all people of wonderful mental and moral advancement -- far above our own. Now, how can we put all this in print? I can just hear the laughter.

THE BAD GUYS ARE MISUSING IT ANYHOW!

"You spoke about the development of a psychic microphone and related extra-sensitive electronic equipment which Electra might help develop. That's the work I wish we could do. My husband and I worked for two years on a device to bring through information from higher realms. We were very successful, and in our entnusiasm shared some of our information with a friend. He immediately set himself up in business to teach 'a complete course in Black Magic and in training the mind to dominate others, for profit!' So you see it simply isn't possible!!!! Electra is helping us in the development of some very specialized electronic equipment creating energy fields for healing. But we dont dare let the Bad Guys misuse it.

"About the Astronauts landing on the Moon, Red has made these comments: When we set foot on the Moon we are completely under Universal Law and the laws of the Lunar Lords, who will deal with us with authority! If our Astronauts explore the Moon in peace they will meet the scientists in the laboratories there; for there are space bases and laboratories beneath the ground on the Moon.

"We had a long discussion on ways of reaching Mars -- hopefully without the Astronauts having to resort to a change in dimension. But Red said they had explored many techniques but found this change to the Fourth Dimension the best for deep space travel. He tried to explain how this is done but it is quite involved. It takes into consideration the Identity Potential. I have a lot on this from others, too.

"First, I think we're going to have to learn more about levitation as the Atlanteans used it. They were specialists in the Sun Cycle of Supreme Energy, the return cycle of which involved levitation, set against and opposing gravitation. This is, as you probably know, explained in the book 'A Dweller On Two Planets', page 65-66. I think it is tremendously important, the explanation by Phylos. (Capt. Bruce Cathie also has some interesting observations on Time, Space, Gravity and Levity in his books 'Harmonic 33', 'Harmonic 695', 'The Pulse of the Universe', and his latest 'The Bridge to Infinity, Harmonic 371244'.)

(SIGNATURE OF PHYLOS IN ATLAN CHARACTERS.)

"I would be glad to share any other material with you, that would be interesting and 'helpful to man', which is Red's plea. But I definitely do not want my name mentioned or inferred in any way. This is positive! Our small group is esoteric and would die a thousand deaths if they knew I was giving you this information, unless you gave your promise that the information would be used with compassion and understanding. Wish you and your wife did live close so we could talk together.

PHYLOS

"Please let me compliment you on your Journal, which has been of great interest to all of us. I glory in your daring to think on every subject and in such a universal manner."

Mrs. R.B.J., Chicago, Ill.

There was no further information from Mrs. R.B.J. and we lost touch with her when she did not renew her subscription to the Journal. In any event, relevant information on levity would not be forthcoming for fear of its misuse by the authorities and/or punitive action against the informant who released it "for the benefit of mankind". We have more than enough destructive equipment to blow ourselves to smithereens now; so why should the Guardians of the race allow any more to be developed -- to add to the munitions makers' profit?

Phylos, an Ascended Master, presumably is a member of the Occult Hierarchy of the planet, freeing himself from the Wheel of Rebirth back in the 1870s. "I have said that the Atlans recognized Nature in its entirety to be Deity externalized," he wrote through his medium, Fred Oliver. "Their philosophy asserted that force moved, not in straight lines but in circles, that is, so as always to return to itself. If the dynamism operating the universe acts in circular progression, it follows that an infinity of increase in vibration possible to One Substance is an untenable concept. There must be a point in the circle where extremes meet and run round again, and this we find between cathodicity and magnetism. As vibration brought substance into the realm of light, it must carry it out. It does so. It conveys it into what the Poseidi termed 'Navaz, the Night Side of Nature', where duality becomes manifest, cold opposes heat, darkness light, and where positive polarity opposes negative, all things antipodal. Cold is as much a substantial entity as heat, and darkness as light. There is a prism of seven colors in each white ray of light; there is also a septuple prism of black entities in the blackest gloom -- the night is as pregnant as the day.

GRAVITY IS LIGHT, LEVITY IS DARK

"The Poseid investigator thus became cognizant of wondrous forces of nature which he might bend to the uses of mankind. The secret was out, the discovery being that attraction of gravitation, the law of weight, had set over against it the 'repulsion of levitation'; that the first belonged to the Light-side of Nature, and the second to Navaz, the Night-side; that vibration governed the darkness and the cold. Thus Poseid, like Job of old, knew the path to the house of darkness and the treasures of the hail (cold). Through this wisdom Atlantis found it possible to adjust weight (positiveness) so evenly that no 'tug of war' was manifest. This achievement meant much. It meant aerial navigation without wings or unwieldly gas reservoirs through matching strength to the attraction of gravitation. That vibration of the One Substance governed and composed all realms was a discovery which solved the problem of the conveyance of images of light, pictures of forms, as well as of sound and heat, just as the telephone thou knowest so well conveys images of sound, only in Poseid no wires or other sensible connection was required in the use, at whatever distance, of either telephone or telephotes, nor even in caloriveyance, that is, heat conduction.

"To digress a little, it is to the employment of these and the higher forces of the Night-side that seemingly magic feats of occult adepts, from the Man of Nazareth down to the least Yogi, are indebted for their possibility.

"And now let me close this chapter by saying that when modern science shall have seen its way to the acceptance of the Poseidonic knowledge herein outlined, physical nature will no longer possess any hidden recesses, any penetralia, for the scientific investigator. Not earth, air, the depth of the seas nor those of interstellar space will hold secrets from that man who approaches from the Godward side, as did Poseid. I do not say that Atl knew the very all; it knew more than this day has yet uncovered, but not all. Yet the search commenced by them might be continued now by thee, for America, my people, thou wert of Atlantis. Of either, I can sing, 'My country, 'tis of thee'."

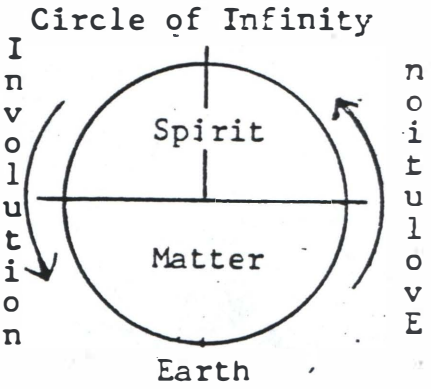

We quote from a 1924 edition of this American occult classic, originally published in 1894, and still in print and available at occult book stores. DeVorss & Co.PO Box 550, Marina del Rey, California 90291 carries it at $8.95 paperback and $14.95 hardcover, "A Dweller On Two Planets, by Phylos"

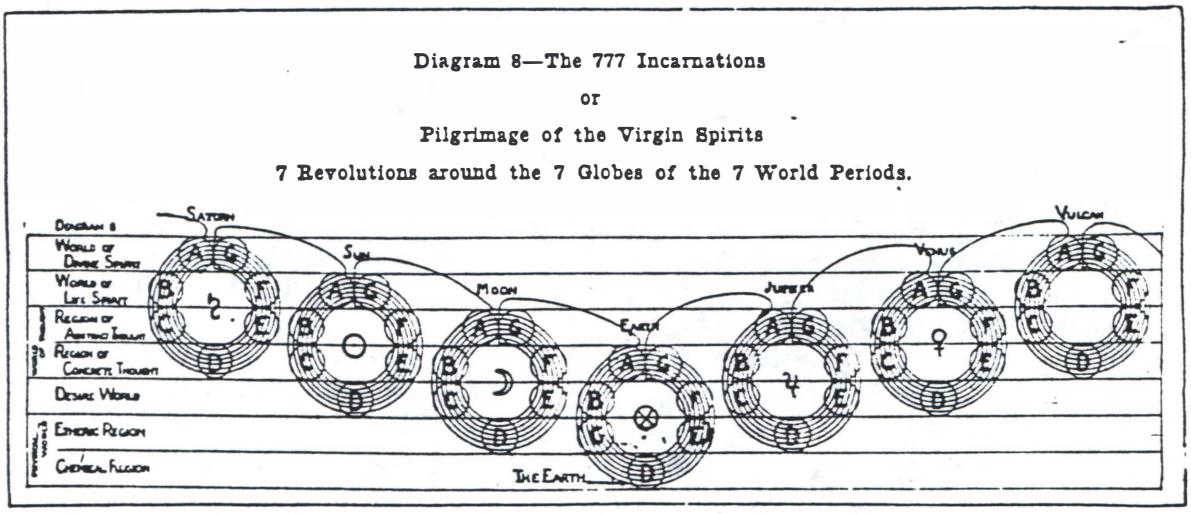

". . . UNTIL YOU CAN DO IT YOURSELF."

By Captain Avalon of the Ashtar Command

"Thank you, Beloveds of the Light, for letting me speak a few moments with you. At this time our ships are circling this Earth and holding her on a steady course. You do not realise what an absolutely beautiful planet this is upon which you all live. It will be known in the New Age as the Green Emerald, and it will be the planet in this system, next to Neptune, which will be a lovely place to visit. It will truly be the Garden of Eden once again. We are here to protect that image of beauty for you until you can do it yourself.

"We have spoken of the axial shift. New lands will arise and old ones go down. The Earth will again return to its original geological formations of the land mass and the water element. This blessed planet has been through much pain and suffering. It has gone through great adversity because of the density of thought and feeling for aeons by humans on its surface. This planet, too, must evolve progressively through the rounds of soul development, the same as any individual and all life on this planet, it, too, descended from Spirit and to Spirit it must return.

From Max Heindel's "The Rosicrucian Cosmo-Concepcion"

"We study the effects of the thought waves and emotional energies of mankind, which become thought forms creating grid patterns in the atmosphere of Earth, and for the most part these energies are discordant. These grids move in undulating currents of discordant energy similar to the ocean currents as they move across the seas. An individual can get tangled in this net-like grid by opening himself or herself to uncontrolled negative emotions and destructive thoughts. When negative thought and emotion are combined and sent forth, they will entangle the sender in this net, as well as pulling the object of its attention into it, providing that the receiver is caught off guard. It is also along these undulating currents that those of the black arts, those skilled in thought perversions and thought control, use to constantly send out anti-Christ vibrations. I wish to express a visual picture to you so you can disentangle yourself from the net.

EMOTIONAL CONTROL, AND HOW TO ACHIEVE IT

"Not many people are discerning and discriminating when it comes to their own emotions and thought. Many times the thought they think they think is not truly theirs but has been projected along this vast network. Millions of human beings are caught in this grid like insects in a spider's web.

"Now, how can you extricate yourself? First of all, place your attention and visualize the Christ directly above you. Then place yourself in a huge sphere of white fire. See this sphere extending at least nine feet in diameter around you and interpenetrating and consuming this grid within this sphere. Ask the Angelic Hosts, as Ascended Master, or to one of us from other worlds, to completely cut you free from this net. Then see a steely blue pyramid of living flame of protection about you and enclosing this white sphere. I would suggest that you chant a mantra for your protection and freedom from projected negative thought and feeling. Ask for forgiveness and ask that all distorted energy you send out be drawn off from the other person, place, condition or thing and be purified. Next, promise yourself that you will not engage in gossip, criticism, condemnation nor judgment to any part of life ever again. Finally, send out unconditional Love to all offended life. This will take a little practise; but it can be done; and you can do it -- if you want to be free!

"Ladies and gentlemen, there are physical devices operating constantly around the world. These are known as LFRs (Low Frequency Rays or ELF or ELF-wave generators). These devices are situated around the globe by the negative powers and directed to any particular city or country they wish. These are negative vibrations which affect the brains of mankind and of animals. When these devices are tuned to a certain frequency, they can make the people very complacent and even zombi-like. In this way, you see, any civilization can be conquered without bloodshed.

"You need us. The increasing pressures on people by the powers in control in the worlds of finance, banking, economics, communications, energy, etc., keep your attention focussed on your problems. You see the supply you work so hard for being evaporated by the rising costs and interest rates. You see no hope of extricating yourself from these depressing tensions. All news is depressing; so put it out of your mind because much of it is too frightening to contemplate. To exculpate, you can lose yourself in the hypnosis of television and let the stupid, insane, negative energies be absorbed in your aura, etheric body and subconscious. Others lose their thinking thoughts in loud, discordant music, which eventually destroys cells within the body and breaks down its immunity to disease. Of course it is needless to talk about the dangers of drugs of every kind, including alcohol.

THE ACTION OF THE LIGHT NULLIFIED

"What I am saying is that your physical body and aura were designed to out-picture the Christ and the Light of the Christ while in the physical embodiment. All of these foreign substances entering the body and the negative projections impinging upon your very Soul itself, nullify the action of the Light to expand through your cellular structure. What, in effect, we see below us is millions of human beings on a treadmill going from one problem to another. They are born, grow up, marry, have children, grow old and 'die'. The average person has not even balanced his or her karmic debt within the span of 60-70 years. How monotonous!

"No wonder the myth of going to heaven after 'death' and doing nothing is so appealing to the masses! And you call this living? You call this life? But this is exactly what those negative forces in control want you to believe.

"We wish that we could right now have acceptance by the humanity of this planet. We wish we could come now and lift your burdens and dry your tears, and take away your suffering. Our hearts, too, are filled with compassion. But our hands are tied. We have sought for years within this century to prepare all of you for a beautiful world that certainly is coming. Had we had our own way, we would have landed openly long, long ago. However, your office of Intelligence and certain other members of your government have done a successful job of placing us as Unidentified Flying Objects and outright denying our existence.

"We need on this Earth plane all the eyes, ears and hands we can get. We too need publicity. We come in Peace. We come in Love. Let us enter your Life.

"I thank you. The Love and Protection of our loving Father and Mother Lords be around you. I am Captain Avalon of the Ashtar Command." (From the "Rainbow Ray Focus" Open Letter, Sept-Oct 1983, Drawer 1188, Sedona, California 86336. Phone 602-282-3427)

The Rainbow Ray Focus channel of the Von Pohlens probably closed with their transition in the early '80s but the torch was picked up by Sister Thedra and the Association Sananda & Sanat Kumara, Inc. 2675 West Highway 89A, Suite 454, Sedona AZ 86336 USA. So Light shines in the gloom, for those with eyes open to perceive.

Two thousand years ago Jesus told the disciples (John 8:23): "Ye are from beneath. I am from above. Ye are of this world; I am not of this world." How could he tell them then that he was an extraterrestrial from Venus and that his Venusian name was Sananda? In this Space Age enlightened people are ready for the truth and the Light of Jesus the Christ is more desperately needed now than it was in the First Century B.C. or A.D. The Ashtar Command is made up of dedicated volunteers from within the Solar System. Ashtar was fully aware of the far reaching effects of that secret meeting of the American politicians and military men at Holloman AFB in 1964, whose morals and ethics were no better than those of the Greyliens and Reptoids with whom they signed the treaty. We had this warning from Ashtar in 1966.

THE NEED FOR AWARENESS AND CONCENTRATION

"I am with you today because I have a warning for you all. I bring not fear. I bring Light and a new awareness of that which is coming into your life, not directly, but indirectly through others that you know. You are well aware of the negative nature of men and women around you; now you must be aware of that negativity which is being released through the Fourth Dimension which will burst forth to confound and confront the minds and bodies of men and women upon the Third Dimension. The masses are not prepared for this in any measure and it will rest upon your shoulders to bring as much understanding as possible to those you know who will be panic stricken.

"This is not the Lower Astral; this is a far more gruesome aspect of life than that! The knowledge of the Christ-Light and protection it gives is of major importance, as it is the only real protection a Third Dimension being has against such attack. Locked doors mean nothing to this rampaging evil, that in itself knows no laws as you do.

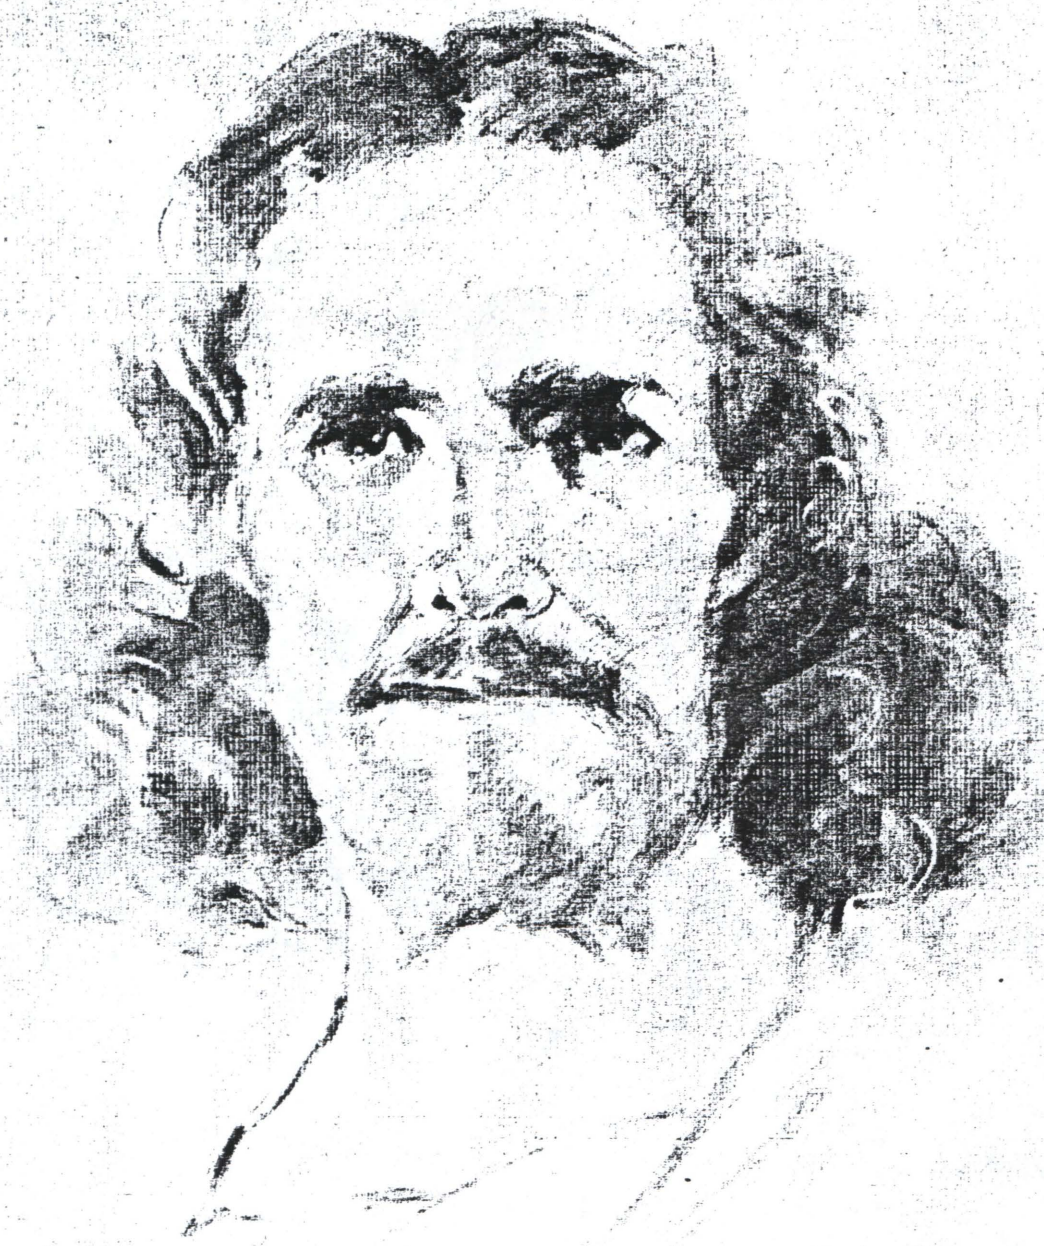

"You have been told repeatedly to practice concentration upon a single point. This is our way of trying to get you to hold the Christ-Light vibration. You will do well in surrounding yourselves and your homes with this Light, but you do not hold it long enough, so that it dissipates from lack of concentrated thought.

"You must at all times feel and radiate Light, Christ-Light, to protect yourselves fully. Have it become such a strong part of your makeup that it is instantaneous at all times. Practice, practice, practice. It may mean the difference between life and death to one you love or are trying to help protect.

"Remember, this is your job and we can only do so much. Our help is directly balanced with your own effort; past that we can not step; so dont be found 'asleep at the switch'. This is a warning to all whom this message may contact. I speak with urgency to all who stand with the Christ forces in this greatest of all wars for control of the earth and of mankind.

And from an earlier message in November 1966: "The lower levels of the Astral plane have been swept clean. . . This cleansing will cause a sharp upswing in crime and perversion of all nature. Confusion and fear shall rule men and women of earth for being freed from the hold of the lower forces. The mass shall have to rearrange its energy and it does not by nature know how to or even that a rebalance must take place. Your position in the LIGHT is as secure as your desire to remain there; so cling to the Light, and remember that we here are beside you on whatever path you may find yourself tomorrow or a year from tomorrow, as long as your goal is Spiritual understanding and an awareness of your Higher Self.

I am Ashtar."

SANANDA O THE LIGHT

Compliments of:- New Age Universal,
Christianity Without Religion,
Las Canteras 43,
Las Palmas, Canary islands, Spain

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Behind The Flying Saucers, by Frank Scully, 1955 Victor Gollancz, London

The Mahatma Letters To A.P. Sinnett, transcribed and compiled by A. Trevor Barker, Theosophical Publishing House, Adyar, Madras, India 600 020, 1972

The Secret Doctrine, by H.P. Blavatsky, Point Loma Edition Theosophical Press, California, 1909

The Coming of the Guardians, by Meade Layne, First Edition published by Borderland Sciences Research Associates, San Diego, California 1956. Eighth Edition published by Riley Crabb, 161A Centreway Road, Orewa, NZ, $20.00

UFO Crash at Aztec, by William S. Steinman, UFO Photo Archives, PO Box 17200, Tucson AZ 85710 USA, 1988

Communion, and Transformation, by Whitley Streiber, an Avon Paperback, Hearst Corp. 105 Madison Ave., New York 10016

Letter to Steven (Spielberg) by John Lear, 1414 Hollywood Blvd., Las Vegas, Nevada 89110, Dec. 13, 1987

The Riddle of the Flying Saucers, by Gerald Heard, Carroll & Nicholson, London, 1950

Contact From Andromeda, by Wendelle Stevens, by UFO Photo Archives, Tucson, Arizona 1988

The UFO Connection, by Barbara Schutte, Journal of Borderland Research, July-August 1983 issue

The Abduction Experience, by Cynthia Crowell, published by Nevada Aerial Research, PO Box 81407, Las Vegas NV 81080

First Principles of Theosophy, By C. Jinarajadasa, Theosophical Press, Adyar, Madras, India 600 020, 1944

The Journal of UFO Investigation, 18 Hardy Meadows, Grassington, Skipton, North Yorkshire, England BD23 5DL

California UFO, edited by Vicki Cooper, Box 355 1800 So Robertson Blvd., Los Angeles, California 90035

Treatise On Cosmic Fire, by Alice A. Bailey, Lucis Publishing Company, New York, 1925

In Search of the Miraculous, by P.D. Ouspensky, Harcourt Brace Jaganovich, Orlando, Florida 32887, 1977

Man, Whence, How and Whither, by C.W. Leadbeater and Annie Besant, Theosophical Press, Adyar, India, 1911

Flying Saucers at Edwards Air Force Base, by Meade Layne and Riley Crabb, Orewa, New Zealand

The Mystical Qabbalah, by Dion Fortune, first published 1930, Samuel Weiser, York Beach, Maine 03910, 1984 (PO Box 612)

Phyles, Dweller On Two Planets, by F.S. Oliver, Harper & Row, New York, 1974, paperback

Sananda of the Light, by Howard Chandler Christie. Copies in colour can be obtained by donation from New Age Universal, Christianity Without Religion, Las Canteras,43, Las Palmas, Canary Islands, Spain

"FLYING SAUCERS and COSMIC GOOD vs COSMIC EVIL" is Dr. Crabb's review of the UFO invasion of the Earth and naming the sources of Cosmic Evil attempting the takeover of planet Earth: The Great Bear, Pluto, Maldek, the Moon, the Earth. This seems to be the sequence of control. Then we have another set of Invaders from Zeta Reticuli who have joint bases already established with Russian, American and British Air Force bases. Also, renegades from Orion have clapped up an alliance with German scientists in Brazil, and have succeeded cross-breeding with Earthians. Cosmic Forces for good will eventually win out but right now, 1989, it is a complicated and threatening picture. Illustrated, 60 pages. . . $10.00

"SPACECRAFT FROM BEYOND THE SUN" It is SIRIUS, the Sun behind our Sun that is sparking Aquarian Age developments on our Earth, says Dr. Crabb, as he discusses this and other New Age developments foreshadowed by the UFO phenomenon, the pilots and their prophetic visions. One is that our Solar System will become a Binary when our Sun takes a mate in the New Age. There were mass landings of UFOs in France in the 9th Century. So enlarge your Space Age philosophy with data in this 50-page, illustrated book. $10.00

"PSYCHIC INVESTIGATION OF THE BERMUDA TRIANGLE" This is Dr. Crabb's searching, illustrated review of the book "Close Encounters In The Devil's Triangle" by Page Bryant and Jim Chaplin in 1976. Here the medium, Page Bryant, contacts the souls of the humans whose bodies have dematerialized in the still-active, ancient Atlantean force field -- and are still lost in limbo -- but she also contacts the Dragon-type aliens who have established underwater bases off the coast of Florida. Here at last in 70 pages is a reasonable explanation for the disappearances which have been going on for thousands of years, an Atlantean technical blunder! $15.00

"RADIONICS, The NEW AGE Science of Healing" Edited by Riley Hansard Crabb, Doctor of Metaphysics in the Society of St. Luke the Physician. This 85-page book contains the history and development of Radionics, Doctors, Equipment, Technique, etc.; Radionic instruments and how to make them, including diagrams and instructions. Also there are 32 pages of Radionic rates, the Atlas; and finally a lengthy interview with a Radionic expert with 50 years experience. Addendum: the Schematic for the UKACO broadcaster for agruculture and Recollections of Dr. Albert Abrams. $20.00

"TESLA'S TECHNOLOGY IN TODAY'S WORLD" This is the definitive review of current use of ELF (Extreme Low Frequency) waves in the 1970s, derived from Nikola Tesla's discoveries and inventions of a hundred years ago. This 44-page brochure was put together by a Canadian stock broker with a good background in high-energy Physics and edited by Dr Crabb. It contains much of the information in Dr. Andrija Puharich's book on Tesla, but Doubleday publishers were forbidden to print it by the Unites States government. There were later attemps on Puharich's life. The effects of the so-called "Russian Woodpecker" ELF wave broadcasts since 1976 are described. $10.00

"BRAIN TUNERS, The Electro-magnetic Cure for Drug Addiction"
The Brain Tuner is a sophisticated ELF Wave Generator for putting five, proven, specific frequencies into the brain which stimulate the production of natural Endorphins, pain-killers, in the body. Drug addiction stops their production, thus the continual need for a "fix" Developed in a Hong Kong clinic and modified and miniaturized in the US, the pocket-sized Tuner puts the weak signal into the head with electrodes on acupuncture points beneath each ear. Dr. Crabb has arranged for the manufacture of BTs in New Zealand. $140.00
There is an accompanying five-page brochure.

Send cash -- NZ banks welcome US, Aussie or Canadian money -- cheque or International Postal Order, to Dr. Riley Hansard Crabb, 161A Centreway Road, Orewa, Hibiscus Coast, New Zealand