CASE #22

29 Jan 53

Malibu Beach, California

A newspaper reporter called March AFB intelligence officer and reported that a Lt Comdr in the Navy with approximately 5,000 hours flying time was flying in a twin-engine beach craft near Malibu Beach at 9,000' altitude on a S course when he observed 4 metallic discs of B-36 size flying in squadron formation in a vertical plane at approximately 20,000'. Speed estimate was 12,000 MPH on a SE course. The objects disappeared in the direction of Riverside, California.

ATIC Comment and Conclusion

On 31 Jan 53, Capt E. J. Ruppelt contacted the D/I of the 27th Air Division, Norton AFB, California, to inquire about the series of UFO sightings in the area. He stated that the 27th AD had only one sighting that occurred on the 30th of January near Palm Springs. Fighters were scrambled but no contact was made. A cross-check with the GOC showed a weather balloon in the area, so it was not reported but was written off as a weather balloon.

The D/I stated that all during the period of these reports, 28, 29, and 30 January, no unidentified radar tracks correlated with the UFO reports.

He knew nothing of the Northrup report except that a newspaper said that the CAA tower at Santa Monica had seen four C-47 a/c in formation close to the time of the sighting. He had no knowledge of the Marine incident at El Toro.

Three Sightings Discs Return to Calif.

By United Press

SANTA ANA, Calif., Jan. 30
—Reports by several persons, including two veteran pilots, of disk-shaped objects streaking thru Southern California skies were under investigation today by Air Force, Marine Corps and CAA officials.

Four such objects were reported to have been seen flying in apparent formation by the three-man crew of a Northrup Aircraft Co. plane yesterday afternoon.

A Marine Corps jet fighter pilot said he chased a fiery object for nearly 25 miles Wednesday night before he was forced to turn back when he ran low on fuel. At the same time, control tower operators at Long Beach Municipal Airport reported they saw an "eerie orange flame" in the sky.

The two pilots and photographer in the Northrup plane said they watched the four disks yesterday for about five minutes until the mysterious objects disappeared beyond a mountain peak.

Photographer Jim Wilkinson did not try to photograph them.

He said two of the disks were flying above the other two and estimated their attitude at about 20,000 feet.

The Marine pilot failed to identify the "round amber light" he chased for some 25 miles.

The pilot, Maj. Harvey N. Patton of Salt Lake City, discounted the possibility that it was a star "because it was not high enough and was moving."

Edward S. Downs, Civil Aeronautics tower controller at Long Beach airport, reported "an orange object resembling a ball of fire" at an altitude of several thousand feet near the airport.

Jet Pilot Chases "Fiery Disc" Over California Marine Base

SANTA ANA, Calif., Jan. 29

—(UP)—The Marine Corps today disclosed one of its jet fighters last night chased a "fiery object" in the skies for nearly 25 miles until the plane ran low on fuel.

The Marine spokesman said the pilot failed to identify the orange-colored object but said it definitely was moving and traveled at high speed.

The bright object first was observed at El Toro Marine air base near here by a tower operator who said it was about 1,000 feet over the field and moving in a westerly direction.

After observing the disc-shaped object, the tower operator ordered a Marine all-weather jet fighter which was coming in for a landing to make an investigation.

Maj. Harvey N. Patton of Salt Lake City, Utah, piloting the plane, began chasing the object.

The pilot reported it was a "round amber light" which resembled jet exhaust or a colored star.

"It definitely could not have been a star," Major Patton said, "because it was not high enough and was moving."

The jet plane chased the object for nearly five minutes but finally was forced to turn back to the base because it was running low on fuel. Major Patton said that as he turned back he saw the light headed towards Long Beach.

A few minutes later, Edward S. Downs, Civil Aeronautics tower controller at Long Beach airport, spotted what he described as "an orange object resembling a ball of fire" at an altitude of several thousand feet near the airport.

Downs said the object was traveling west at high speed and headed out over the ocean, disappearing several minutes later.
