I first saw the object in the sky to the left and high in the sky. I watched it for a time before speaking of it because I thought it might be an aircraft or a satellite. But it didn't seem to move, or to leave any trail behind it so I called attention to it. As far as I could see it didn't change its position only as we turned relative to it. Then it was more to the right. I said in this report it looked like fluorescent light on each side of a bathroom cabinet. But the light was not bright. It was more like the light of the moon before the sun has gone down.

I might add the light seemed to emanate from a point which looked like electric light bulbs more than anything.

inferred to be the cause of the two white bands.

Having observed twin jet airplanes speeding across the sky, I was amazed to see what I presumed was a similar craft, maintaining an upright position + the cause of maintaining these clearcut perpendicular bands of white, which I assumed to be steam or exhaust smoke.

It seemed to me that we approached these mysterious bands for about one quarter hour, and I know we traveled a number of miles during that time. Finally, before we passed under it, and out of visible range from within the car, I leaned way forward to watch it, and, apparently, due to the reduced daylight, I was startled to see at the top and above the two bands of white, - at the top two large globes of apparently radiant light, then two shining cones or cylinders of much less luminosity, with apparently a ^{last} luminous cone between them. Below these were the two white and clearcut bands of white previously mentioned.

Had I known that our inability to understand this phenomenon was not due to our own relative ignorance, we would have stopped the car to observe it more closely.

On driving with my daughter, Mrs. [redacted], and my wife Mrs. [redacted] on a road now numbered differently, but formerly known as Route 60 from Brandenburg, Kentucky toward Hardenburg, Kentucky, about 4:30 to quarter to five PM Nov. 6, 1954, one of those with me first noted, and the three of us then closely observed two bands of white in the sky ahead of us. They were clear cut and not tenuous and were apparently perpendicular. They did not dissipate nor increase. At one time as we travelled along the winding road the two bands merged into one, and shortly thereafter they separated as before. During most of the time we observed them I noted that the top of the bands was the brightest spot, but I could not see any jet aircraft above them, which I

my best estimate

23. How did the object or objects disappear from view? We passed it.

24. In order that you can give as clear a picture as possible of what you saw, we would like for you to imagine that you could construct the object that you saw. Of what type material would you make it? How large would it be, and what shape would it have? Describe in your own words a common object or objects which when placed up in the sky would give the same appearance as the object which you saw.

*If two objects, like two huge torpedoes,
If one object, like a spacecraft, with two parallel cylinders. I wondered as I saw these cylinders if they were transparent and luminous or like two shiny aluminum cylinders.*

I then saw at the top two luminous globes, bright as from an inner source of light, then two long bands of light - quite different from the white streams below. I wondered as I saw them whether the light they showed came from within the cylinders - if such they were, or if they were reflections from the globes of light above. I also wondered, but did not have time to ascertain whether these two radiant tubes were a part of a larger whole which encompassed them both. It seemed to me that I observed a somewhat greater body marked X in the diagram below.

Then below these two zones of light were the two apparently perpendicular bands, which were still clearly visible, clear-cut and apparently relatively close.

Not to scale
The drawing is far from being to scale, many times too thick and too short

16. Tell in a few words the following things about the object.

a. Sound We were travelling in a car with most of the windows

b. Color During most of the time of the observation I saw two parallel white streaks, clear-cut and parallel, not attenuated at any point.

17. Draw a picture that will show the shape of the object or objects. Label and include in your sketch any details of the object that you saw such as wings, protrusions, etc., and especially exhaust trails or vapor trails. Place an arrow beside the drawing to show the direction the object was moving.

For nearly all the time I saw two parallel and apparently perpendicular white bands which seemed to be fairly close, apparently stationary. We drove toward them. When first seen they were at an elevation of perhaps 35° . At one point on the somewhat winding road the two bands blended into one, and shortly thereafter they separated again as before. The brightest zone was at the top. During most of the time I saw nothing except these two white bands. Just as when previously and subsequently watching a twin-engine jet airplane flying, the trail appears clearer than the plane, and sometimes the trail is the only thing seen, so these two white bands were for most of the time, the thing most clearly observed. See answer 17 for my further details.

18. The edges of the object were:

- (Circle One): a. Fuzzy or blurred
b. Like a bright star
c. Sharply outlined
d. Don't remember

e. Other _____

19. IF there was MORE THAN ONE object, then how many were there? X

Draw a picture of how they were arranged, and put an arrow to show the direction that they were traveling.

X Two bright bands. The startling thing that impressed me was that the white streams seemed to be exhausts from a perpendicular object or possibly two perpendicular objects which remained relatively stationary in a perpendicular position.

As we travelled forward, and as the light in the sky grew less, the bands became relatively higher until they neared the top visible through our windshield. I leaned forward as far as possible and believe that I observed the phenomenon some what longer than the two women (my wife and daughter) with me.

In this changing light I saw what I had not observed before, which appeared to be the object or objects which had come the white bands we had been observing.

DATE 10 November 1954

Around 4:39 I was driving from Brandenburg south on the old route at about 40-45 M.P.H. when my mother drew my attention to 2 objects in the sky ahead of us, partly on our left. They appeared to be ^{stationary} 2 white smoke columns of smoke which I at first thought were from jet planes but on looking further I observed that the right hand column appeared to rise to the higher than the left + that the top of each was luminous like light from a frosted bulb. That part of the sky was completely clear although there were clouds around the sun. As we drove along they continued to — and appeared to remain stationary but our position to them changed.
