World 'Flying Saucers' Day

By GYO HANI

Although no preparation of any sort of celebration has been reported, tomorrow is the 11th anniversary of the sighting of the first "flying saucers," or to be more exact, when the word "flying saucers" was first used.

On June 24, 1947, Idaho businessman Kenneth Arnold reported observing nine shining "saucer-like" objects flying at 1,200 miles per hour over the Cascade mountain range of Western Washington while piloting his private plane.

The report touched off a kind of hysteria in the United States, followed by other parts of the world. The police, newspapers, Air Force bases were flooded with reports of mysterious flying objects being sighted and scientists and military leaders issued contradictory verdicts in trying to explain the puzzling phenomena.

In the succeeding years, the excitement gradually died down and the topic seldom makes headlines these days. But careful readers find small news items from time to time on enigmatic flying objects sighted at one place or other and group of men specializing in what they call "ufology" are spotting "UFO" or unidentified flying objects almost every day in some part of the world.

There are ufologists in Japan too. And unidentified flying objects are locally sighted by both ufologists and laymen quite often too.

Three amateur astronomers, for instance, reported having sighted a large shiny object skimming through the sky over Kanaya-machi, Wakayama Prefecture, on Nov. 27 last year, while observing meteors. Though amateurs, they are calmed the flying saucer craze among the public somewhat but drew vehement retorts from ufologists.

Kinichi Arai who heads the Japan Flying Saucers Association, the largest ufologist body in Japan, says Dr. Miyaji's argument is outmoded. He said all ufologists do not need Dr. Miyaji's lecture because it was common knowledge that balloons, meteors, searchlights and others mentioned by the scientist are often mistaken for saucers.

But as official investigation conducted by the U.S. Air Force revealed several years ago, he says, about 3 per cent of all reports on mysterious flying objects have remained unexplained while 97 per cent were dismissed as misidentification of other objects or just hoaxes and illusions.

He says ufologists are dealing with this unexplained 3 per tence of "spacemen" as well as flying saucers.

The Cosmic Brotherhood Association, third and youngest ufologist organization in Japan, is made up of such believers. The members claim they contacted a group of "spacemen" who understood Japanese on the night of June 7 with a gadget called "Master Unit Communicator." The machine converts, according to them, sound waves to light waves and vice versa. The "spacemen" are capable of receiving and transmitting signals via the media, it seems.

Yusuke Matsumura, the leader of the group, said some 30 members of the association gathered around the gadget set up on the top of Mt. Takao, some 30 miles west of heart of Tokyo, and kept shouting: "Hullo, spacemen! This is the Cosmic Brotherhood Association of Japan. Can you hear me?" for about an hour every two hours starting 3 p.m. that day.

Then in early hours of the next day, they heard the spacemen finally answer, and reward their hours of toilsome efforts in the rain.

"Hullo, our Japanese friends. It's very nice of you to contact us despite the rain," and the voice faded out in hum and "motorboating."

Matsumura has promised to invite this writer to the next observation scheduled for early July.

Health Aides Give Warning Against Polio

Polio—a scourge of children—may attack more youngsters this trained observers.

According to a report published in the gazette of the Amateur Astronomers Association, the three men saw it around 10:27 a.m. flying horizontally from west to east. The silvery white egg-shaped object was about two-thirds of a full moon in size and flew soundlessly at about the same speed as an earth satellite. The most interesting part of the report is that the three of them thought that the object was "revolving at a very high speed" while flying.

More recently, a oval-shaped silvery white flying object was observed over Ueno City, Mie Prefecture, in the afternoon of April 3, this year, seven luminous objects in "V" formation at around 9 p.m. of April 24 over Kobe, and on May 29, eight orange colored things which this time did not fly but stayed above the southwesterly horizon at Ibusuki, Kagoshima Prefecture around 8:30 p.m. These were all reported to the Osaka headquarters of the Modern Space Travel Association, one of three ufologist bodies in Japan.

Such reports of mysterious luminous objects increased steadily since the Russians shot up its first Sputnik on Oct. 4 last year. That is, more people turned sky gazers.

Pestered by the influx of inquiries and information on these objects, Dr. Masashi Miyaji, director of the Tokyo Astronomical Observatory and leader of the Japanese IGY survey project issued a statement on Dec. 7 last year in the vernacular Mainichi denying the existence of flying saucers.

Dr. Miyaji declared "flying saucers" are utter nonsense and all of these "mysterious flying objects" could be explained scientifically. He said observation balloons flying at high speed on jet streams are the commonest cases of misidentification. Searchlights hitting the bottom of clouds, the reflection of the sun on the air body caused by planes, meteors, fireballs and other natural and artificial phenomena are apt to appear as strange objects in the sky.

The astronomer's statement with this explanation cents, and they know that observations by famous scientists are included in this unexplained category.

As an example, Arai quoted the case of Dr. Clyde W. Tombaugh, famous American astronomer who discovered Pluto. There is no more credible report than an eyewitness account by experienced astronomer, Arai emphasized.

In a brief report titled "An Unusual Aerial Phenomenon," Dr. Tombaugh wrote as follows:

"I saw the object about 11 o'clock one night in August 1949 from the backyard of my home in Las Cruces, New Mexico. I happened to be looking at the zenith, admiring the beautiful transparent sky of stars, when suddenly I spied a geometrical group of faint bluish-green rectangles of light similar to the "Lubbock lights."

"The group moved south-southeasterly, the individual rectangles became foreshortened, their space of formation smaller (at first about one degree across) and the intensity duller, fading from view at about 35 degrees above the horizon. Total time of visibility was about three seconds. I was too flabbergasted to count the number of rectangles of light, or to note some other features I wondered about later. There was no sound."

"I have done thousands of hours of night sky watching, but never saw a sight so strange as this. The rectangles of light were of low luminosity; had there been a full moon in the sky, I am sure they would not have been visible."

Among ufologists, there are those who take a more positive stand and believe in the exist-year than it did last year, and polio cases have increased alarmingly in recent months, Japanese health authorities warn.

According to a survey by the Welfare Ministry, the number of polio cases, which had risen to a peak of 4,200 in 1951, followed a steady downward curve until 1955 when it stood at 1,300.

But the curve again began to pick up. As of the end of May this year, 290 children had already fallen victim to the disease, registering an increase of 40 per cent over the same period last year.

Incidence of the disease is distributed throughout the country, and health authorities are now deeply worried over the signs of mass outbreaks in Yamaguchi, Ehime, Fukuoka and Kumamoto prefectures.

However, the number of children who have died of the disease is smaller this year than it was last year. So far it has claimed 92 children as against 149 for the same period last year.

Health authorities attribute this to the fact that parents are now more aware of the horrors of polio and that therefore proper medical treatment has come to be given to patients in the early stage of the disease.

However, they note that a considerably high percentage of the patients remain paralyzed even after cure.

It has been generally believed that polio is contracted through the respiratory organs. However, recent research has proved that it may also be contracted through the digestive organs. There was a case in Kumamoto in which polio was found to have been carried by the fly.

1. This report contains information pertaining to unidentified flying objects (UFOB) at Johnson Air Base and Shiroy Air Base, Central Honshu, Japan, during the period 6 through 14 November 1957 and a translation of air interest from the 11 November 1957 edition of the YOMIURI SHIMBUN.

UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS (UFOB)

2. A total of fourteen (14) individuals (Ed: See Incl 5 of 8) were interviewed in connection with UFOB sightings. Of these, twelve (12) were U.S. Air Force personnel and two (2) were Japanese nationals. In addition, three (3) other persons, all Japanese nationals, had information regarding sightings but due to an attack of influenza were unavailable for interview until some later date. These people are all civilian employees at Shiroy Air Base.

3. Captain Sarver and Technical Sergeant Laybourne both wear glasses but it is not known whether they were wearing them at the time of the sightings or not.

4. Sergeant Laybourne stated that he had previously sighted an UFOB between 1700 and 1800 hours around Thanksgiving 1951 as he was driving his car, accompanied by his wife, on the main high-way between Vacaville and Auburn, California. This is in the vicinity of Travis Air Force Base. During the recent eclipse of the moon (10 Nov 57 Japan) Sergeant Laybourne took color photographs of what seemed to him to be a milky mist in the front of the moon. At present the film is en route to New York for processing. When they are returned from New York Sergeant Laybourne has agreed to turn them over to the 6004th AISS Air Technical Section for evaluation.

5. The Weather Observation Chart (Incl 6) was obtained from Haneda Air Base (Tokyo International Airport) since there is no weather station at Shiroy Air Base.

7. The following sightings were reported in a Japanese language newspaper:

a. Mr. Kazunto YAMADA, a student residing at 6012 Morigasaki, Ota-ku, Tokyo, noticed at approximately 1755 hours 10 Nov 57 from the street in front of his house a light green and reddish fireball flying over Haneda Airport for about three seconds. It finally exploded emitting a shower of sparks but the sound of the explosion was not heard.

b. An employee of Yamamoto Camera Works at 6-1 Kyobashi, Chuo-ku, Tokyo, observed at about 1754 hours 10 Nov 57 an object similar to an illuminating shell (Ed: Pyrotechnic flare) flying in a southwesterly direction from the northeast. It exhibited a pale tail light. The size was about that of a ten yen coin (Japanese currency) (Ed: 15/16 of an inch).

c. On the same day Miss Fumiko TAKAHARA of 617 Hatsudai, Shibuya-ku, Tokyo, noted at approximately 1755 hours from the Hatsudai-shita bus stop (near Washington Heights) an object about the size of an egg flying in a southwesterly direction leaving a red tail until it fell in pieces like star scraps, splitting silently.

d. Police Officer Isaburo YAMAZAKI of the Kamata Police Station noticed, while stationed at the Inaribashi checkpoint at the entrance to Haneda Airport, a bright object at about 1800 hours (Ed: No date mentioned) similar to a greenish mercury vapor lamp flying near the planet Venus and beginning to twinkle. When it became bright green like a fireball it silently exploded and disappeared.

e. Mr. Masao NAKANÉ, a company employee living near the Tokyo Astronomical Observatory at Mitaka, observed a flying object at Mito-shita bus stop at around 1753 hours (Ed: No date mentioned) flying in a generally due west direction. It flew from north to south for about two seconds at an altitude of about 30 degrees from the horizon then disappeared near the horizon below Venus. Its size was that of a closed fist. The object emitted an intense blue-white light like electric sparks then exploded, exhibiting a very bright light then split into three sections and disappeared. The explosion was not heard.

f. Relative to the above sightings, the Tokyo Astronomical Observatory states: "Telephone calls telling of flying objects being observed in various places were received. Since the time of observation almost coincides we are investigating. At present, it is conceivable that this object might have been a meteor. In the future, if they will let us know more definitely the time and place it will aid investigation."

g. Mr. Tatsuo TAKEDA, a farmer at Kanaya-machi, Arita-gun, Wakayama-ken, observed a fireball flying in the eastern sky at about 1745 hours. Its magnitude was that of stars of the fourth magnitude, e.g., Venus. A middle-school student in the same town also noticed the fireball.

h. In Nagoya, members of the Nagoya District Astronomical Observatory saw a fireball which flew from west to east leaving a tail about 2 meters long.

some material like glass fiber falling from the sky. When a special USAF investigator and a retired Army Lieutenant Colonel touched it in order to take photographs it disappeared instantly. Because of its appearance it has been called "angels hair". Later it was also reported in France and New Zealand. At 1000 hours 4 Oct 57 this material was reported for the first time in Japan. It fell continuously for two hours on the grounds of the Sakuramachi Middle School at Ichinose. The longer strands ranged from 5 to 6 meters in length and the shorter about 30 centimeters. Instructor Yukichi KUNAGAI of the school sent photos to the Japan Flying Saucer Research Society representative, Mr. Kinichi ARAI, at 268-1 Gotanda, Shinagawa-ku, Tokyo. The society conducted reflection and perspective photographic studies using a microscope of fifty magnifications. This "angels hair", which is similar in appearance to decorative thread for Christmas trees, is an organic substance that dissolves in hydrochloric acid and burns easily. The cinders form spherical shapes like those formed when hair is burned.

j. The most recent case in Japan is that of Mr. Tatsuya MATSUDA of 48-1 Minami-Senju, Arakawa-ku, Tokyo, who noticed a brilliant white missile at 1451 hours 18 Oct 57. The object flew slowly emitting a light such as that reflected from highly polished metal. It was rocket-shaped with neither wings or tail. It proceeded from the zenith to the northwest and soon disappeared. Observation time was from twenty to twenty-five seconds. Since the object was observed in daylight and Mr. MATSUDA is a member of the Japan Astronomical Society and the Toa Astronomical Society, the observation was not considered to be an illusion.

k. At around 1820 hours 1 Nov 57 a high-school student, Hiromi YOSHINARI of Ono-machi, Tamura-Gun, Fukushima-Ken, noted a small, round beam which acted like a flying saucer for about 48 minutes. (Ed: Apparent discrepancy in "most recent sightings" unexplained.) The object was slightly more reddish than the moon. It made several rotations in the direction of the ~~northwest~~ at 2,000 meters altitude, then ~~descended~~, ascended once more and disappeared to the north. Besides YOSHINARI there are five eye witnesses to the sighting. Doctor Seishi MIYAJI, Chief of the Tokyo Astronomical Observatory, is quoted as saying: "The fact that observers noticed this flying body is an undeniable fact. But, it should not be immediately considered a flying saucer. It is necessary to further study this celestial body. Careful observation is needed since aircraft and balloons are often mistaken for other objects."

COMMENTS OF THE PREPARING OFFICER:

8. All information pertaining to meteors is forwarded to the Meteor Section of the Oriental Astronomical Society (TOA TEMMON GAKKAI) at Kanaya, Arita-Gun, Wakayama-Ken. This society publishes a monthly magazine on meteors, stars, etc., and the data includes sightings by amateur and professional astronomers in Japan. The published data is usually two months old. The UFOB Research Group (UFOB KENKYU GRUPO HONBU), Box 3, Isogo Post Office, Yokohama, specializes in flying saucers and unidentified objects. A report on this group is published monthly in the World's Aircraft magazine.

9. The YOMIURI SHIMBUN is a conservative, slightly rightist, publication which employs sensationalism and is written primarily to appeal to the populace. Its editorial policy is governed by opportunism but is basically pro-American and advocates rearmament.

10. With reference to Paragraph 7d, (10), AFR 200-2 (Analysis of air traffic), due to the presence of fifteen (15) active military and civil airfields in the immediate (fifty mile) area the fulfillment of this requirement was waived because it would be exhaustively time consuming.

at approximately 1950 hrs on 7 Nov 1950 while acting as Base OD it was called to base headquarters by the base C.O. He called my attention to this light in the sky. It looked very much like a bright star. The C.O. reported that it had been moving. We watched for approximately ten minutes and it did not appear to move. Then, it seemed to become lower almost reaching the level of the top of the barracks. I went to locate a pair of field glasses and upon returning the object had disappeared.

39. Do you think you can estimate the speed of the object:
