To whom it may concern:

On July 25, 1961 at approximately 3:30PM I was reclining on my chaise longue when, I noticed in the sky, what appeared to be a "sky writer." I then exclaimed to my neighbors who were sitting with me, "Look at the sky writer." With that the object was of course closer to us and we noticed it was not a sky writer at all. Upon closer observation it was very much like looking at the sun. It was so golden bright in color, with a fire like exhaust which appeared to be longer than our jetstreams. This object had no wings. Its profile was much like a shark.

I then called the attention to my other neighbors who were also sitting in their yards. They all agreed it did not appear to be an airplane. Now I am curious to know what could this object have been? There were eight of us who saw this object in the sky. It came from the approximate direction of New Brunswick, New Jersey to Newark, New Jersey. It took about ten minutes for this object to get across the sky.

Could you please enlighten me as to what this object could be? Thanking you for your cooperation in this matter, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
