37. Was this the first time that you had seen an object or objects like this?

(Circle One) Yes No

37.1 IF you answered NO, then when, where, and under what circumstances did you see other ones?

This was the first time, but on the night of Sept. 3 or 4 I and my son, Dave, and a 13 year old friend saw the same or a similar object before and after which remained in view more than 20 min. Perhaps 25

38. In your opinion what do you think the object was and what might have caused it?

Since reporting
the first passage of the object and observing more closely the second passage, I can only believe that it was self illuminated. Since on the last night sighted it was kept in view until it was in the low horizon in the south-southwest, about 10° elevation. Since it passed beyond was more or less silent and still it could not have been an ordinary plane, hence no motor noise occurred.

39. Do you think you can estimate the speed of the object?

IF you answered YES, then what speed would you estimate? much slower than a high flying jet and a lower flying prop plane

Most of the pertinent information has been supplied in my letter of Aug. 31 and the questionnaire. Knowing that our eyes sometimes play tricks and that I could have been mistaken about the erratic behavior of the object I rested my face in my hands with my elbows firm upon my knees and watched closely the second passage of the object and its up and down start and stop (or non stop) & again was unmistakably observed, when observed against a background of stars and using particular ones closest to the object as a stationary point of comparison. When in proximity of one particular star its movement slowed down & it rose slowly returning to about its former elevation and seemed to progress forward with a sudden burst of speed only to repeat these performances again and again. I have watched this many times and sometimes seemed to see slight irregular movements. But always I could trace this to slight movements of my head, body or eyes. However, I am satisfied beyond any doubt that this is not so in the movement of the object of which I am reporting. On the second night of its passage my son and his friend called its irregular movements as I saw them a fraction of a second before they spoke.

I have no well founded opinion of what the object or objects may have been and if your department cannot give an opinion I would still appreciate your informing me as to whether or not a similar apparition has been reported.

Sincerely,

~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

Headquarters, United States Air Force
Division: Unidentified Flying Objects

Gentlemen:

This may be a waste of time, nevertheless, I shall report what I have seen with the hopes that I may find a logical explanation.

Last evening, August 30, at a few minutes until nine o'clock P.M. I saw an orange light of about the intensity of the star, Polaris, almost due west of here at an elevation of twenty degrees above the horizon. Since I was on the look out for the passing of our satellite, Echo, I naturally observed whether or not I could detect any movement. There was, and I called my son who had left the room to check the time by the clock in my bedroom. Together we watched this light for a period of ten minutes or more follow a generally straight course, reaching an elevation of about thirty-five degrees in the southwest and fading out about due south thirty degrees above the horizon. Altogether it was in my view about twelve minutes by the clock. Its light was steady and its movements were interrupted by up and down gyrations, fast and slow forward progress, punctuated by stops or near stops as if it were a balloon tossed about by turbulent air currents. I could pass it off as a balloon if it had been earlier in the evening, but at that time of night approximately 8:58 to 9:11, it would have to have been an extremely high flying balloon to capture the light of the sun. Its irregular movements rule out the possibility of its being a plane, besides no motor noise was heard and the light was steady and of an orange glow. Its fading out at an elevation of thirty degrees does indicate that it passed into the earth's shadow. It was not Echo for its course was approximately at right angles to Echo's, and Echo has no noticeable variations of movement.

Your explanation will be appreciated by me, and I hope that this report may serve in some way to clear up the "alleged" mysteries of unidentified objects in the skies.

Sincerely yours,
[REDACTED]
