My dear [Redacted]

This is to acknowledge with thanks your letter of 10 August 1962, reporting the unidentified celestial object you sighted on 29 July 1962.

We regret that we have been unable to determine the identity of the object, but have forwarded your report to the National Aeronautics and Space Agency, which is in the best position to furnish the information you seek.

We appreciate the effort and interest you have shown in our marine reporting program and look forward to the continued receipt of such navigational information as may come to your attention during future voyages.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM G. WATT
Director
Maritime Safety Division
By direction of the Commander

To The United States Navy Hydrographic Office,
Washington 25, D.C.

The first Officer Sverre Nygård of the Norwegian M.s. "Ferntgate"
Captain Ø. Nilsen, will hereby report the following:

At 2118 G.M.T. July 29, 1962, in lat. 31 06 N., long. 32 18 22 E., something that looked like a Satellite or a bright star was observed in the vicinity of Regulus, in a bearing 235.

The Satellit-like object traveled in a Eastward direction toward Vega and down to the horizon.

The object was visible about 7 minutes. Weather clear, Wind N.W.
force 3, barometer 1006 mb, air temperature +26 Celsius.

I am also interested to know what this could have been.

With thanks for further information regarding this phenomenon.

I sign.

Yours faithfully.
