REMARKS The following, extracted from Capt Cross' OD Report dtd 22 Apr 63, is quoted for your info: UFO Report - Received a call from a Maj L.R. Burkett of Robins AFB, Georgia stating that he had received word (fourth hand) that a Mr. [REDACTED] of Makin had observed a bluish light southwest of Makin bobbing up and down. Since Mr. [REDACTED] was not available, further contact with him would be attempted in the morning. There was no weather in the vicinity of Makin in the evening. Lt L. E. Penhag

April, 1963.

Sgt Moody called Robbins AFB. Local investigation revealed that there were no other witnesses. Sighting was South of Robbins. Witness has reported objects previously and is considered probably a "crank". If object was sighted it was probably an A/C or misinterpretation of some conventional object. This information obtained from Sgt Maresch.
