COMMENTS Unidentified. Pending further consideration duration not included. 5/25/64. Review indicates that a flare dropped from some a/c is a logical cause of the case as presented by the witness. Relative to Q. 5 - How long was object in sight?

The next day I estimated the seconds by the second hand of my bedroom clock; re-enacting my motions on getting up, going straight to the bathroom window, in seeing a bright yellow light between Venetian slats I raised the Venetian blind, returned to get my eye glasses on bedside stand, and returned to find that the object had descended and changed in appearance to a perfect dull yellow circle and then travelled further down when I noticed a perfect bright deep yellow crescent added to the bottom of the circle or disk.

* * * * *

At about 2:29 A.M. I awakened with a vibrating sensation in my ears. I waited for a few seconds and for an inexplicable reason I was drawn to the bathroom window which is close to my bedroom on the second floor and faces directly East. The bright yellow light with rays of light shooting out in all directions appeared to be at the very edge of the left-hand corner of the roof of the house behind this house, which is 193 Davis Ave. The object changed to a perfect disk but duller in color, but still bright enough that I assumed it was in front of all the branches of the trees instead of behind them. I really thought it was going to drop on Prescott Ave. it was so clear and bright. I cannot understand why the branches didn't show up on the object. I'm sure if the moon was seen travelling behind branches of trees one would see the branches in front of the moon. The disk in dropping further had a bright deep yellow crescent appear at the bottom, I would say more an orange. Then at this point it was heading further down ^{behind} dense branches and houses.

The sky was very dark at the time, I would say black, no moon or stars. The next morning I determined the diameter of the disk by using a half-inch button at arm's length up to the vicinity where I saw this object, and came to the conclusion that half-inch button would cover the object. It was travelling lower than the UFO I sighted in 1952. The crescent at the bottom of the object I'm reporting today makes me believe that it might have been two spheres attached as the two spheres I reported sighting in 1952, only entirely different. The twin-object I sighted in 1952 was immense and like brilliant crystal. You have a full record of it with a diagram of its course.

Dear Mr. Hynek:

Your letter of 5 November is much appreciated and the more so since I had concluded that my report had probably gone into the same bin with all the other odd-ball sightings! There is no object, but it occurs to me that if you write as carefully to everyone as you have to me there is little wonder you run several months behind.

I have had to refer to my original notes to renew my impressions of last December in order to answer your inquiry about a possible airplane with landing lights. The local airport has no regularly scheduled service; it does have a moderate amount of activity in private planes and irregular visitors, but the only helicopter in the area is owned by a local doctor. I called the office to ask about helicopter and didn't ask directly about aircraft of any other kind. No such information was offered. As for position, the airport is about two miles east of my house. The object was hardly visible directly for it at the time of the sighting, but might have been too far removed.

The features that made me rule out conventional aircraft at the time (and that I didn't even ask the airport people) were these: (1) the length of the apparent stationary period was long enough to require an extraordinary degree of alignment, and I noticed a change in brightness that I suggest its continuous approach; (2) there was no sign of colored running lights or a light such as one usually used; (3) if it made a right-angled turn the landing light would hardly be visible at all; (4) the bright flash I saw is hardly to be explained in any manner.

I think I agree that this is the most probable source among obvious objects, but I could not make it fit what I saw. As for a balloon I never heard of one at the airport, and the wind is almost never from the east. However the problem of reflection too, as described in my memo. Do balloons ever self-lighted? I didn't know it, but in any case the motion rules out a local source. -- Just for my own curiosity, I hope you'll let me know how you finally filed the thing!

Cordially yours,

Attention: AFOTI-ATTN-5

Gentlemen:

Over eleven years ago, I reported to you on July 29, 1952
a unidentified object which I observed July 17, 1952.
When your investigator came to question me about it, in leaving, he said; "If you should see anything let us know".
In reply, I said; "I never expect to see another". However,
I have learnt one should never say "never".

On December 10, 1963 at 2:30 AM I awakened with a vibrating sensation in my ears. I waited a few seconds and went to the bathroom window which faces directly East and saw a very bright light, yellow in color with sharp rays of light shooting out in all directions. It appeared to be at the very edge of the left hand corner of the roof of the house behind here, 193 Davis Avenue. I immediately returned to my room to get my eye glasses, which took only a couple of seconds and found the object had moved to the left of the house and had changed in appearance to a dull yellow perfect disk, traveling downward and changing again, the same dull yellow disk with a bright yellow crescent added to the bottom of it and disappeared behind the hill.

The sky was very dark at the time, no moon or stars. Later in the morning I determined the diameter of the disk by using a half inch button, and holding the button at arm's length up to the vicinity where I saw this disk, I came to the conclusion that a half inch button would cover it. As to how far away it was I have no way of knowing. However, I do know it was traveling lower than the twin object I sighted in 1952.

Below is a sketch of what I observed.

Very truly yours,

Label and include in your sketch any details of the object that you saw such as wings, protrusions, etc., and especially exhaust trails or vapor trails. Place an arrow beside the drawing to show the direction the object was moving.

No smoke and no exhaust trails or vapor trails

Place a "B" on the same curved line to show how high the object was above the horizon (skyline) when you last saw it. Place an "A" on the compass when you first saw it. Place a "B" on the compass where you last saw the object.

Re: question 27 - I am unable to determine what would be considered 0° - as I observed this UFO from my bathroom window on the second floor facing directly East, and furthermore, [redacted] is on much lower ground than [redacted]. The UFO was so bright the branches, which evidently were in front of the object, were not discernible. "A" was very bright yellow with sharp rays of light shooting out in all directions. "B" The object dimmed + took the shape of a perfect dull yellow circle and "C" the object was the same as "B" but with a crescent of
