We had a meteor over Taylor N.D. in about 1917 or 18
It lit up the whole country side bright as day. There was a very loud roar. It was in the evening about 10-11. We had just gone to bed so didn't see the meteor itself. Scientists dug it out somewhere south of Gladstone, N.D. Many people saw that & it was written up in the papers. I don't know if this would be pertinent to what I saw Feb 5.

I had just been to the bathroom and before I went back to bed I walked over to the clock. It was 3 A.M. I got in to bed and sat up close to the window to see if I could see any stars. I saw just one. - It had been very cloudy when I went to bed at 10:30, but was clear later with a very few light clouds. I didn't see the moon. In the east the horizon was a dark gray strip. Then this thing appeared. It was such a surprise that all I could do was look.

The thing itself was light but it didn't shed any light. The vicinity of the thing was no lighter than the rest of the sky. The ball part had no highlights, but the rays were like sun was shining on them. There was a dark rim of some kind on the front of the ball, but I didn't have time to look back on it. It was going from N.N.E. to S.S.W. I got up and looked at the clock after it had passed and it was 3:05. I never thought of paying attention to all the things you asked about. I just was happy I had seen it. It looked so clear and so close I thought it would drop near the airport, or closer. I heard no sound.

I hope this will help you.

Sincerely

J. [REDACTED]

Mrs Frank McCann called. Her mother wrote from Wisconsin, stating that on Feb 5th at 3 am in Janesville, Wisconsin, she saw an object. It was beautiful and surprising, described as a blue ball, it went across the sky, had gold rays, was long and oval shape, it was low in elevation as though it was going to land. Its flight was East to West, she was looking South. She called WCTS radio and TV. The speed was about ECHO's. She has also observed meteors. Her mother's address is Mrs Floyd C Parks, 416 Locust St, Janesville, Wisconsin.

Feb 27, 1965.

I answered your form the 24th There was a question, Did I see smoke or steam. I did not. But there was an air movement. I don't know exactly how to explain it. But if you have ever seen the way heat waves boil up on the prairie on a hot summer day with the sun pouring down that is the way the air was moving at the tail of the thing. It was clear, but looked as if the air was thickened, or whatever. There was no smoke, tho, or steam like from a jet.

Yesterday I was lying down (same place) when a plane flew by ~~on~~ almost the same route but a little higher. The plane was the size of a big mosquito compared to a bumble-bee which would be the size of the thing. The plane was going towards the airport.

Sincerely,
