This object was discovered by [redacted] [redacted] when they [redacted] the end of a [redacted] line (Somewhat like fishing line and about as thick as a [redacted] match). They proceeded to follow this line, while winding it around a stick, when they found it attached to the [redacted] shaped object. When they tried to pull it to earth the line broke, but the object did not change position. This suggested the possibility of other moving lines, but none were found. The Dep. Sheriff making this report stayed at the location until almost dark and then had to leave — [redacted] Sullivan was notified of the above incident.
