4. NUMBER OF OBJECTS See Case
5. LENGTH OF OBSERVATION 14 Minutes	11. BRIEF SUMMARY AND ANALYSIS Observer first sighted something that looked like meteors but didn't burn out. The observer then sighted a pale yellow light that was about 3/4 the size of the moon. The object was losing altitude when first seen but then it gained altitude and disappeared to the SW.
6. TYPE OF OBSERVATION Ground-Visual
7. COURSE See Case	COMMENTS: The objects that looked like meteors were identified as part of an Athena that impacted at White Sands. A temperature inversion existed at 18,000 ft. The second object could have been either an aircraft with its landing lights on. (There are several airfields in the area) or possible a Hot Air Balloon. The wind was blowing toward the south at 3 knots.

MEMO FOR THE RECORD

21 Sept. 1967

Called SSgt O'Donnell at Cannon AFB , New Mexico. Asked him to call both Melrose AF Range and White Sands and find out if any missile activity at the time of the sighting. We are particularly interested in cloud releases. Sgt. said he would call back as soon as he found out info.

MEMO FOR THE RECORD

21 Sept. 1967

Sgt O'Donnell called
No missile activity at all from Melrose.

White Sands had two re-entry vehicles

1st 0705Z 25 Aug.

2nd 0535Z 25 Aug.

(They had one rocket launch that morning but it was not an orbital shot of any kind.)

Sgt. O'Donnell said the civilian at White Sands said that while they were watching for the re-entry vehicles that they were distracted by a bright white light (in a different section of the sky than that expected for the missiles) that came quite near the earth. Sgt. O'Donnell said that they had no idea what the light was caused by.

Subj: UFO Observation, 25 August 1967

It Marano spoke with Navy Commander McBurney regarding the unidentified observation of 25 August 1967. A couple of us were watching what was flying around. I didn't call in the range surveillance because at about that time the Athena came in and it came in over the range and it completely slipped my mind about the UFO. It couldn't have been observed for over 45 seconds, it was more or less stationary. I would estimate the object to be 25 or 40 miles from where I was sitting. I personally thought it was an airplane. The airspace was cleared for the Athena but, at times planes do get in. We had five aircraft in the area at about 40,000 ft altitude. The athena came fro very high and fell from that distance then appeared to fall very slow, a very bright light. Since there are mountains in the background I doubt that surveillance radar could have picked it up, they don't do a very good job. The second stage of the Athena looked like a meteor, red in color. the second stage was ninety seconds behind the third stage. The third stage sparked because it still had fuel burning.

Ceiling and visibility: Clear 15 miles. No cloud cover or thunder storms in area. Temperature gradient was 118° degrees (normal)

h. Any unusual activity or conditions: At approximately 18,000 feet there was a temperature inversion of approximately 2 degrees.

i. Interception or Identification Action: None

j. Local air traffic conditions: None in the area at time of sighting.

k. Report prepared by: James O'Donnell, SSgt, Intelligence Specialist, 27th DCI, Cannon AFB, New Mexico. Duty extension 2639 or 2643. Home phone: 762-0344.

Due to the information available to the investigator, it is not possible to determine the cause of this sighting. Investigator does believe that the reflection of lights off the temperature inversion which existed at 18,000 feet in the area of the sighting may be responsible, at least in part for the report.
