Ramey Home Residents Sight 'Objects In Sky'

The second sighting of "objects in the sky" was reported Monday night — this time by Miss Gertrude Ramey, founder and superintendent of the Ramey Children's Home, and about 14 of the home's residents.

The "thing," described as silver in color and much bigger than a star, appeared first over the home and from it later came about 11 other smaller objects.

Miss Minel Effingham, a student at Ashland Community College, said she and the other youngsters — all high school college age — watched the unidentified flying objects from about 8:30 until nearly 10 p. m.

Miss Ramey said the bitter cold kept her inside most of the time but she did make several trips outdoors to watch the objects. Jokingly, this morning she said, "If 'they' land and want to be taken to our leader, I'm going to send them to The Independent to see Bob McCullough." (McCullough is editor of The Independent and on the Ramey Home board of directors.)

Miss Effingham, who said she had "never seen anything like it," said the large object would get red, dim, disappear and then reappear. The 11 smaller objects stayed silvery in color and in formations of about three to a group and would disappear when the large one did.

The children have a large telescope on a tripod and used it last night but the only thing it would pick up was white flashes of light, she said.

The ACC sophomore said she "stood there with my mouth open" as the objects would hover, move off and return. "There was no motor sound and they travelled extremely

Miss Effingham said the formations didn't take off but just dimmed and disappeared. "There may be some explanation, but I don't quite understand it," she said, adding that there was not much sleep last night for the youngsters who saw the phenomena.

Several miles from the Ramey Home, and about the same time the children were watching the sky, Ashland Patrolmen Roger Gussler and Clyde Trimble were stationed at the ranger tower with high-powered binoculars.

Gussler, who reported seeing objects in the east-southeast skies Sunday night, said he and Trimble did not see anything except several "shooting stars and airplanes" during their 2½-hour vigil.

The patrolman said "the view is beautiful, you can see all around," but none of the objects he watched for nearly three hours Sunday night were seen. The tower is located off Rt. 533 which joins the entrance to I-64 and he and Trimble called it off about 10 p. m., he said.

if I can, I have a high Power telescope

My Friend and I was in my yard the night of Nov. 28 as we sighted a UFO ~~that~~ Flying North from the town of Ashland Ky. (where we live) toward a small town called Summit. We watched it till it went out of sight with a pair of Binoculars and telescope.
and in a few minutes (8:25 PM) We saw it come back with a small craft behind it. they were a flat round aircraft a goldish color. We were not the only one who sighted them as you can see in the article
I have enclosed. If we had infrared film we could have took films of them. I would advise you to set up a station to look for UFO's because ~~there~~ always there is a UFO flying over this town.
~~seems like this is a main cross road for them.~~

Re: TLPT (UFO)

Dear Sir:

Reference your inquiry dated January 2, 1968 concerning any information this department might have regarding an additional reports and etc. relative to the UFO being seen on the same night.

The enclosed newspaper clippings contain about the same type of reports this department received on that particular night.

For your information, this department has not received any other reports since that time concerning people who have seen anything of this nature in our area.

Hoping this will be of assistance to you in your investigation, I remain

Very truly yours,

Police Officer Sees Flying Saucers

Police officers in Ashland have for years been receiving calls about unidentified flying objects. Now, one of the police officers has reported seeing them.

A previously skeptical Patrolman Roger Gussler, who "never looked for flying saucers before," told his co-workers this morning that he watched four or five for nearly three hours Sunday night.

"And I wasn't 'just seeing things,'" the patrolman declared. "It was so strikingly obvious, I'm surprised you haven't had telephone calls galore."

Gussler, who resides at 4357 Gartin Ave., said the objects were generally in an easterly to southeasterly direction, not clustered, but in the same general area.

"All I could see at first," he said, "were red blinking lights, but they were going on and off slower than an aircraft warning light."

Having held a private pilot's license, Gussler has had experience in flying conventional aircraft.

He estimated the objects at an altitude of 15,000-20,000 feet, and noted that periodic movements, some of them in an upward direction of 2,000-4,000 feet, were exceedingly fast. "He sure turned it on."

Gussler added, "Then he'd stop so abruptly that a human being couldn't have been inside. It would have killed him."

He noted that he and three other police officers will equip themselves with high-powered binoculars and stand watch tonight at the ranger tower, just in case any others turn up.

Ramey Home Residents Sight 'Objects In Sky'

The second sighting of "objects in the sky" was reported Monday night — this time by Miss Gertrude Ramey, founder and superintendent of the Ramey Children's Home, and about 14 of the home's residents.

Miss Effingham, who said she had "never seen anything like it," said the large object would get red, dim, disappear and then reappear. The 11 smaller objects stayed silvery in color and in formations of about three to a group and would disappear when the large one did.

Police Officer Sees Flying Saucers

Police officers in Ashland have for years been receiving calls about unidentified flying objects. Now, one of the police officers has reported seeing them.

A previously skeptical Patrolman Roger Gussler, who "never looked for flying saucers before," told his co-workers this morning that he watched four or five for nearly three hours Sunday night.

"And I wasn't 'just seeing things'," the patrolman declared. "It was so strikingly obvious, I'm surprised you haven't had telephone calls galore."

Gussler, who resides at 4357 Gartin Ave., said the objects were generally in an easterly to southeasterly direction, not clustered, but in the same general area.

"All I could see at first," he said, "were red blinking lights, but they were going on and off slower than an aircraft warning light."

Having held a private pilot's license, Gussler has had experience in flying conventional aircraft.

He estimated the objects at an altitude of 15,000-20,000 feet, and noted that periodic movements, some of them in an upward direction of 3,000-4,000 feet, were exceedingly fast. "He sure turned it on."

He noted that he and three other police officers will equip themselves with high-powered binoculars and stand watch tonight at the ranger tower, just in case any others turn up.

Ramey Home Residents Sight 'Objects In Sky'

The second sighting of "objects in the sky" was reported Monday night — this time by Miss Gertrude Ramey, founder and superintendent of the Ramey Children's Home, and about 14 of the home's residents.

The "thing," described as silver in color and much bigger than a star, appeared first over the home and from it later came about 11 other smaller objects.

Miss Minel Effingham, a student at Ashland Community College, said she and the other youngsters — all high school college age — watched the unidentified flying objects from about 8:30 until nearly 10 p. m.

Miss Ramey said the bitter cold kept her inside most of the time but she did make several trips outdoors to watch the objects. Jokingly, this morning she said, "If 'they' land and want to be taken to our leader, I'm going to send them to The Independent to see Bob McCullough." (McCullough is editor of The Independent and on the Ramey Home board of directors.)

Miss Effingham, who said she had "never seen anything like it," said the large object would get red, dim, disappear and then reappear. The 11 smaller objects stayed silvery in color and in formations of about three to a group and would disappear when the large one did.

The children have a large telescope on a tripod and used it last night but the only thing it would pick up was white flashes of light, she said.

The ACC sophomore said she "stood there with my mouth open" as the objects would hover, move off and return. "There was no motor sound and they travelled extremely fast." (Continued on Page 12, Column 5.)

fast. Miss Effingham said the formations didn't take off but just dimmed and disappeared. "There may be some explanation, but I don't quite understand it," she said, adding that there was not much sleep last night for the youngsters who saw the phenomena.

Several miles from the Ramey Home, and about the same time the children were watching the sky, Ashland Patrolmen Roger Gussler and Clyde Trimble were stationed at the ranger tower with high-powered binoculars.

Gussler, who reported seeing objects in the east-southeast skies Sunday night, said he and Trimble did not see anything except several "shooting stars and airplanes" during their 2½-hour vigil.

The patrolman said "the view is beautiful, you can see all around," but none of the objects he watched for nearly three hours Sunday night were seen. The tower is located off Rt. 538 which joins the entrance to I-64 and he and Trimble called it off about 10 p. m., he said.

Additional Sightings Of UFOs Reported Today

Additional sightings of "unidentified flying objects" — scattered but about the same time — were reported today to The Independent and the Police Department.

Mrs. Donald Hand of 624 Wheeler St., Flatwoods, said she happened to look out her bedroom window about 11:30 last night and her eyes were attracted to three objects which she first thought were stars.

Looking toward the east, Mrs. Hand said she watched as the objects seemed to move in a pattern . . . "back and forth and up and down. The one in the center had red and green lights but the other two objects remained a silver color and blinked."

All of the objects were blinking but they "went so fast I thought my eyes were playing tricks on me," she said. After watching for about an hour, she retired and "had no trouble sleeping."

Mrs. Hand said she mentioned the incident this morning to her son, Stephen, 11, and was told that he had seen objects earlier in the night but hadn't mentioned them until his mother did.

The mother had taken her son to the doctor last night and had left him in the car after they returned while she went into a neighbor's home to get her daughter about 9:30. Stephen told his mother this morning that it was while he was waiting in the car for her that he had seen the objects in the sky which he described as similar to those she later saw.

Another sighting was reported this morning by Mrs. Helen Justice of 3205 Hackworth St., whose son, Bobby, 22, told her of seeing an object at 10:30 last night.

The son, who lives at 2236 Griffith St., was driving home from his parents' house and noticed an object at the top of his windshield as he passed Moore Street. He said the "round, blue-white object" was hovering low ahead of him and he followed it to 29th and Main Streets where it "just disappeared."

Mrs. Justice quoted her son as saying he first thought the object was a reflection from a car or other light. "It made no sound," he said.

The Police Department reported receiving a couple of calls in the early hours last night from the South Ashland area.

Miss Gertrude Ramey, founder and superintendent of the Ramey Children's Home, said this morning that the children were out watching again last night and were joined from about 8 until 10 by Patrolman Roger Gussler, who reported the first sighting Sunday night. She said she did not join the children because of the cold weather.

Monday night, 14 of the home's residents — high school and college age — reported seeing a large object and 11 smaller ones in the night sky.

Subject: UFO Observation, 28 November 1967

Dear Sir:

In checking the airport records, we find that Allegheny Flight 519 arrived 8:32 p.m., November 28th and departed shortly thereafter. It was a Convair 580 with red and white strobe lights and as you know the Convair 580 makes very little noise.

Several weeks ago we had the same request from persons along the Ohio Valley, Northeast of the airport and from investigating the area we found that it was in the flight pattern of Allegheny flights.

If we can be of any other assistance please feel free to request.

Very truly yours,

A. O. Cappadony
