BACKGROUND - PQS 2747H, 2748H, 2753H, 2757H

1. Mr Ieuan Wyn Jones MP has tabled four PQs on 'UFO'-related issues.
2. Since March 1996 the MP has written three times, either forwarding correspondence, or on behalf of, a constituent, Dr Section 40, who is a member of a local group of 'UFO' enthusiasts calling themselves the "Wales Federation of Independent Ufologists". Section 40, regularly writes direct to Sec(AS) and recently sought the Department's endorsement of his recommendation to the Royal Society of Chemistry that they should establish a scientific division to investigate 'Anomalous Aerial Phenomena'. Section 40 is, apparently, a Research and Development Chemist for a local Chemical company. As the PQs mirror the content of the Parliamentary Enquiries arising from Section 40, it is likely they have been tabled as a result of his contacts with the MP.
3. PQ 2753H - In an answer given to a question tabled by Martin Redmond MP in October (Official Report attached at Annex A), the Prime Minister made it clear that he has no plans to allocate resources to researching extraterrestrial phenomena. The answer given to this PQ maintains the previous line.
4. PQ 2747H - Mr Jones is aware of the Department's policy on reports of 'UFO' sightings, most recently set out in a letter to him from USofS dated 9 Oct 96 (copy attached at Annex B, Tab A). There are no plans to alter that policy and we believe a more substantive answer is not required.
5. PQ 2748H - Mr Jones wrote to Ministers in October about the 16th October 1990 sighting which allegedly occurred near Wylfa Power Station on Anglesey. A copy of his letter is at Annex B, Tab B. There were two Wessex squadrons operating at RAF Valley in 1990, 22 Sqn and the Search and Rescue Training Unit (SARTU). At 1930 hrs on the evening in question, records show that 22 Sqn were not operating. SARTU records no longer exist but, because of the nature of their task, it would have been highly unlikely that any of their helicopters would have been airborne. However, the area in question is a SARTU training area and without records it is simply not possible to determine whether a helicopter might have been in the area at that time. It certainly would not have been 'scrambled' for interception purposes. From surviving local records there is no evidence to support the claim of an alleged incident and, as such, that any assessment was every made by the Department. The PQ answer therefore reflects this position.

6. PQ 2757H - Although specific dates have not been given in the PQ, the Station Commander at RAF Valley received a letter (Annex C, Tab A) from the MP about a report of a 'UFO' sighting on 4 Nov 95. USofS replied (Annex C, Tab B) that there was no evidence to support a sighting of air defence interest. There has been no previous interest by the MP in an alleged sighting for Sep 95. The air defence staffs have confirmed that no Quick Reaction Alert aircraft were scrambled for practice or real operations on the West Coast during September or November 1995, although QRA aircraft were scrambled for no-notice missile firing at Aberporth Range on 7 Sep 95 and 22 Nov 95 respectively. Without precise dates from the MP it is simply not possible to provide a more detailed answer to his question.

Sir,

The below person who is a retired police constable has reported that he observed an unidentified flying object pass over his house, (which is an end terrace in a good class area) twice at 7.25pm on Saturday 30th November 1996.

Section 40

Section 40

was sober at the time, not on medication and is of sound mind and body, or appeared so.

The first sighting was of 8-10 seconds. The second sighting 5 minutes later was of a similar time span. The object was oval or spherical in shape, very large in size, much bigger than an aeroplane, hovering low in the sky with bright light shimmering all around it.

Section 40

viewed this with his naked eye whilst stood stationary outside in his rear garden facing South. The object some 4-5 miles away at first was steady then with great speed passed from his right to his

C.F.O.

He went inside but was so amazed at what he saw a few minutes later went back into his rear garden. Again he saw this massive oval shimmering light in the position which he first saw it. Again it passed over him at great speed and then simply disappeared.

At the time of the incident it was dark, cloudy and calm. There are no objects of interest, Cathedrals etc, in the area. [Section 40] has no unusual habits or mannerisms.

I submit this report for your attention and any action deemed necessary.

BACKGROUND TO PQ2352H

1. Since the House returned from the summer recess this brings the total of Martin Redmond PQs on 'UFO'-related issues to 33.
2. The subject of the "Belgium 'UFO' sightings" of 30/31 March 1990 is well documented due in large-measure to the correspondence of a Section 40 who has, we believe, written at least one book about this alleged incident. Through his MP, Sir Keith Speed, Section 40 has to date been responsible for five Parliamentary Enquiries (the latest as recently as the beginning of this month and for which we will be providing a draft reply for USofS' signature shortly). A summary of the Department's previous exchanges with Section 40 (which also details the background to the Belgian sightings) was provided to USofS in September last year (D/Sec(AS)/64/1 dated 15 Sep 95 a copy of which is attached at Annex A).
3. The "Belgium 'UFO' sightings" were also mentioned in a book about the 'UFO' phenomenon, "Open Skies, Closed Minds" published in May of this year by a serving MOD civil servant, Mr Nick Pope, a former member of Sec(AS) staff. We suspect that this is the most likely source of the question given Mr Redmond's other questions on 'UFO'-related issues.
4. Attached at Annex B is a letter from the Chief of Belgian Armed Forces Public Affairs from Feb 94 which confirms that the Belgian authorities did not notify adjacent countries about the sightings at the time because they occurred in the central part of Belgium and no threat was perceived in connection with what was seen. There was no evidence of any sightings or radar contacts occurring within the expected coverage of the UK's air defence system. As the incident occurred outside the UK Air Defence Region none would have been expected and from that it must be assumed that no RAF aircraft were scrambled to investigate the sightings.
5. In summary the issue remains a matter for the Belgian authorities.

11|To ask the Secretary of State for Defence, if he will make a statement on the circumstances of the two occasions referred to in his Answer of 24th July, Official Report, column 424, when RAF aircraft were scrambled or diverted from task to investigate uncorrelated radar targets; if the objects were identified; if it was judged that breaches of United Kingdom airspace had occurred; and if he will list all similar incidents which have occurred since 1979. [2932]

MR SOAMES: The targets were identified as Russian maritime patrol aircraft and were in the northern portion of the UK Air Defence Region. They did not penetrate UK airspace. Information covering the period from 1979 is not held in a readily available form and could only be provided at disproportionate cost and effort.

BACKGROUND - PQ 2338H

1. This PQ is one of five which have been tabled by Martin Redmond for answer this week, on 'UFO'-related issues. Since the House returned from the summer recess this brings the total of Martin Redmond PQs on 'UFO'-related issues to 33.
2. A copy of the answer given to the previous question (24 July) is attached at Annex A. The incidents giving rise to the uncorrelated radar tracks mentioned in that answer occurred on 2 Aug and 6 Sep 91. The radar tracks were subsequently identified by interception as Russian maritime patrol aircraft which had penetrated the UK Air Defence Region and which were thought to have been monitoring Exercise Northern Star, a NATO maritime exercise taking place at the time.
3. The question asks for details of similar incidents from 1979 onwards. Central file records only exist for the last five years. It might be possible to obtain some information for the period from 1979 by initiating a trawl of local records (Forms 540) held by RAF stations with air defence responsibilities. Forms 540 are raised by all RAF stations for historical purposes to record noteworthy events of significance to the station, but not specifically those of an operational nature. It would involve a manual search by each station for the 17 year period since the records are not held in a readily available form. The answer to the last part of the MP's question could not therefore be provided without disproportionate cost and effort and the reply reflects this line.

DEFENCE

Plutonium

Mr. Llew Smith: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence if the United States Government have since 1966 requested the United Kingdom to provide reactor grade plutonium for the purpose of conducting a nuclear test explosion under the provisions of the US-UK mutual defence agreement on atomic energy co-operation. [38500]

Mr. Arbuthnot: No such requests have been made by the United States.

Small Businesses

Mr. David Shaw: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence if he will make a statement on the impact of (a) his policies and (b) the work of his Department in helping small businesses in the last 12 months as against the previous 12 months; and if he will publish the performance indicators by which his Department monitors the impact and the statistical results of such monitoring. [39141]

Mr. Arbuthnot: The Government recognise the crucial role played by small firms in the UK economy and aim to help them by providing sound economic conditions—keeping inflation and interest rates low; reducing legislative administrative and taxation burdens; and where appropriate provide direct assistance in the form of specialist advice and support and easing access to finance.

My Department supports the DTI's small business measures and initiatives. I am the Minister within this Department for small businesses and I attend or am represented at the DTI's regular meetings.

The Defence Suppliers Service assists companies, including small businesses, in making contact with appropriate contracts branches. It also arranges for details of many forthcoming tenders to be published in the fortnightly MOD Contracts Bulletin which is available to any interested party on subscription. This enables small businesses either to seek to tender directly for specific requirements or, more commonly, to become sub-contractors to larger companies.

Since the Procurement Executive of the Ministry of Defence moved to the new procurement headquarters at Abbey Wood near Bristol earlier this year, the Defence Suppliers Service is in contact with the Bristol chamber of commerce and DTI's business links, whose South-west regional supply network office has become their national focal point for the defence industry. Other areas of the country can reach my Department, and be reached by us, through the business links network.

As much of the assistance provided by my Department to small businesses tends to be in the sub-contractor sector, it is not possible to establish suitable performance parameters and therefore no statistics are available.

Rendlesham Forest (Incident)

Mr. Redmond: To ask the Secretary of State for relating to events in Rendlesham forest in December 1980; what interviews were held; and if he will make a statement; [39247]

(2) who assessed that the events around RAF Woodbridge and RAF Bentwaters in December 1980, which were reported to his Department by Lieutenant Colonel Charles Halt were of no defence significance; on what evidence the assessment was made; what analysis of events was carried out; and if he will make a statement. [39249]

Mr. Soames: The report was assessed by the staff in my Department responsible for air defence matters. Since the judgment was that it contained nothing of defence significance no further action was taken.

Uncorrelated Radar Tracks (Investigations)

Mr. Redmond: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence on how many occasions RAF aircraft have been (a) scrambled and (b) diverted from task to investigate uncorrelated targets picked up on radar; and if he will make a statement. [39218]

Mr. Soames: In the past five years RAF aircraft have been scrambled or diverted from task on two occasions to intercept and identify uncorrelated radar tracks entering the United Kingdom air defence region.

Unidentified Craft

Mr. Redmond: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence (1) what is his Department's assessment of the incident that occurred on 5 November 1990 when a patrol of RAF Tornado aircraft flying over the North sea were overtaken at high speed by an unidentified craft; and if he will make a statement; [39245]

(2) if he will make a statement on the unidentified flying object sighting reported to his Department by the meteorological officer at RAF Shawbury in the early hours of 31 March 1993. [39246]

Mr. Soames: Reports of sightings on these dates are recorded on file and were examined by staff responsible for air defence matters. No firm conclusions were drawn about the nature of the phenomena reported but the events were not judged to be of defence significance.

Mr. Redmond: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence what assessment his Department made of the photograph of an unidentified craft at Calvine on 4 August 1990; who removed it from an office in secretariat (air staff) 2a; for what reasons; and if he will make a statement. [39248]

Mr. Soames: A number of negatives associated with the sighting were examined by staff responsible for air defence matters. Since it was judged that they contained nothing of defence significance the negatives were not retained and we have no record of any photographs having been taken from them.

Section 40

7 Nov 96

7th Nov 96

BACKGROUND NOTE TO PQs 2334H AND 2344H

1. Mr Redmond is continuing to ask a number of questions about 'UFO'-related issues. Since the House returned from the summer recess he has now tabled 33 PQs on this subject. The two incidents to which Mr Redmond refers in these PQs are specifically cited in the book by a former member of Sec(AS) on 'UFOs'.

2. The sighting on 31 March 1993 was one of a number reported from the West Country and South Wales that day. These were examined in the usual manner and included a check with the US authorities about Stealth aircraft activities, which revealed nothing. The report by Tornado aircrew on 5 November 1990 suggested that they may have seen a Stealth aircraft, but there is no evidence on the file of any follow-up action. The report would have been shown to air defence experts, if the normal procedures were followed, and it may therefore be assumed that nothing of defence significance was inferred from the report. The Official Report, 24 July 1996, Col 424, which the MP cites in his question is attached for information at Annex A.

3. As we have already explained the factors relevant to investigating 'UFO' reports (Official Report, 8 July 1996, Col 26 attached at Annex B) there is nothing further to add to what has already been said. The draft reply therefore refers to the earlier answer.

This helpful recommendation, which reflects the local opinions that have been voiced over many months by my hon. Friends and others, will be considered by Barnet health authority at its next meeting.

Read Codes

Mr. Morgan: To ask the Secretary of State for Health, pursuant to his answer of 1 July, Official Report, column 334, if he will specify the organisation or person carrying out the study of the licensing arrangements between Computer Aided Medical Systems plc and the NHS; if that organisation was chosen by competitive tenders; when the study was started; when he expected it to be completed; and if he will place a copy in the Library of the completed report. [35768]

Mr. Horam: The review of current licensing and support arrangements for Read codes will be carried out by Silicon Bridge Research. Since it was chosen for its particular skills and experience, at a cost below the single tender limit, there was no competitive tender. The review started on 4 July 1996 and is expected to be completed by the end of October 1996. A report of its findings will be placed in the Library.

Mr. Soames: NATO standardisation agreement 3531 first came into operation in 1964.

Official Secrets (Military Accidents)

Mr. Jim Cunningham: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence what proposals he has to alter the provisions contained in official secrets legislation in relation to military incidents resulting in (a) injuries and (b) fatalities; and if he will make a statement. [35703]

Mr. Soames: There are no provisions in official secrets legislation relating specifically to such incidents. Service board of inquiry reports on military incidents resulting in fatalities are released to the next of kin of deceased service personnel, on request, subject to the minimum of security requirements.

Armed Forces

Mr. Galbraith: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence, pursuant to his answer to the hon. Member for South Shields (Dr. Clark) of 16 May, Official Report, column 559, if he will break down the figures for armed forces by (a) year and (b) service for each year since 1991. [35751]

Mr. Soames: The strength of the Regular armed forces by service, on 1 April for each year since 1991, was as follows:

	1991	1992	1993	1994	1995	1996
RN/RM	62,100	62,100	54,400	55,800	50,900	48,300
Army	154,600	152,400	140,900	128,600	115,900	113,400
RAF	88,400	86,000	80,900	75,700	70,800	64,700
Total	305,100	300,500	281,200	260,100	237,600	226,400
Others ¹	2,100	2,000	1,900	1,600	1,000	1,000

¹Locally Engaged Service Personnel. Army figures include Gurkha strengths.

All figures contain an element for personnel undergoing training.

Unidentified Flying Objects

Mr. Redmond: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence which office within his Department deals with sightings of unidentified flying objects. [35845]

Mr. Soames: The focal point within my Department for reports of sightings of unidentified flying objects is Secretariat(Air Staff)2a.

Mr. Redmond: To ask the Secretary of State for Defence if he will list by (a) date and (b) location for the last 10 years unexplainable sightings of unidentified flying objects received by his Department; and what action was subsequently taken. [35844]

Mr. Soames: My Department evaluates reports of "unexplained" aerial phenomena solely in order to establish whether they may have any defence significance. Unless there is evidence to indicate that the UK air defence region may have been compromised, and to date no sighting has provided such evidence, my Department does not investigate or seek to provide an explanation for what was observed. The question of unexplainable sightings has not therefore arisen.

22|To ask the Secretary of State for Defence, what is the Royal Air Force's practice as regards investigating sightings of unidentified flying craft which correlate with radar information;
if there is a requirement to investigate such phenomena by scrambling aircraft; and if he will make a statement. [2200]

MR SOAMES: Unidentified contacts penetrating UK airspace or the UK
Air Defence Region are identified by all available means, including interception.

BACKGROUND NOTE TO PQ2303H

1. This PQ is one of two which follow 26 'UFO'-related PQs tabled last month by Mr Redmond (22 to this Department, one to the Prime Minister, and three to the FCO).

2. We believe that the question has been asked as a result of recent media speculation about an alleged 'UFO' sighting off the East Anglian coast which occurred on the night of 4/5 Oct, and was witnessed by a number of people including officers of Skegness and Boston Police stations. Mr Redmond has written to USofS about this matter recently (copy attached) and we shall be providing a draft reply for this letter shortly.

3. During the night of 4/5 Oct, lights in the sky were observed seawards over The Wash. Although newspaper articles claim that the sightings were correlated by radar returns, the radar returns were assessed, were almost certainly caused by a permanent geographical feature on land and considered to be St Botolph's church spire in Boston, (273ft high). The church spire is known locally as the 'Boston Stump' and can appear occasionally on some radars in certain radar propagation conditions. The lights over The Wash area were observed from three separate locations high above the horizon, but without corroborating radar data and no associated air vehicle was detected by civil or military radars. A distant celestial source probably accounted for the lights observed.

4. As the PQ answer explains, "all available means" would be used to identify penetrations of UK airspace (which extends 12 nms from our coastline) or the much larger UK Air Defence Region which we police on behalf of NATO. We do not believe it would be appropriate to provide Mr Redmond with more detailed information about the "means" available to us as this would reveal our early warning methodology. The measures used would include electronic early warning identification (radar) and procedural means (ie. correlation with civil flight plans), and interception when electronic and procedural means did not resolve the issue. Interception would also be used in the case of non-NATO military aircraft to demonstrate a defence presence.

BACKGROUND NOTE TO PQ 2299H

1. This PQ is one of two which follow 26 'UFO'-related PQs tabled last month by Mr Redmond (22 to this Department, one to the Prime Minister, and three to the FCO).
2. USofS will recall that in May this year a MOD employee, Mr Nicholas Pope, who had previously served in the Air Staffs Secretariat, published a book on the 'UFO' phenomenon 'Open Skies, Closed Minds'. Media and public interest in 'UFO' issues has increased since that time including a number of TV programmes. Mr Redmond tabled ten 'UFO'-related questions between May and July this year.
3. Since the beginning of 1966 there have been approximately 9000 ? 'UFO' reports made to the Ministry of Defence. Once examined and judged to have no defence significance, the reports are placed on departmental files. Although the vast majority of 'UFO' reports are received from members of the public, separate records are not maintained of the source of the reports, eg. from on-duty service personnel, police, members of the public etc. To establish how many of the reports were made by military aircrew would require a paper search of all the files since 1966.
4. We are aware of one report by military aircrew on 5 November 1990, which suggested that they may have in fact seen a Stealth aircraft, but there is no evidence on the file of any follow-up action. The report would have been shown to air defence experts, if the normal procedures were followed, and it may therefore be assumed that nothing of defence significance was inferred from the report.
5. We have considered whether to expand the answer in order to avoid any impression that the Department holds a large number of reports from military aircrew, but on balance, have not done so. There is no evidence that any structured craft of unknown origin has penetrated the UK's Air Defence Region and Mr Redmond is well aware of this fact (copy of recent PQ answer attached).
